Trailers in the City?

By: MJ

At the November 7th zoning meeting Committeeman Mooney passed out written changes or clarifications for the zoning document. Some of those changes dealt with trailer houses within the city limits. Following is an overview of what these changes will be.

CHANGES: If you are the proud owner of your first new home, a mobile home, how will it make you feel when the city tells you that you can only live in one area within the city? If you own an older mobile home that complies with zoning regulations you will also be relegated to one area. The area you will be allowed to move into is an R-3 or RMH district with a conditional permit only. NOTE: There are no Recreational Mobile Home (RMH) district identified within the city limits that I could find. That leaves you one choice of where you can park your mobile home.

Questions: Is the city saying you must build a house to have a choice of where you live in the city? Would this be unfairness at work? Is the zoning committee taking into consideration the wages paid in Dillon and what people can afford? Are they saying owners of mobile homes are undesirables? Are they saying you need to live outside city limits if you have a mobile home and want a choice of the area you would like to reside in?

There must be more than one way to accommodate and incorporate everyone in a fairer way. Yes, it is true if you had a $500,000 home you may not want to live next to a cabin, trailer… The cabin or mobile home dweller may not want to live next to your $500,000 home either.

There will be public hearings held before these ordinance changes can be made. If you are interested bring your ideas to the hearing. Get ahold of Mayor Klakken, Director of Operations or Mr. McIsaac, the Chairman of the zoning committee. Ask yourself if this is what is fair and equitable for Dillon's economy and the citizens within.

Is it time to roll back regulations and make them work for Dillon today while continuing to work toward the future?

Why 'Deplorables' Elected Trump

By Tom Purcell

"They still don't get what the Trump win was all about. All those people protesting and calling their fellow citizens racists, sexists and xenophobes don't have a clue why Hillary really lost."

"It's a bit silly to protest nearly 60 million Americans who exercised their constitutional right by voting for a candidate the protesters opposed. The fact is, there are dozens of sound reasons why millions voted for Trump."

"You raise a fair point. It's very difficult for either party to hold the White House for more than two terms. According to, About.com, the last Democrat candidate to succeed a two-term Democrat president was James Buchanan way back in 1857."

"And after eight years of Obama's policies, no small number of Americans were ready for some serious changes. Nothing motivated me to cast a vote for Trump more than my soaring health-care premiums."

"To be sure, health insurance premiums have shot up again this November because of the massive disruptions brought on by ObamaCare. Millions of Americans are still angry that they could not keep their doctors and that the average family did not save $2,500 a year in premium costs ---- two whoppers Obama told to win support for his health-care overhaul."

"I'm so happy Chief Justice Roberts did not overturn ObamaCare back in 2012. That kept it in the public square, where we average Joes still had a chance to vote against it. And vote on it we did. With Trump as president and Republicans holding the House and the Senate, ObamaCare will be replaced or massively reformed with a new approach that better addresses the primary challenge with health-care insurance in America: cost!"

"Hopefully, ObamaCare will be a lesson learned for politicians of both parties. You need consensus from both parties to reform one-sixth of the U.S. economy. But the Affordable Care Act of 2010 was passed along purely partisan lines."

"You got that right. Not one Republican in the House or Senate voted in favor of it. The polls continuously showed that more than half of Americans felt that ObamaCare was rammed down our throats ---- the chief reason we voted to remove Democrat control of the House and Senate during Obama's term and a chief reason Hillary will not be America's first female president."

"What are some of the reasons Hillary lost?"

"Corruption and cronyism really agitated me. Too many smug

'journalists' in the big media outlets did everything they could to get Hillary elected as they did everything they could to discredit Trump. One CNN contributor forwarded debate questions to Hillary ahead of the debates. That is dirty pool and it makes me sick."

"To be sure, the double standard and one-sidedness of our big media outlets motivated millions of agitated voters to pull the lever for Trump. Ironically, their efforts to derail him helped to elect him."

"Above all, voting for Trump was the most powerful way millions could repudiate Obama's policies ---- executive orders that defied the Constitution, new rules and regulations created out of thin air, more than 46 million on food stamps, $20 trillion in national debt, median household income down 2.3 percent, and the first president in U.S. history to average well under 3 percent GDP growth during every year of his term!"

"One cannot argue with your facts or the many reasons you voted for Trump."

"Look, Trump has no small number of flaws, but people just want to take care of their families, pay their bills on time, and afford their health-care premiums. We want a vibrant economy that makes it a little easier for us to get ahead. That is why this 'basket of deplorables' member helped make Trump our 45th president."

