Charles Henry Davis

Charles Henry Davis, 88 of Dillon, Montana passed away October 15th, 2016. He was born in Salmon, Idaho on November 23, 1927. Funeral services are being planned for October 28th at 2 PM at Brundage Funeral Home. A guestbook is available online at www.brundagefuneralhome.com. A full notice will come out when available.

Arthur Robert Robinson

Arthur Robert Robinson, born September 4, 1932 in Red Lodge Montana, entered into Rest on October 12, 2016 in Dillon Montana surrounded by family and friends. Art grew up working on the family ranch on Elbow Creek before moving to Bozeman in 1950 to work on the Goldstein Ranch for 7 years, then cowboyed at the Wytana Ranch in Manhattan 6 years before going to the Carroll Ranch in the Big Hole in 1963. He worked for Steve Mahaffey breaking horses and feeding with a six horse team, the life he loved. That ranch sold and in 1973 he landed at the Snowline Grazing Association, 60,000 acres of mountains, valleys, and meadows from Lima to the Idaho line. In 2006 Art retired to his cabin up Grasshopper Creek, with a small herd of his own breed of 'Tear-and-Torn' cattle and was always on hand to help the neighbours gather and brand. His favourite place was in the saddle. He said what made him the best cowboy he could be was learning how cows think. Art had some rodeo time on bulls and broncs, and team roped into his 70s, commercials for Pabst beer and parts in Marlboro ads and the movie Return to Lonesome Dove. In 2006 he returned to the Christian fellowship he knew in his parents home and after 10 years decided he wanted it for himself, saying, "I didn't think I could be forgiven for all my past". He said, "I used to have #1-Cows, #2-Friends, #3-Ladies, now it's #1-God, #2-Family, #3-Cows."

Art is survived by his children with Lucille Heeb: Steve and Kathleen (Ott) Robinson, their son, Dayne Arthur and partner, Lora Weitzel of Butte Mt, Cynde Lokken of Olympia Wa, her son, Keith and Lacey (Leen) Lokken and great granddaughter, London of Austin, Tx, Debbie Chavez of Fallbrook, Ca, her children, Zane and Zach of Dallas, Tx, and Zalena of Fallbrook, CA. His children with Ruth Nelson: Jeff and Jaime (Watkins) Robinson of Whitehall, Mt, their children: Brad and Kelsey (Robinson) Quast of Rexburg, Id, Logan Robinson of Idaho Falls, Id, Faith Harlicker of

Montana Western dedicates Legacy Plaza Amphitheater and Model Classroom for Education
 University of Montana Western faculty, staff and students joined donors and community members Friday to dedicate the recently completed Dennis and Phyllis Washington Foundation Model Classroom for Education, and the Pioneer Federal Savings and Loan Amphitheater in Legacy Plaza.

The university also marked the completion of Legacy Plaza and final stage of the Main Hall complex restoration.

Mike Halligan, Washington Foundation executive director; Tom Welch, Pioneer Federal president and CEO; Beth Weatherby, Montana Western chancellor; and Susan Briggs, vice chancellor; cut a ceremonial ribbon to open both venues.

"The new spaces have truly transformed the campus, enhancing Main Hall, tying our buildings together and creating a place for all sorts of exciting new things to take place," Weatherby said.

The model classroom was made possible by a gift from the Dennis and Phyllis Washington Foundation. The foundation's generosity not only created a state-of-the-art classroom lab for education students, but also restored the university's historic library.

Pioneer Federal Savings and Loan, a longtime supporter of the university, funded the amphitheater project which has become the major architectural feature in Legacy Plaza providing a multi-use space for outdoor lectures, classes, performances, events and informal gatherings.

"These projects have been a labor of love for so many people the past 10 years," Vice Chancellor Susan Briggs said. "We have created a beautiful space that people can enjoy for generations to come."

In 2013, the Montana Legislature appropriated $4 million toward the final phase of Main Hall renovations. As a part of obtaining the funding, Montana Western was required to raise $500,000 in matching funds.

Legacy Plaza was created as a concept to allow donors and the community to assist in raising the funding. As a result the university was the first in the Montana University System to meet the goal.

MONTANA WESTERN ANNOUNCES SUBSTANTIAL ENDOWMENT FOR UNIVERSITY

The University of Montana Western announced today that The Haynes Foundation, a charitable foundation founded by Jack Ellis Haynes and Isabel May Haynes in 1958, has established an endowment of $417,773 with the University of Montana Western Foundation. The endowment will be used to provide scholarships to undergraduate students who have graduated from a Montana high school.

The goal of The Haynes Foundation has been to assist in providing scholarships to deserving Montana students since its inception. Jack and Isabel Haynes owned and operated The Haynes Picture Shop in Yellowstone National Park. This was a continuation of the photo shop originally started by Jack Haynes' father, Frank J. Haynes in 1884. The Haynes family photographs, post cards, guidebooks and souvenirs opened the wonder of Yellowstone National Park to generations worldwide.

The establishment of this endowment demonstrates the 50-plus year commitment of The Haynes Foundation to promoting higher education in the state of Montana and helping to prepare our students for a lifetime of success.

Montana and Yellowstone National Park were an integral part of the Haynes family history and Jack and Isabel Haynes demonstrated the strong work ethic, entrepreneurship and commitment to continuing a successful business, which enabled them to establish The Haynes Foundation. The endowment will benefit students for many generations to come and continue to ensure that the goals of The Haynes Foundation established in 1958 will continue to be fulfilled in perpetuity.

In our relentless pursuit of the very best rural healthcare in the nation, we believe that providing top quality, safe, effective care is a partnership in which every one of us is an active part. These awards are a testament to our team's investment in the lives of our patients and the health of our community."

Hospitals applying for a quality award are required to meet certain criteria outlined by Mountain-Pacific. Quality Awards are given to hospitals that demonstrate high performance in current national focus areas including Healthcare-Associated Infections (HAIs) and Patient Experience of Care. This year, we have added a Healthy People 2020 component, Influenza Vaccination among Health Care Personnel, expanded the criteria for Patient/Family Engagement and developed a new award—Chasing Zero. As in the past, we continue to require all award recipients to demonstrate evidence of strong executive leadership.

"Recognizing hospitals for their unwavering dedication to providing high quality health care is at the heart of our award program," says Christy Fuller, director of Mountain-Pacific's Montana office. "We believe that hospitals receiving our awards demonstrate a solid commitment to providing services that set the bar for quality care in important aspects of patient care."

CANDY HANDED OUT

The event is by appointment only and will be held at the Dillon City Hall. Those interested in meeting with a counselor are asked to call Southwest Montana Aging and Disability Services at 782-5555 or 800-551-3191 (toll free). We encourage all seniors to take advantage of the Medicare Open Enrollment Period, (Oct. 15 -Dec. 7), and review their coverage to make sure that their current Prescription Drug or Medicare Advantage Plan is still the best one for them.

The State Health Insurance Assistance Program trains counselors to provide unbiased information to seniors regarding their Medicare coverage. This service is provided at no cost to the beneficiary, although donations to the program are appreciated.

ROTARY SPEAKER

Susie Brown will be the featured speaker at the noon Rotary meeting scheduled for Wednesday, October 19, 2016. Susie will discuss the recent name change and current happenings at the animal shelter.

The Rotary Club will meet at the Guild Hall of St. James Episcopal Church located at 203 East Glendale St. in Dillon. Visitors are welcome to join Rotarians for lunch. The presentation is scheduled to begin at approximately 12:20 p.m. For more information, email Craig Rehm at crehm@dadco.com or Roxanne Engellant at engellant@gmail.com.
