Lois J Nelson

Lois Jean Hendricks was born January 25, 1945 in Williston, ND to O.D. and Blanche Hendricks. She passed away December 5, 2016 from a heart attack. She graduated from Williston High School in 1963. She married Willis (Willie) M Nelson on December 28, 1968 and moved to St Regis, MT. In 1973, she had a son, Todd Willis who was still born. A couple years later, a daughter, Jennifer Dawn, was born. The family moved to Dillon, MT where she held several jobs. Her most memorable job was working as assistant treasurer for Beaverhead County. She worked at that job until she was forced to take an early retirement due to her health.

After her retirement, she focused on raising her daughter and took care of the books for the family business, Nelson Auto Repair. She enjoyed a 2nd retirement, when her husband finally retired in 2004 and they moved to Billings, MT. In 2009, they moved to Buckeye, AZ to be closer to her daughter and son-in-law. The light of her life was finally becoming a grandparent in 2013 to four beautiful little girls. She enjoyed caring for them, taking them to the park and going to the cabin where we were able to spend quality time together as a family. She has been an active member at the Buckeye Senior Center since 2009. Spending time with her friends, going to lunch bunch and taking advantage of other events at the Senior Center kept her active. She would do anything for anyone and brought joy to many people. She will be greatly missed.

She is preceded in death by her parents. She is survived by her husband of 47 years Willis (Willie) Nelson; daughter and husband, Jennifer and Dave Claver; Sister and husband, Beverly and Franklin Raze; sisters-in-law Carol Nelson and Uta Thompson and brother-in-law George Nelson; Nieces Tara (Ed) Grenier, Tana (Derek) Andrews; Nephew Tye (Kelly) Raze; Granddaughters Alyssa, Jessica, Nicole, and Khloe. For details of the memorial service, please contact the family.

James Dean Jesse

James Dean Jesse of Wise River, Montana, passed away at his home on December 3, 2016.

He was born on November 24, 1940 to Reuben and Christine (Neve) Jessen in Niobi, North Dakota. He attended school in Kenmare, North Dakota where he excelled as an athlete, particularly basketball. His anticipated college basketball career was sidelined in the spring of his senior year of high school by a significant knee injury. His plans changed abruptly, so instead of four years of college studies and basketball, he enrolled in trade school studying plumbing and pipefitting followed by an enlistment in the United States Marine Corps. His marine duty was cut short, however, due to that knee injury and he was honorably discharged. His love of math brought him back to Minot State College. It is here where he met and married Sandra Diane Hove in 1964.

Following Sandra's graduation, they moved to Dickinson, North Dakota where she began her teaching career and he finished his math degree at Dickinson State College. While in Dickinson, they welcomed the birth of their daughter, Kiza. Upon graduation, he moved his family to the Crosby-Noonan area where he and Sandy both taught school. In 1967, they both accepted teaching positions in Ennis MT. It is here that his lifelong love of Montana began. He also began his successful coaching career here as well. In 1968, they welcomed the birth of their son, Brooks.

Several years later, he accepted a coaching and teaching position in Mohall, North Dakota to be closer to the Jessen family. In 1978, the lure of a new career came to play. With his unique background of plumbing/pipefitting combined with a math major, he secured a promising position as a piping foreman, soon to be promoted to piping superintendent. He worked with Catalytic, Inc, Kaiser Engineers, and Combustion Engineers where he oversaw the piping construction at the gasification plant in Beulah, North Dakota. The family resided in Underwood. In 1988, he and Sandy divorced and the construction industry came to a standstill. He found himself on another adventure to El Paso, Texas. This is where he spent the last ten years of his career, teaching higher math at El Paso High. In 1998, he retired to his own little piece of paradise in Wise River, Montana near the Big Hole River. In his final years he was fishing and hunting and enjoying all Montana has to offer. There were many family outings with his children and grandchildren. He and his furry companion, Tucker, spent countless hours on mountain drives. He loved FOX news and was involved in many chat groups. He had a passion for computers and any new technology. One of his greatest passions, though, were the Chicago Cubs. The "Cubbies" brought home the series for him this fall. He was ecstatic! He was preceded in death by his parents, Reuben and Christine Jessen; His sister, Allene (Jessen)Halabuk; his

Story time and Book Signing

The Bookstore will be the place to be on Saturday, December 10th. Santa and Mrs. Claus, along with an elf or two will be hosting story time for kids of all ages from 10:00 - 12:00.

