Donald H. DeShazo, 84

Donald H. DeShazo, 84, passed away peacefully at home November 16, 2016 with his wife and daughter by his side.

He was born at the family home in Butte on February 29, 1932 to Richard and Hazel. He joined his older brother Richard Grant and sister Betty Ann. He was full of energy as a child and loved being outdoors. He attended elementary school at the Jefferson and Grant Schools and graduated from Butte High School in 1950.

Don was interested in bowling and his bowling career began in high school as a manual pin setter. He joined the US Navy after graduation.

Upon returning from the Navy, Don met Helen Commons and they were married. Their family began to grow and they had three daughters, Debra, Donette & Diane. He and the family moved to different cities in Montana where he worked as a meat cutter. His love for bowling continued and spanned many years. He enjoyed the bowling tournaments and his spouse Helen accompanied him on several occasions. They also bowled together on a team for many years. Don also enjoyed fishing, hunting & golfing. During his younger years the family would get together and go fishing. He taught his nephew Stanley Younce to hunt. The family enjoyed visiting the Grose Ranch in the Browns Gulch area outside Melrose.

Don had a positive attitude, deep faith and sweet disposition as he saw life from the confines of his recliner over the last several years. He would greet everyone as they came and went. He enjoyed visiting and being involved with each of our lives. He liked having the grand kids and great-grand kids come and visit. The little kids and dogs would stand in front of his chair for treats. The kids could usually talk him out of a Hershey bar or two.

He loved animals and there was usually a dog or two running around. They were treated like kings with an assortment of treats.

Don was a good husband, father, grandfather and great-grandfather and he will be missed by all who knew him. He was preceded in death by his parents, Dick and Hazel, his in-laws, Clarence and Bess Commons, his brother Grant DeShazo, and his sister Betty Brown, several nephews and by his two daughters, Donette and Diane.

Don is survived by his spouse of 63 years, Helen, his daughter Deb (Roy) Baker, grandchildren; Jerry Lee (Angie) Saari, Jason (Mindy) Saari, Cameron (Regina) Haworth, his great grandchildren; Dracy, Skyla, Kelsy, Cameron, Jaina, Jaden, Steven and Keith, and numerous nieces and nephews.

Funeral services will be held on Saturday, November 26, 2016 at the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints in Dillon. Viewing will be held one hour prior at the church from 10-11 am. Burial will follow at Mountain View Cemetery in Dillon.

KBZK News airing in-depth story on Montana Western's Main Hall renovation

KBZK television news of Bozeman, will begin airing a comprehensive story about the 10-year renovation of University of Montana Western's Main Hall on Tuesday, Nov. 22, 2016.

KBZK's Chet Layman of Montana This Morning recently met with historical architect Ken Sievert to tour Main Hall. Sievert worked on the multi-year project and was able to provide Layman with in-depth detail about the 120-year old building.

The story will include details about Main Hall's renovations over the years, including the most recent renovation of the old library, which is now a state-of-the-art model classroom. The library's original ceiling and medallions were restored, and the mezzanine area was returned to its original configuration, which will serve as a student-teacher viewing area.

The model classroom was built to serve Montana Western's Rural Fridays program, which brings elementary students from area rural schoolhouses to be taught by pre-service (student) teachers. The space also serves as a facility for university and community meetings, university courses, practice-teaching sessions and event receptions.

Originally named the Montana State Normal School, Montana Western began as the state's teacher training institution in 1893, with the first class beginning in 1897.

The segment will air at 6:10 a.m., 5:30 p.m. and 10 p.m.

Board of Adjustment Nov. 14, 2016

By: MJ

Meeting was cancelled due to no quorum. No decisions were made however there was much discussion. Matt Ulberg, an engineer from DJ&H from Missoula attended the meeting. He gave a review of his findings on parking and the egress and ingress at the Bull Pen's drive through window.

The board had several questions. Mr. Johnasson, the owner answered questions and explained to the board how he was effectively managing the traffic flow. When the building was built the parking requirements of the city were not as stringent..

The Bull Pen is an example of a business trying to improve their income flow and provide the service that people want today. Old town business buildings that have been bought by entrepreneurs hoping to make small changes are running into difficulties with the city's zoning document. Is the zoning document lacking language that allows the people to better themselves and improve existing property thus enhancing the community?

There is a development called "Beaver Pride" that has participated enthusiastically in the community by personally investing in a project that will benefit Dillon and help it move into the future. From the beginning they have been working with the Planning Board, Zoning Board, Mayor, Director of Operations and others to comply with the cities requirements. May the members representing the city on boards and committees work with them to create a win-win situation.

*Some members of the zoning committee have stated that strict regulations is what people want to have in place before they build in the city, thus the existing zoning document. No facts have ever been presented to prove this statement. Reality is: Diversity is Essential. The world would be incomplete if everyone were alike. Example: You might not go over the spill-way in a raft at the damn however there was a person that did just that.

