The Jerry Springer Election

By Tom Purcell

"I can't take it anymore. This stupid presidential election has turned into a lousy Jerry Springer show."

"Ah, yes, you speak of a series of salacious stories about Donald Trump, as well as Hillary and Bill Clinton. Story after story is being published daily. It's certainly getting ugly out there."

"You got that right. First we hear a recording of a boorish Trump talking about his weakness for beautiful women, and all of a sudden, nine women come out of the woodwork accusing him of groping them. If there is one word I hope to never hear again in a presidential election, 'groping' is it."

"I couldn't agree more. It is also disheartening that so many stories about Bill Clinton's peccadilloes keep making the news."

"I thought I was burned out on Bill Clinton's alleged extracurricular activities when he retired from the White House in January 2001. Now that Hillary is running for president, various news outlets keep reporting his more recent alleged activities - activities I don't want to know about."

"What you say is true. Various gossip rags and other 'legitimate' news outlets are reporting that other women are coming forward, accusing Bill of untoward behavior or worse. One young man has come forward, claiming that Bill impregnated his mother, a lady of the night, and that he is Bill's son."

"Stop. Please. We have so much at stake in this country. Our debt will soon pass $20 trillion. Entitlement spending is about to explode. Economic growth has been horrible. ObamaCare has driven insurance premiums through the roof for millions of middle-class Americans and is likely to collapse under its own weight. If we don't address these issues, a world of hurt awaits us. Yet our focus is in the gutter?"

"Then you surely won't want to hear the latest gossip-rag report on Hillary. According to the National Enquirer, Hillary had a bagman set up trysts between her and -"

"Please. God. Stop. Look, one of the great tragedies of our time is that there is so little distinction between the gossip rags and the legitimate news outlets. Whether you like or dislike Trump, it is tragic that our allegedly objective press is clearly in the tank for Hillary. It's hard to know whose reporting to trust anymore."

"Your words evoke great sadness in me - sadness for our country. As you say, with all the challenges our country faces, why do we let the politicians and the press get us lathered up about various allegations, when so many real issues and challenges are at stake?"

"A better question is why do we keep falling for it? All of this 'gotcha' journalism is killing us."

"Former Democrat presidential candidate Gary Hart agrees with your assessment. In 1984, everyone expected him to become the Democrat nominee, but his hopes were dashed when The Miami Herald reported his alleged extramarital affair with a 29-year-old lady, Donna Rice.

"I remember that story. It was a turning point in political reporting in America."

"Well, Hart says that as the media have become more intrusive in people's private lives, 'an awful lot of people of quality choose not to seek public office. And that is reflected in the decline in the caliber and quality of people in public service, unfortunately.'"

"Which means only second-rate candidates like Trump and Hillary would have the gumption to put themselves through this circus?"

"Exactly. And the combination of our unreliable, gossip press and second-rate candidates is the reason the presidential election has turned into a lousy Jerry Springer show."

INFORMATION SOUGHT IN ELKHORNS POACHING CASE

Montana game wardens are seeking information about a headless elk carcass discovered in the Poe Park area of the Elkhorn Mountains outside of Radersburg.

The bull elk was found by hunters on horseback Tuesday. They called Montana's poaching hotline (800-TIP-MONT) and described the elk as having been shot and left to waste with only its head removed.

The hunters also said that they had run into a man earlier in the day who was hunting on foot with a large backpack, orange t-shirt and camouflage pants. They reported he indicated he was from the Whitefish area.

Wardens would like to speak to this individual and others that might have information about this case.

"This is a disgusting act of wildlife poaching. The criminal who committed this crime needs to be held accountable," said Warden Sgt. Dave Loewen. "We need the public's help."

The Elkhorns are considered a trophy elk hunting district - requiring a special permit available by drawing only. Many hunters consider it a once in a lifetime opportunity.

Anyone with information is asked to call 800-TIP-MONT or Sgt. Loewen at (406) 439-5688.

Street Sweeper: The streets will only be closed one day for sweeping due to new improved and more efficient equipment.

