Council Members: Council members would like to hear from the people in Ward #2 and others residing within the city limits, letting them know who they would like to have seated as their council representative.

It is only fair that the public pick up the phone or send an e-mail helping the council to do the job the people would like to have done for Dillon's future. Remember: All of the above listed council members will be voting on the replacement. Cast your vote via an e-mail or phone call.

Montana Western Dances with Words author series announces 2017 readings

The University of Montana Western Dances with Words visiting author series announces its first readings of 2017.

The 2017 series begins on Wednesday, Jan. 18, 2017 with acclaimed Montana author Rick Bass.

Referred to as a "national treasure" by author Carl Hiassen, Bass has won numerous awards, including multiple Pushcart Prizes and O. Henry Awards, and his stories, articles and essays have appeared in The Paris Review, The New Yorker, The Atlantic Monthly among many other widely read publications.

A resident of Montana since 1987, Bass and his wife, the artist Elizabeth Hughes Bass, originally moved to the remote Yaak Valley of Northwest Montana. They have since relocated to Missoula, Mont.

A collection of short fiction, Bass' "The Hermit's Story," was named a Los Angeles Times Best Book of the Year, and another collection, "The Lives of Rocks," was a finalist for the prestigious Story Prize, as well as a Best Book of the Year by the Rocky Mountain News. His most recent nonfiction book, "Why I Came West," was a finalist for a National Book Critics Circle Award.

Montana poet Lowell Jaeger will read from his works on Thursday, April 13, 2017. Jaeger has an extensive collection of published books of poetry and journal publications.

He is the founding editor of Many Voices Press, which began when he found himself inheriting poems of three former students who'd passed away without having their poetry heard.

Thanks to a Community

By: MJ

We have been blessed with moisture via snow. We all know that snow brings challenges along with much needed moisture.

City Crews: The city crews have been working hard to remove the majority of snow on the streets downtown. Traffic has been able to move easier. Of course the removal of snow has for a short time temporary caused unpleasant issues for some people, however when the crews have it the process completed the entire community is the winner. There is a proverbial phrase "patience is a virtue" that says have the ability to wait without getting upset.

Be a Good Neighbor: When you are removing snow from your sidewalks, your driveways or other areas on your property be conscientious of where you place your excess snow. Don't place it where it would or could be hazardous for your neighbors or other people. Example; in front of mail boxes, garbage cans, gates, garage doors, blocking exits or loading areas for vehicles... There is a couple sayings that we all might remember from time to time;
"Do unto others as you would have others do unto you" & "what goes around comes around."

I have seen good Samaritans with snow plows on their 4 wheelers out clearing the snow from sidewalks for elderly and many others at no charge. This is a true blessing for those who can't do it themselves, can't afford to pay and also for the person doing the plowing without expecting rewards.

RED HAT SOCIETY NEWS

Tuesday, December 27th, the Red Hat Belles had their annual Christmas gift exchange at the 4 B's Restaurant. This event was co-hosted by Alyce Wassall and Barb Schrader. Alyce also collected donations for the Dillon Backpack Program.

Linda Shaw was introduced and welcomed as a new member of the Red Hat Belles. She will be getting a name badge from Alyce Wassall at our next meeting.

Due to some health problems, Darlene Rose has asked to be relieved of her position of Sunshine Lady. We are now looking for a volunteer to fill this position.

Before we exchanged gifts, door prizes were given to Linda Shaw, Sydney Tiedgen and Diana Carroll. Congratulations to them and of course everyone went home with a nice gift from the gift exchange.

Thank you to the 4 B's Restaurant for having us and a special thank you to our co-hostesses, Alyce and Barb. A fun time was had by all!
