Dean Alan Grow

Dean Alan Grow passed away on Thursday, November 24, 2016 peacefully at his mountain home near Dillon at the age of 64. He was born on April 4, 1952 in Osage City, Kansas to Donald E. and Florence Grow. He was raised and educated in Osage City, graduating from Osage City High School in 1970.

Dean was a carpenter by trade and moved to Oregon as a young man where he built many houses. He married and later moved to Montana in the late 70's where he continued carpentry and worked as a cowboy on many ranches. Dean recently retired to the land he purchased near Dillon where he planned on building his dream home.

Dean enjoyed his horses, reading, whittling, playing guitar and drums.

He was preceded in death by his parents, and by his brother, Donald P. Grow. He is survived by his son Alan Grow of Hood River, Oregon, his sister Mary (Jon) Rappard of Rockport, Texas and by his niece Paula (Dan Childress) Grow of Dayton, Ohio, his beloved horse Soldier Boy and his dog General Lee.

A memorial celebration will be held on Tuesday, November 29th on his property near Dillon.

FIVE YEAR ACTION PLAN FOR COALITION

Beaverhead Trails Coalition will host a public meeting at 5:30 pm on November 30, 2016 at the library at University of Montana Western. Purpose of the meeting is to seek public input that will help guide development of a five year action plan covering the coalition's efforts to provide trails in and around Dillon for public use.

"Our goal remains completion of a trail network around Dillon with spurs to schools, motels and the business district plus expansion that includes the High Trails system in the foothills west of town," explains Dr. Dan Downey, coalition president. "We need public input to help develop an action plan that identifies opportunities and priorities."

The coalition is seeking funds to acquire Phase 3 for the High Trails network. "We also need to identify other priorities such as signs, weed control, sanitary facilities, strategic gates and related options," adds Joyce Connor, coalition treasurer. "We are seeking additional active members in the coalition to help with work needs and funding efforts."

The coalition is seeking advice concerning other questions.

For example, several entities such as Dillon Rotary, the YMCA, Barrett Hospital, Beaverhead County and the University have participated in trail development. What role should the coalition play in maintaining and expanding these efforts?

The coalition has supported the Walking School Bus, Safe Routes to Schools, Bicycle Recycle and development of maps showing hiking and biking opportunities in and around town. How can the coalition help support these efforts?

"We plan to include answers to these questions and other needs in the five year action plan," Downey adds. "But we need public input to help prioritize efforts and identify other needs. Please come help us develop a plan that addresses community needs."

GET YOUR GRISWOLD ON!

Fall/Winter Concert

The Beaverhead County High School Band will present its Fall/Winter Concert on Wednesday, December 7 in the BW Lodge Gymnasium. The program will feature the BCHS Symphonic Band and Jazz Band. The concert will begin at 7:30 p.m. and the public is invited to attend this free evening of music.

The concert will start with the Symphonic Band. First will be a setting of Renaissance dances by Tielman Susato called "Renaissance Revel.". Next will be "Ave Maria" from the "Vespers" by Sergei Rachmaninoff. To end the first set will be Todd Stalter's "Rampage."

The middle portion of the program will feature the Jazz Band. They will open with an arrangement of "California Dreamin'", which was made famous by the Mamas and the Papas in the 1960s. After will be a couple jazz arrangements of standard holiday music. To end the jazz set, the band will perform an arrangement of the classic Herbie Hancock chart "Chameleon."

The Symphonic Band will finish the concert with holiday music. First will be a dark take on traditional Christmas classics. "A Christmas Tale—Beward the Krampus" tells the story of Krampus, a "Christmas Devil," who doles out punishment to bad boys and girls on Christmas Eve. The final selection will be "Klezmer Karnival," an arrangement of traditional Hebrew folksongs.

The instrumental music program at BCHS is under the direction of Mr. Christopher Kloker.

Western Basketball Men's Game:

Shyke Smalls banked in a desperation 35-foot heave at the buzzer, as Montana Western withstood a late College of Idaho rally to claim a 70-69 victory in the final game of the Domino's Classic inside the J.A. Albertson Activities Center.

The Yotes (7-2) rallied from an 11-point deficit inside the final five minutes, using a 12-0 run to take a 66-65 lead on a Joey Nebeker free throw inside the final minute. C of I led 69-67 after Emanuel Morgan made the first of two free throw chances with six seconds remaining, but missed the second. Western (6-1) rushed the ball up floor, with Brian Neal double-teamed in the center circle – squirting a pass to Smalls, who heaved an attempt as the horn sounded – finding the twine for the win.

Nebeker led C of I with 22 points and Morgan had 13 points and seven assists.

King and Brian Neal each had 13 points for Western.

Women's game:

Despite a frenetic fourth quarter rally that cut a 21 point deficit to five late, Montana Western remained unbeaten, holding off the College of Idaho, 86-81, in the final game of the Best Western Caldwell Inn and Suites Lady Yote Classic.

Western (8-0) held a 58-37 lead late in the third quarter, before the Yotes (0-6) heated up, making 9-of-14 shots in the final period, with a trio of Petra Lumpert free throws cutting the margin to 84-79 – but could not get closer.

Taylor Howlett led Western with 21 points, with Kiara Skinner scoring 22 for C of I.
