Vacated Council Seat Applicants

By: MJ

Politics or competition for power of leadership, Dillon style was displayed at the council meeting. Three applicants filed to fill the vacated council seat that opened up when Mr. Hodge moved out of town.

If you were going to take a long trip using your vehicle you may fine tune it to assure you have a trouble free trip. It appears that the seated councilman present at the meeting, might of fined tuned their vote for one specific applicant prior to the presentations or vote.

Several questions were asked by the presenter by Councilman Struagh. One of the questions was how would the applicants work with the existing documents like; CIP, Downtown Document, Growth Policy and others in a timely manner. If my memory serves me the documents each have a time line incorporated within them. All other questions Mr. Struagh asked were clearly answered by each presenter.

The council is replacing a member that normally would be elected by the people in Ward #2. It appears the councilman did not reach out into Ward #2 to ask any of the people who they would like to have represent them. Would there have been a way the seated councilman could of each polled several people in Ward #2 via a phone call to get a feel who they would like to see seated.

Instead it did appear that the council wanted to elect their own person regardless of what qualifications other applicants had. This is not representation of the people? This is politics working well.

1. Mr. Schwandt wanted to work with the people to find solutions yet follow the rules and regulations and move Dillon in a more positive way into the future. Mr. Schwandt was rewarded for his hard work and time spent by receiving the State of Montana Realtor of the year award. He stated he had the time available and respect for the people in the community to serve on the council. Mr. Schwandt makes his living in Dillon.
2. Mr. Mooney presented the need for government to do what is best for the people/community. As an engineer and researcher much of his work focused on developing systems for decision making and process improvements. Upon retiring from Mt. State University he moved his family back to Dillon.
3. Mr. Stoker pulled his application and asked that anyone voting for him to vote for Mr. Schwandt. Mr. Stoker said he had worked with Mr. Schwandt closely for the past several years on a sub-division project. He found Mr. Schwandt to be accommodating and willing to work between documents and for the betterment of the community's future.

Mr. Hand has attended several zoning committee meetings where Mr. Mooney served. Mr. Hand nominated Mr. Schwandt for the council position. Mr. Hand had factual knowledge of how Mr. Schwandt did the job and interacted with the public as a zoning committee member and also had facts on how Mr. Mooney represented the city and worked with the public.

It took five members voting for the same applicants to seat them. This did not happen so at the next council meeting another vote will take place. Call councilperson or Director of Operations if you have a choice of who you would like to see placed on the council.

Letter to the Editor

There are so many 'talking heads'. Perhaps I am just another one but one thing I know from my heart is my one dollar bill still has on it's back, "In God We Trust". That little phrase, you all will remember, was the punch line to the 'day in court' in John Hughes', "Miracle on 34th Street".

This Nation has forgotten that, or just does not care. As the saying goes, "Jesus is the reason for the season." "Christmas In Your Heart". Not the government, it's leaders, or Santa Claus. And Jesus Christ, a Jew, very God, is still in control. There are so many who need to dust off their Bibles and search out all the Scriptures that refer to Jesus Christ as the Creator of this world and our universe. And don't forget He is the Savior of all mankind. He also is the reason for the weather, climate, and not man.

The only way there will ever be Peace on Earth is when "the Prince of Peace" rules in the hearts, minds and lives of ALL mankind.

What In The World Happened To Sandi Eby??

First of all, for all who have seen me rolling along with my bright pink walker = it isn't necessarily the multiple sclerosis that is causing me to use it. So here's my story -

10/15 I had been falling 'cuz something was hitting on my sciatic nerve and piriformis muscle which caused me to fall violently to the floor. I was in much pain at work so I cut back on my hours before Christmas. I did shots/pt/drugs and everything else for relief but wasn't getting any.

12/15 I was selected as 1 of 15 people anywhere in the world to undergo a FREE stem cell treatment in Freeport, Grand Bahamas. I was given mini liposuction from which the cells were collected. I'll never really know if the treatment worked or not because upon my return to dillon I came down with a nasty case of shingles. Most of the cells benefits probably went to take care of the shingles.....So??????

