50 Things You Didn't Know About Montana (Part 2)

11. Montana is the only state with rivers that drain into three different oceans; the Pacific Ocean, Atlantic Ocean, and Arctic Ocean (by virtue of its drainage into Canada's Hudson Bay).
12. Montana has more residents (8,529 per 10,000 people) serving in the United States military than any other state...yet it is the only state without a modern naval ship named in its honor.
13. An earthquake in 1959 caused Hebgen Lake in Gallatin County, Montana to recede 22 feet, leaving a wide gravel beach along its lakefront.
14. In 1903 the library in Bozeman, Montana was intentionally built across the street from the city's red-light district and opium dens.
15. Montana is the only state in the U.S. that does not have any statewide ban on texting behind the wheel.
16. The Montana state constitution mandates the all students must learn American Indian history, culture, and heritage.
17. A cowboy once insisted on riding his horse to his room in the Grand Union Hotel in Fort Benton, Montana. When the manager objected, the two exchanged gunfire. The cowboy was killed before he and his horse made it to the top of the stairs. Fourteen slugs were later removed from his body.
18. A Gideon bible was first placed inside a hotel room in Montana.

- The bed of bison bones at First Peoples Buffalo Jump State Park in Montana is 13 feet deep.
- Fort Peck Dam is the largest earth-filled dam in the world and a photo of it was the first photo to grace the cover of Life magazine on November 23, 1936.
- It is illegal to operate a vehicle with ice picks attached to the wheels within the city limits of Whitehall, Montana.
- 46 out of Montana's 56 counties are still considered "frontier counties" with fewer than 6 residents per square mile.
- Mary Fields, who was born into slavery in 1832 and who would later become known as "Stagecoach Mary," was one of the toughest women in the Montana Territory. She was described as a "tart-tongued, gun-toting, hard-drinking, cigar-and-pipe smoking, 6 foot tall, 200 pound black woman who was tough enough to take on any two men." She arrived in Montana to help establish mission schools on the Cheyenne, Crow, Blackfoot and Fort Belknap Indian Reservations.
- Montana permits urinating along the side of the road (so as long as he or she attempts to be modest and does not bother anyone else in the process).
- Montana has more one-room schools—around 90—than any other state in the country.
- Montana has more than 29,000 family farms and ranches covering 66 percent of the state's land mass.
- In 1993 the town of Ismay, Montana unofficially changed its name to Joe, Montana as part of a well-organized publicity stunt by the Kansas City Chiefs to honor quarterback Joe Montana.
- The only place where you can cross the Canada-United States border without having to show any form of ID or documentation is when you are on a cruise from Waterton, Alberta to Goat Haunt, Montana on Waterton Lake.
- Cattle rustling in Montana is still punishable by hanging.
- There are 77 mountain ranges in Montana and 2,991 mountain peaks with names...none of which are among the 50 tallest in the United States.
- During a smallpox epidemic in the early 1800s two Crow Indian boys rode a white horse over a cliff to sacrifice their lives to save their tribe from the disease. The exact location of that cliff is believed to be along the Yellowstone River near Billings, Montana.

Beaverhead Animal Shelter News

It is BAG DAY at the Beaverhead Animal Shelter Thrift Store. Beginning on Tuesday, Nov 1, and continuing through Friday, Nov 11, you can fill a bag for just $3 ... yep, just $3. Some items have been excluded. Then the Store will be closed until Tuesday, Nov 15, when it will open ready for Christmas. If you stopped by the store last fall, you know that there are new and slightly used items suitable for gift giving. The Store is located in downtown Dillon on Center, across the street from the Elk's. They are open Tuesday – Friday, 10-4 and Saturday 10-3. If you have some time during the coming winter months and would like to help out at the store, contact Judy Carlson at 406-660-0683.

The Beaverhead Animal Shelter has a part time position vacant for a cat care technician. This is a perfect job for a Mom who has kids in school. Morning hours, 5 days a week, 3 hours a day. It is a paid position. Please stop by the Shelter office for a full job description and application. Shelter office hours are after 10:00 am on Monday, Tuesday, Thursday, Friday, or Saturday. Sorry, but they cannot adjust these hours to accommodate college class schedules. The best part of this job is you get to cuddle with the cats and kittens.

The next spay/neuter clinic will be held Friday, November 18 at the Beaverhead Animal Shelter. $20 for a male cat, $40 for female cat, $40 for male or female dog. Call the Shelter office after 10:00 am on Monday, Tuesday, Thursday, Friday, or Saturday to make a reservation for your pet. There are limited spots available, so do call now. 406-683-8119.