Question: Is the active zoning ordinance a drain on Dillon's economy? Many homes and rentals are being built just outside the city limits. Why are people not taking advantage of what Dillon offers and building in the city limits?

Reliving memories

By MJ

Ms. Vivian Womack a 95 year old lady, may have been the oldest attendant at the Festival of Trees celebration last week-end. She did what she loved to do - dressed up and enjoyed a social outing. She attended the event with her late son's (Joe) wife, Brenda Womack.

Ms. Vivian and her late husband, known as the General, were a couple that continued to give to the community. Much of what they did was only known to those that were the recipients. They did not have a need or desire to be acknowledged for their achievements. The gifts came from their hearts for their own reasons.

Ms. Vivian attended a Festival of Trees event in Atlanta while she was visiting her son and family, came home to become an active member in the Dillon group. With the help of several other ladies the Festival of Trees became a reality in Dillon and (15) fifteen years later is still ongoing.

Ms. Vivian was a lady of action and loved the community. When she believed in something she was a bulldog.

Leone, a restoration specialist for the Clark Fork Coalition, works on stream restoration in the upper Clark Fork focusing on water planning efforts and conservation projects aimed at enhancing flows and restoring aquatic habitat. His talk will address impacts of low summer streamflows on water resources in southwest Montana's Jefferson Valley. Leone's lecture is at 3:45 pm in Block Hall on UMW campus, Room 311. RED HAT SOCIETY NEWS

On November 17th, the Red Hat Belles were seen at the Pizza Hut socializing and enjoying the Pizza Hut's salad bar and pizza buffet.

Donations were collected for the Dillon Backpack Program. Door prizes were given to Margie Nelson (harvest door decorations), Barb Schrader (harvest basket w/candles) and Alyce Wassell (harvest pumpkin bowls). Congratulations to all of you!

Barb Schrader and Alyce Wassall have volunteered to co-host our December activity. Due to a scheduling conflict, they asked if the meeting could be after Christmas. Everyone agreed that after Christmas would be fine. They said they would notify everyone by letter with details soon; since this is our usual Christmas gift exchange meeting.

Thank you to the staff at Pizza Hut. You were great! Lastly, Maggie Benson and Diana Carroll (our co-hostesses for the month), you did an outstanding job. Thank you!

Giving Tree

The Mason's are hosting the Giving Tree again this year. This is a great community project to help the children of Dillon and the surrounding area to have a great Christmas!

Giving Tree will be hosted by the Dillon Masons Lodge #16, with the Trees with Tags located at 26 East Bannack Street (the old Sweetwater Coffee location) open from 11 AM to 2 PM Monday thru Friday starting November 25 (the day after Thanksgiving)

Please pick up your tags and help those in need, it will be greatly appreciated!

FIRE TRUCK RIDE

Wow, it was great weekend to be a Beaver! Congratulations to Coach Nordahl and the 2016 Football Team and assistant coaches on their State Championship! It was a great day!

The traditional fire truck ride will be Tuesday, November 22nd. Students and coaches will be released from school at 11:45 AM. The fire truck ride will depart from the high school at about 11:50 PM and travel through Dillon by both the elementary and middle schools.

The words of Abraham Lincoln regarding Thanksgiving...

As we approach Thanksgiving let us consider the words of one of the greatest presidents of our nation. Sadly the errors that were voiced by President Lincoln on October 3, 1863, are even more obvious in 2016.

"It is the duty of nations as well as of men to own their dependence upon the overruling power of God; to confess their sins and transgressions in humble sorrow, yet with assured hope that genuine repentance will lead to mercy and pardon; and to recognize the sublime truth, announced in the Holy Scriptures and proven by all history, that those nations are blessed whose God is the LORD.

We know that by His divine law, nations, like individuals, are subjected to punishments and chastisements in this world. May we not justly fear that the awful calamity of civil war which now desolates the land may be a punishment inflicted upon us for our presumptuous sins, to the needful end of our national reformation as a whole people?

We have been the recipients of the choicest of bounties of heaven; we have been preserved these many years in peace and prosperity; we have grown in numbers, wealth and power as no other nation has ever grown.

But we have forgotten God. We have forgotten the gracious hand which preserved us in peace and multiplied and enriched and strengthened us, and we have vainly imagined, in the deceitfulness of our hearts, that all these blessings were produced by some superior wisdom and virtue of our own. Intoxicated with unbroken success, we have become too self-sufficient to feel the necessity of redeeming and preserving grace, too proud to pray to the God that made us.

It has seemed to me fit and proper that God should be solemnly, reverently and gratefully acknowledged, as with one heart and one voice, by the whole American people. I do therefore invite my fellow citizens in every part of the United States, and also those who are at sea and those who are sojourning in foreign lands, to set apart and observe the last Thursday of November as a day of Thanksgiving and praise to our beneficent Father who dwelleth in the heavens."

I pray that these word ring loudly in the ears of the reader as we celebrate this Thanksgiving Day with our friends and families.