Site Triangles: The zoning document does have a section that deals with site triangles for new construction only. The committee is taking another look at site triangles to see if they can improve upon them throughout the city. Chief Craft would like to have common sense applied because the issues being dealt with are 100 plus years in the making. Work to make it justifiable for everybody. Mayor Klakken stated that the site triangle is not be inforce downtown because it would take out additional parking spaces. Tabled

Towing: Chief Craft presented information outlining the guidelines and details for procedure the police would follow when identifying a vehicle for towing. The information stated that the city would contract with a bonded, State of MT licensed towing company to tow and store vehicles. Motion made by Straugh, 2nd by Shafer to accept the document Chief Craft presented with several changes. Motion carried.

Open Container: the committee decided to table for 3 months until they could gather further information. The police will be gathering actual on ground data for the committee.

LAST CALL FOR R3 CITIZENS' ADVISORY COMMITTEE APPLICANTS DEADLINE MONDAY

Montana Fish, Wildlife & Parks is seeking applicants to fill several volunteer positions on the Region 3 Citizens' Advisory Committee (CAC). FWP is interested in selecting members from a pool of candidates who represent a variety of interests and communities within the region. Terms will begin in 2017. The deadline for applications is via email by end of day Monday, Oct. 31 or postmarked by that date. The original call for applications went out Sept. 23.

The Citizens' Advisory Committee helps FWP achieve its goals by sharing information, ideas, emerging trends and initiatives from the public in a setting that welcomes differing points of view. Citizen advisors serve in a voluntary capacity with meals and travel expenses provided. Meetings are generally held quarterly in Bozeman. All meetings are open to the public.

Specifically, the functions of the CAC are to:

- Help promote Montana's strong outdoor recreation traditions
- Provide a forum for ongoing two-way communication with our neighbors and communities in southwest Montana
- Help FWP personnel maintain and improve responsiveness to the public
- Help FWP identify emerging issues
- Provide advice and perspective on important resource and management issues
- Assist FWP with crafting local, sustainable solutions on regional and statewide issues

Applicants will be asked to provide an overview of their interests and involvement in natural resource issues. Finalists may be asked to interview by phone or in person.

To obtain an application, visit the FWP Region 3 office at 1400 S. 19th Ave., call 406-994-4042, or email anjones@mt.gov. Applicants will be notified by email (or mail if requested) by the end of the year about the results of the selection process.

CANDY HANDED OUT

Do You Know the Truth... "Can one lose the salvation he received upon becoming a believer in Christ?"

(We believe the following: (1) the Bible was given by the inspiration of God as stated in 2 Timothy 3:16-17; (2) all statements made in this and any ensuing articles will be based on what the Bible says; (3) the Bible only is a reliable source of spiritual & doctrinal truth; (4) all beliefs in conflict with Biblical teachings are false.)

Knowing where salvation originates is critical to understanding if it permanent or if certain improper action on the part of man can cause God to remove it.

The salvation of our spirit does not originate with any action by man, but with God. In Psalm 68:20 it states, "He that is our God is the God of salvation; and unto God the Lord belong the issues from death."

The term 'saved' refers to being rescued or delivered. In Acts 16:30 the Paul & Silas were asked the question, "...Sirs, what must I do to be saved?" Their response was, "Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and you will be saved...."

From the scriptures it is clear that the God gives salvation to any individual who believes in His Son Jesus Christ. There is nothing said about the need to be baptized, join a church, or perform some other action that will contribute to salvation.

When God gives salvation to one who repents and believes in Jesus Christ it includes eternal life and the removal of the condemnation that is on every unbeliever. Several scriptures make this clear.

Jesus himself stated in John 5:24, "...he that hears my word, and believes on him that sent me, has everlasting life, and shall not come into condemnation; but is passed from death to life."

In John 3:18 Jesus said, "He that believes on him is not condemned: but he that believes not is condemned already, because he has not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God." From this we note that UNBELIEF is the only thing by which man is condemned.

Conclusion: More on this subject next week.