6/16 I had not worked since before Christmas at pfs&l (where I had worked for 12 yrs) and I was trying desperately to get back to my job. I was "allowed" to work 2 hrs in July as long as I would sit at a desk and only stuff envelopes.

7/16 I made the decision to undergo surgery on my S1 disc which was compromised and highly unstable. I fully expected to be back at work as soon as I could. The surgery went OK but recovery was a little more difficult than I expected = thus the walker. But I thought that with the walker to break the falls I would be able to finally go back to work.

10/16 I made contact to see if I could at least come in to help stuff statements. At that time I was told "no, the employees don't want you back because of your face book posts". I guess they took offense at my face book posts talking about my frustrations trying to get back to work and be healed. At least that was the "official" reason I was given. Gee...It couldn't be that as a disabled person they would have been forced to make some reasonable accommodations for me to return so facebook was a good excuse? Huh????? I guess we'll never know - but sorry to those of you I offended!

So to everyone who misses me at the reception desk - I miss you too!!! And anyone out there who might need a person with a bright pink walker in your workplace = I'm available! Anyway I pray all have a merry blessed Christmas!!!

The 17th ranked Montana Western Bulldogs (11-1, 2-0) beat the Eagles of Embry-Riddle Aeronautical University (3-9) 80-65 in the final game of the Cactus Classic.

The Bulldogs jumped out to an early lead, building it up to 17 points just seven minutes into the game. The Eagles did their best not to let the Bulldogs run away with the game and turn it into a laughter cutting the lead down to single digits at halftime.

The Bulldogs would not let the Eagles get an closer maintaining a double digit lead throughout the second half. The Eagles made a push halfway through the second half trimming the lead down to nine points. But the Bulldogs tightened up defensively and coasted to a 15 point victory.

In the spirit of the holiday season the Bulldogs were in a giving mood, dishing out 16 assists on 29 made field goals and getting another balanced offensive attack.

The team shared the scoring duties, senior Shyke Smalls (Great Falls, Mont.) and Sophomore Kooper Kidgell (Billings, Mont.) each had 17 points. Junior Marcus Payne (Livingston, Mont.) had 16 points, Junior Dom Robinson (Tacoma, Wash.) added 11 points and six assists. Sophomore Riley King (Missoula, Mont.) had a double and double

Do You Know the Truth... The purpose of the birth of Jesus Christ (Part 2)

---We believe the following: (1) the Bible was given by the inspiration of God as stated in 2 Timothy 3:16-17; (2) all statements made in this and any ensuing articles will be based on what the Bible says; (3) the Bible only is the reliable source of spiritual & doctrinal truth; (4) all beliefs in conflict with Biblical teachings are false.---

Though Christmas is not a biblical holiday, it is good to consider some biblical facts regarding the birth of Christ:

1. Isaiah 7:14 prophesied that He would be miraculously born of a virgin. The fulfillment of this prophecy is recorded in Matthew 1:20-23 where it states that Mary became pregnant supernaturally and was still a virgin following that conception.
2. He was named JESUS (meaning Savior) because He came to save mankind from sin, Matthew 1:21.
3. In Matthew 1:23 it states that He was also named EMMANUEL (meaning God with us). 1 Timothy 3:16 reveals that He was God manifest in the flesh.

When Christ was born is not nearly as important as the reason for which He came. In Luke 19:10 Jesus states that the reason He came was to seek and to save that which was lost. The angels informed the shepherds of His birth by stating, "For unto you is born this day in the city of David a Savior, which is Christ the Lord," Luke 2:11.

The need for a Savior is the result of man's sin and the ensuing consequence, which is death (separation from God and heaven for eternity), Romans 3:23. Only when Christ is received as the Savior is eternal life is obtained, Romans 6:23.

Conclusion: The birth by itself provides no salvation and no eternal life. We must remember to give thanks that He lived a life without sin, permitted wicked men to crucify Him, died and was buried, then miraculously rose again the third day. When we celebrate the birth, we must also glory in the cross as did the Apostle Paul in Galatians 6:14, "But God forbid that I should glory, save (except) in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ...."