Along with the Clauses and crew, Bozeman author and illustrator Ted Rechlin will be signing copies of his books: "Bears", Silvertip: a year in the life of Yellowstone Grizzly, Epsilon: A Yellowstone Wolf, and Tyrannasaurus Rex as well as coloring books and instructional drawing guides. Rechlin of Bozeman has been drawing pictures and telling stories since he was three years old. Like most young kids he loved stories about superheroes, dinosaurs, and wild animals. While his drawings have gotten much better over the years, his love of storytelling and wild creatures hasn't changed-and bears are one of his favorite things to write about and draw. He got his professional start drawing for DC Comics at the age of 19. He now works as a freelance author and illustrator. He is also the founder of Rextooth studios, a publishing house.

Stories and the signing will be happening continually during the event and you are encouraged to come and go through out the morning. Feel free to bring your camera and take pictures with Santa, Mrs. Claus, the Elves and the author. If you have any questions please call the Bookstore at 683-6807.

FREE CHRISTMAS CONCERT

Free Christmas concert and sing-along on Saturday, December 10th at the Old Depot Theater in Dillon beginning at 1:00 pm. The Ruby Range Band will accept donations to help with their costs, but according to band member, Geoff Roach, the band just wants to do the concert to "give back" to the community. Roach hopes to give those who come an opportunity to sing together in the Christmas Spirit.

It doesn't seem likely that a hospital would be the incubator for a musical group, but that seems to be the case with the Ruby Range Band where two of the members are employees of Barrett Hospital. These members include Roach, the Human Resources Director and Ben Power, the Quality Analyst. Janalee Bousman is a retired nurse, having been an Emergency Room nurse in the Midwest for most of her career. There will be others joining the band including Ernie Gilbert from Sheridan and maybe a few of his Dillon Junior Fiddler friends. The Ruby Range Band has roots in Rock, Soul and Gospel music and the program mixes traditional Christmas music with some newer carols. For more information about the Ruby Range Band, checkout their website, www.rubyrangeband.com.

GOOSE HUNTERS URGED TO WAIT TO CONSUME RECENT KILLS

Montana Fish, Wildlife and Parks is advising hunters to wait to consume snow geese harvested after Nov. 28 in the Butte and Dillon areas. Instead, FWP recommends hunters process and freeze birds at this time and do not eat them until the Department knows how or if this event has affected the edible portions of the birds.

Montana Resources and Atlantic Richfield Company officials (responsible for the Berkeley Pit mine) are asking members of the public who find living or dead snow geese to contact Butte-Silver Bow animal control at (406) 497-6527. After hours, contact Montana Resources directly at (406) 496-3233.

Do You Know the Truth... Who truly loves God and Christ?

---We believe the following: (1) the Bible was given by the inspiration of God as stated in 2 Timothy 3:16-17; (2) all statements made in this and any ensuing articles will be based on what the Bible says; (3) the Bible only is the reliable source of spiritual & doctrinal truth; (4) all beliefs in conflict with Biblical teachings are false.---

In Matthew 22:37-39 we read Christ's teaching that the greatest commandment in the law is to "...love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind...And the second is like unto it, you shall love your neighbor as yourself."

Many people look past the beginning statement, which is to love God with our whole being. If we love God as we should, we cannot accept actions and life-styles deemed to be sin in His word.

For example, Jesus forgave the adulterous woman in John 8:3-11, but He did not approve of or accept her life-style. In the verse 11 of that reading He admonished the woman to change her immoral living by telling her, "...go, and sin no more."

Note the following statement Jesus made to His disciples in John 14:21, "He that has my commandments, and keeps them, he it is that loves me: and he that loves me shall be loved of my Father, and I will love him, and will manifest myself to him."

This reveals the principle that as God's children live a more obedient life, God and Christ will manifest themselves to those obedient believers in a greater way. The believer who fails to meet God's standards of doctrine, honesty, proper language, anger, forgiveness toward others, kindness, love, morality, envy, and many other attributes expected by God, will never sense a very close fellowship with or experience a very large degree of the manifestation of God in their lives.

Conclusion: Regardless of the tremendous changes that have occurred since Christ died for man's sin, God expects us to do things His way if we want to experience His blessings.
