The Christmas Gifts You Didn't Get But Totally Deserved

Raging Moderate by Will Durst

Relax. Now breathe. And repeat.

The nonstop madcap insanity has finally reached its red and green holiday crescendo and its all downhill from here. Don't know if it had anything to do with the earth-shaking, democracy-twisting events of November 8th, but people were extra special amplified crazy this particular solstice season. Like frothing-at-the-mouth wacky. Hair-tearing bonkers. Nuttier than the Planters Hospitality Suite at a Flying Squirrel Convention crazy.

We salute all you stalwart consumers for navigating those Demolition Derby parking lots in the honorable quest of sinking heavily into debt to celebrate the birth of that Jewish hippie kid.

Anticipating the flash of horror across your face when the bills float in from the mail, let us offer up our annual WILL DURST'S XMAS GIFT WISH LIST. These are the presents that folks presumably did not find under their tree but most certainly deserved.

For Vladimir Putin: one of those extra long telescoping leashes to control his new pet.

For Ronald McDonald: an extended vacation until the creepy clown sightings subside. 4 years ought to do it.

For Melania Trump: a couple of grey hairs to give her some gravitas. Cuff & collar.

For Kim Kardashian: an itinerary of Melania Trump's movements so she can study up for 2024.

For Donald Trump: who is proud of saying anything that flies into his head: a tiny rabid West African Ruby-Throated Hummingbird.

For Speaker of the House Paul Ryan: a whip, a chair and thigh high boots for when he has to deal with the Executive branch.

For Elizabeth Warren: a set of portable Klieg lights to stay front and center for the foreseeable future.

For Ruth Bader Ginsburg, Anthony Kennedy & Stephen Breyer: the finest health care available.

For each Democrat in Congress: a 55 gallon drum of Vitamin D to put a little spine in their spine.

For Billy Bush: a job in the Trump administration's protocol division where all he does is follow POTUS around saying "The Donald scores again."

For Kellyanne Conway: a nap. Starting to look a little ragged around the edges.

For Anthony Weiner: a one-way ticket to a deserted South Sea Island populated mostly by poisonous snakes and omnivorous snails.

For Huma Abedin: a closed circuit camera recording every second.

For Roger Ailes: an appointment with the same counseling group now attended by Bill Cosby.

For the American Public: a case of antacid in order to get through the heartless pummeling the spineless cheered on by the clueless.

For the new host of Celebrity Apprentice, Arnold Schwarzenegger: his own kill phrase, something like, "You won't be back."

For British Prime Minister Theresa May: A copy of the Kama Sutra to discover a position that will allow her to twist out of Brexit.

For Mexican President Enrique Pena Nieto: a wall on the border to control our immigration.

For Canadian Prime Minister Justin Trudeau: same thing.

For Samsung: the quick introduction of the Galaxy VIII.

For Rudy Giuliani: a muzzle. Permanent. Steel. Welded with titanium rivets.

For Bashar Al Assad: something quick and painless: heart attack in bed.

Precap of News Certain to Occur in 2017

By Peter Funt

Thanks to Donald Trump and the Chicago Cubs my outlandish predictions for 2016 were eclipsed by, of all things, reality. Worse, the fine art of fake news was commandeered by demons who used it for social and political gain--something my colleagues and I would never have dreamed possible.

Never mind the recap. Here's a handy clip 'n save Precap of news certain to occur in 2017.

Jan. 1--President Obama rings in the New Year by making good on his pledge to "assist President-elect Trump in any way possible" as he signs the lease for an apartment in Trump Tower.

Jan. 20--Chief Justice John Roberts looks on as Twitter CEO Jack Dorsey administers a 140-character version of the oath of office to the nation's 45th president.

Jan. 21--At the administration's first White House press briefing, a correspondent from Breitbart News asks for comment on reports that "millions of illegal immigrants are using fraudulent manufacturers' coupons, making it impossible for honest Americans to get their fair share at the supermarket."

Feb. 5--In Houston, the Super Bowl halftime show is delayed for 38 minutes while Lady Gaga's ability to stay on key is tested as part of the NFL's strict new Music Protocol.

Feb. 18--President Trump travels to Moscow to attend groundbreaking ceremonies for a Trump Hotel and Casino. Trump pledges the project "will create as many as 900 new jobs."

Mar. 11--Owners of Tribune Online Content (TRONC) announce another name change. The media conglomerate will now be known as First American Resource Technologies.

Mar. 22--CNN expands its roster of paid Trump apologists to include David Buono, the head golf professional at Mar-a-Lago.

Apr. 2-----President Trump tells Sean Hannity that his cabinet "will rotate in a way I learned at dinner parties." Every three months, cabinet members will move two seats to their right--so that Ben Carson, for example, having served three months as Housing Secretary, will spend the next three months as Secretary of State, and so forth.

Apr. 26--Samsung releases its Galaxy Note 8 with a built-in Smoke Alarm app.

Bulldogs Fall to University of Calgary 82-78

All good things must come to an end. In this case the Bulldogs (12-2, 2-0) seven game win streak was snapped at the hands of the Dinos of the University of Calgary (16-4) in a back and forth affair 82-78.

The Bulldogs and Dinos battled in a close game in both teams final game in the Green and Gold Classic. In a game that featured nine ties and 20 lead changes the Dinos emerged victorious.

The Bulldogs, who shot just 54 percent from the free throw line hitting 12 of 22 attempts from the charity stripe. And hit just six of 19 attempts from beyond the arc.

While on the other side of the floor the Dinos went 18 of 25 for 72 percent from the line. And hit 10 three-point shots. Poor shooting, and too many empty possessions, was the difference that allowed the Dinos to escape with a victory.

Shyke Smalls (Great Falls, Mont.) had 20 points, three rebounds, two steals, and an assist. Dom Robinson (Tacoma, Wash.) scored 16 points, pulled down four rebounds and dished out four assists. Zaccheus Darko-Kelly (Missoula, Mont.) and Cameron Evans (Billings, Mont.) each had 10 points.

The Bulldogs return home to the Straugh Gymnasium to face Montana Tech on Jan. 5 at 7:30 P.M.

Game Notes:

- Shyke Smalls now has 972 career points.

Bulldogs Remain Perfect, Defeat Calgary 74-58

A total team effort led Montana Western (13-0, 2-0) to another victory, this time over the Dinos of the University of Calgary (14-6), 74-58.

The Bulldogs continued their best start in a decade by evenly distributing the ball on offense with six players scoring six points each. Kaye Bignell (Helena, Mont.) added nine, Jill Jacobs (Camano Island, Wash.) put in 10, and Aniese Palmore (Santa Monica, Calif.) scored 16. As the Bulldogs cruised to a 16 point win over the Dinos.

The Bulldogs got off to a great start, building a seven point lead by the end of the first quarter. They stretched it to 16 at the break, and quickly stymied any effort by Calgary to cut into that lead.

The Bulldogs had 13 steals on the day, four by Palmore, and forced the Dinos into 26 turnovers.

Britt Cooper (Harrison, Mont.) pulled down seven rebounds, she also had a block. Cierra Lamey (Wise River, Mont.) corralled six boards, three assists and a steal.

The Bulldogs return home to the Straugh Gymnasium and into Frontier Conference play on Jan. 5 when they play Montana Tech of the University of Montana at 5:30 P.M.
