Montana Western's Main Hall renovation wins "Best Historic Preservation" award

Building contractors for the University of Montana Western's historic Main Hall renovation were recently awarded "Best Historic Preservation" by the Montana Contractors Association (MCA).

Jackson Contractor Group will accept the award at the 2017 Annual MCA convention on Thursday, Jan. 12, 2017 in Helena, Mont.

The multi-phase renovation project occurred over a 10-year period, resulting in a dramatic facelift and structural and technological upgrades for the 120-year old building. Vice Chancellor Susan Briggs explained. "I'm excited that Jackson is being honored by the MCA for the incredible work they did on Main Hall during phase III of the renovation," Briggs said. "They were able to preserve the historic integrity of the building while upgrading it to be used to educate students for generations to come."

After the earthquake of 2005, seismic upgrades were done throughout the original 1896 building and the 1907 building. The additional renovations took place in three phases, with Swank Enterprises of Kalispell, Mont. working on phase I and II.

Phase I of the renovation included a remodel of the 1896 building and portions of the 1907 building. The upgrades involved a new heating system, new electrical, data upgrades, asbestos abatement, a fire alarm upgrade and other improvements.

Phase II saw the remodel of the remainder of the 1907 building. The 1954 auditorium (now the Beier Auditorium) also underwent a complete remodel, which included significant structural upgrades. A new lobby connecting Main Hall to the entrance of the auditorium was also completed.

Phase III brought a remodel of the 1924 library building, which included a restoration of the library reading room. This phase included restoring the plaster and medallions throughout the library building. New classrooms were added to the first and third floors and new art galleries were installed on the first floor. The library building now serves as a state-of-the-art learning lab for education students, recently dedicated as the Dennis and Phyllis Washington Foundation

Model Classroom for Education.

The renovated Model Classroom regularly plays host to Montana Western's Rural Fridays program, where elementary students from Beaverhead County's one-room schoolhouses come to the university to be taught by student-teachers. A mezzanine viewing area was built above the classroom to provide a space for instructors to observe student-teachers interacting with elementary students.

Listed on the National Historic Register, Main Hall also serves as home to the university's art gallery and museum, drama facilities and art studios in addition to numerous classrooms, offices and public meeting rooms.

KBZK News of Bozeman recently aired an in-depth two-part story on the renovation. View the story here: Main Hall renovation.

Montana Supporters Prepare for March in Solidarity With the Women's March on Washington D.C.

Special Informational Meeting in Dillon Thursday December 29th at 5pm @ The Patagonia Outlet 16 S Idaho. Refreshments will be served.

A grassroots movement is taking place across the State of Montana brought about by the recent political election cycle. Organizers statewide are forming local groups to unite and march in Helena, MT on Saturday, January 21, 2017 from Noon to 3pm. A national march in Washington DC, the Women's March on Washington, is slated for the same day and the Helena march is being held in solidarity. Other states are joining in the same call for solidarity by marching in their state capitols.

The Women's March on Montana is open to all – men and women alike. It is designed to shed light, not only on women's issues, but on issues facing all marginalized populations who are being targeted with human rights violations. The Women's March will send a unified message to the new Administration on its first day in office, and to the world, that women's rights are human rights. Organizers believe the March will be a positive step towards unifying marginalized communities including women, all immigrants regardless of status, Muslims and those of diverse religious faiths, Native people, Black and Brown people, people with disabilities, and survivors of sexual assault. Organizers are placing a high priority on security and safety to ensure a peaceful march. Check it out

My After Christmas Story

LaVon D. Brillhart

This is my after Christmas story, I would like to tell I have lots of ornaments and decorations I would like to sell

Everyone got presents clear up to the sky all I got was an ugly pink and green tie

I couldn't make the lights on the tree work my wife said I was a lazy, stupid jerk

All the stockings were hung with great care but I fell asleep in my favorite chair

The house was decorated pretty and nice the mailman is suing us for falling on the ice

The minister came by to wish us good cheer while he was talking I tried to hide my six pack of beer

The neighbors came over for a chat while my wife and I were having a spat

The cookies were hard and sweet and Ethyl burned the Christmas meat

The ham was salty and fat the wine was warm and flat

We all ate dinner together, in fact very quick
I had to leave early because I got sick

Aunt Sally ate all the sweet and got fatter but she already weighed 320 so it didn't matter

Grandma was loud and boisterous after her shot and beer Grandpa wouldn't even talk to wish you good cheer

My sister called from St. Paul she reversed the charges, I had to pay for the call

By brother called from Florida, the weather was warm and sunny all he said was, "could I borrow some money?"

Everyone had fun playing in the snow except for me, I couldn't make the car go

We all yelled and waved at the neighbors in their sleigh but all I could think of was the bills I had to pay

Little Jimmy tied bells on the tail of the cat she took off faster than a race driver in a Fiat

I know you didn't get my card that I forgot to mail not even Uncle Albert who is in jail

All the toys are scattered and broken the house is a dirty mess, I'm not jokin

The tree is drooping, the presents are gone now we can listen to some other song

My wallet is empty with bills to pay I'll be in debt until next Christmas day

Now that Christmas is past maybe I can have some rest at last

I wish you all good luck and good cheer
I hope I don't run out of beer

All in all, Christmas was just great But next year I will just sit in my chair and cogitate.