The Beaverhead County 4-H Horse Committee hosted a Ranch Horse Show on November 12 at La Cense Arena in Dillon. The Horse committee looks forward to providing this event again next year. Divisions offered for the show were Open Pro, Rancher, Open, Senior and Junior. Participants were judged in the following events: Ranch cutting, trailer loading, trail pattern, reining pattern and cattle work. A Team Sorting was also offered at the conclusion of the show. Results are as follows:

Open Pro High Point: Luke Wiggins, 361.5
Rancher High Point: Angela Rowan, 343.5
Open High Point: Jessica Thompson, 360.5
Senior High Point: Shannon Keller, 353.5
Junior High Point: Brooke Whitney, 362.5

The Beaverhead County 4H Horse Committee would like to thank the buckle and award sponsors for this event: Dillon Dental Clinic, Beaverhead Ranch and Home, Beaverhead Veterinary Clinic, Dr. Mike and Lindsey Clark, Schuett Farms, Jerry Wessels Les Schwab Tire Center, The Bank of Commerce.

A very special thank you to La Cense Arena, Race King and Eric Hoffman for facilitating the use of their wonderful facilities, the Sagebrush and Snowdrifts 4-H Club for providing concessions, The Abbey Family for providing livestock, UM-W Equestrian Club for providing assistance in set-up and clean-up and Jess Kirkpatrick for judging.

Wood Bank Ministries Update:

May folks wonder how we deliver all that wood? The typical delivery of wood is three cords delivered in our dump-bed truck and trailer. We schedule our deliveries for Tuesday or Thursdays and when possible encourage clients to pick the wood up. We have already begun our deliveries for this winter season and anticipate distributing over 100 cords.

You may be wondering who does all of this. Wood Bank Ministries has a steady group of volunteers we refer to as our Wood Chucks and Chicks. These folks come from all walks of life and have logged over 100 volunteer hours over the past year. Folks like Bob & Sarah Pfister, and board members of Beaverhead United Way, Lynn Stonelake, Monte Elliot, and a number of other individuals make this work possible. Another important group of volunteers we would like to thank are the cadets at Youth Challenge. Each year a group of cadets take time from their schedule to donate their energy and time to split, pile, and organize wood. Thank you to all of our Wood Chucks and Chicks! You make this possible. Do you have some time to contribute to our efforts to ensure no one goes without heat this winter? Please call 406-596-3690 for more information.

Do You Know the Truth..."What is Sin?

(We believe the following: (1) the Bible was given by the inspiration of God as stated in 2 Timothy 3:16-17; (2) all statements made in this and any ensuing articles will be based on what the Bible says; (3) the Bible only is a reliable source of spiritual & doctrinal truth; (4) all beliefs in conflict with Biblical teachings are false.)

A dictionary definition of sin is "any act regarded as such a transgression, especially a willful or deliberate violation of some religious or moral principle."

This definition presents a dilemma due to the fact that there are a variety of conflicting laws & beliefs in the realm of society & religion.

The solution to this dilemma is to refer to the definition of sin given by God in His inspired word, the Bible. That definition is given in 1 John 3:4 where it states, "Whoever commits sin transgresses also the law: for sin is the transgression of the law." The "law" referred to is not civil or religious law, but God's law as given in the scriptures.

Many laws in the realm of society and religion are contradictory to God's law. This means that even though one hasn't broken civil or religious laws, he is still classified as a sinner. This is important to understand because be we will be judged regarding sin by God's law, not the laws of man or religion

What this means is that every individual who lives "...has sinned and come short of the glory of God," as stated in Romans 3:23. This sin has a consequence, which is stated in Romans 6:23a "For the wages of sin is death..." Death spoken of in this reference is the eternal separation from God in the glories of heaven to a place of torment in the lake of fire (see Revelation 20:11-15).

Sin brings unpleasant circumstances on earth. We observe this in our society as millions suffer diseases from living a lifestyle that opposes God's laws. These consequences are temporary, but the consequences of sin are eternal.

Conclusion: The solution to sin and its consequences is given in Romans 6:23b, "...but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord."

Big Sky Missionary Baptist Church

November 17, 2016

To All Ratepayers of Dillon,

It has come to my attention that several individuals have tried to make an online bill payment with the payment completed but it was not actually made to the City of Dillon but to another website not affiliated with the City at all. The incorrect website has the address of: https://www.doxo.com/info/city-dillon-water-dept-mt.

If you completed a Google search for "City of Dillon Water Department", the first search response would be this website which IS NOT AFFILIATED WITH DILLON AT ALL. We are trying to determine what we can do about this but until this is fixed, please be careful when searching. The correct website for City of Dillon Water/Sewer bills is: https://www.billingdoc.net/finalpayonline31/index.php?c=BMS058

You can type this directly in your web browser or go to the City of Dillon's webpage located at: www.dillonmt.org and near the top right corner there is a shortcut/link that you may click and be directed to the correct website (the billingdoc.net site). Sorry for any confusion that this has created and again the City of Dillon is investigating all possibilities to correct this confusion.

Michael L. Klakken, Mayor