Prayers for Military Peace Keepers at St. James Episcopal Church:

There will be a service honoring military personnel who have provided a peaceful nation for all of us. They may be active or veterans, at home or abroad. The service will be held at 12 noon on the first Wednesday of every month at St James Episcopal Church (203 E. Glendale, Dillon, MT). All are welcome; families, friends, military personnel and anyone who would like to thank and pray for all of the Armed Forces of the United States. The next service will be held on November 2, 2016 at 12 noon. Any questions, call 683-2735. Please join us.

Attorney General, Governor, Crow Nation Sign Settlement Agreement Resolving Coal Severance Tax Litigation

At a joint signing ceremony held this morning at Billings Logan International Airport, Montana Attorney General Tim Fox, Montana Governor Steve Bullock, and Crow Nation Chairman Darrin Old Coyote signed a settlement agreement resolving long-standing litigation concerning the assessment of taxes on coal owned by the Crow Nation.

Settlement of the litigation was negotiated as part of the Crow Tribe - Montana Water Rights Compact that was approved by the Montana Legislature during a special session in 1999. In 2010, Congress approved the Water Compact; in 2012, the Crow Nation, the United States of America, and the State of Montana executed the Water Compact in a signing ceremony in Washington, DC, resolving more than 30 years of litigation and negotiations. The Water Compact allowed the Tribe to focus on key water projects on the Crow Reservation.

The Water Compact also stipulated that as consideration for the Crow Tribe's agreement to protect certain water rights recognized under state law, and to release certain legal claims asserted against the State, the State of Montana would contribute the sum of $15 million to the Crow Tribe for economic development and water and sewer infrastructure within the Crow Reservation. As part of the settlement of litigation, the State also agreed that any future coal production taxes collected by the State on production of coal owned by the United States in Trust for the Crow Tribe would be paid to the Tribe.

"This is a historic day for the State of Montana and for the Crow Nation. This responsible agreement was the result of years of working government-to-government to do the right thing for all Montanans, and I thank the Crow Tribe for its hard work in securing a stronger future for all its members," Governor Steve Bullock said.

"Coal mining is key to the economic well-being of Montana as well as to the Crow Nation," Attorney General Tim Fox said. "Today's coal severance tax litigation settlement is long overdue and welcome news for the Crow Nation, which has experienced a 47% unemployment rate since coal markets began to shrink due in part to over-reaching regulations on the part of EPA."

"The enforceability of our water settlement, the resolution of the coal severance litigation and the payment of the $15 million will enable the Crow Nation to provide critical services to our tribal membership and will allow us to plan for the future of our Nation," said Crow Nation Chairman Darrin Old Coyote. "I appreciate all of the hard work of the Tribal, State and Federal officials that have gotten us to this day, and we look forward to working cooperatively with the State going forward as we embark on this new era of Crow self-sufficiency and management of our tribal resources."

In 2014, Attorney General Fox and the Crow Nation worked together to raise concerns about EPA's proposed carbon regulations, citing that agency's lack of legal authority and failure to consult with the Tribe.

ROTARY SPEAKER

The Dillon Rotarians will conduct their business meeting on Wednesday, November 2, 2016. Visitors are welcome. Anyone interested in learning more about Rotary should come at noon to be a guest for lunch. The Club meets in the Guild Hall of St. James Episcopal Church, 203 East Glendale St.

For more information, email Craig Rehm at crehm@dadco.com or Roxanne Engellant at engellantr@gmail.com.

OPERATION CHRISTMAS CHILD COLLECTION WEEK

It's that time of year again to start packing shoeboxes. Millions of children around the world need to know that someone cares for them. A single shoebox filled with gifts has a tremendous affect on children living in orphanages, severe poverty and war-torn areas of the world.

Since 1993, more than 100 million children have been touched by the power of a simple gift. Every shoebox is a tool that can be used by God to reach one more child with the Good News of Jesus Christ.

If you would like to be a part of this amazing ministry contact Barb Kramer at 925-2657. I can provide you with information on how to pack a box and prepare it for shipping. I have labels and boxes for your convenience. Collection week is November 14-21. You can drop off your box at Grace Bible Church at 1049 Laknar Lane, from 11:00 am to 1:00 pm starting Monday the 14th.

Got questions?

The Bible can help us to live a good, healthy an happy life. It answers many of the problems and issues we face today, and is filled with words of comfort & guidance.

All correspondence will be strictly confidential, no names will be mentioned. Questions answered from your Bible.

The Dillonite will (depending on space) print one letter a week on Thursdays.
