Cemetery Committee Jan 1, 2017

By: MJ

Committee members present: Councilmen Bill Shafer (Chair), Don Hand and John Garry.

Poindexter Cemetery: Michele Stephen-Hassard, a representative of Beaver Head Hunters gave an update. She reported that with the records held by Episcopal Church she was able to determine that (64) individuals were removed from Poindexter Cemetery and taken to Mountain View Cemetery in 1920. Approximately (20) others are still presumed to be interred at the Poindexter Cemetery & approx. (18) are unaccounted for. The committee voted to have the mayor fill out an application for a grant from Montana Historical Society. This grant would go towards the location of graves remaining. Councilman Hand ask if there could be a list of names provided to the committee of the people believed to still be interred at the Poindexter Cemetery.

Dillon Cemetery: Mrs. Stephen-Hassard reported that the first cemetery was known as the Dillon Cemetery. In August of 1883, five acres of ground was obtained from Craig Cornell, however the title to the ground could not be obtained. Remains of individuals interred at the Dillon Cemetery were exhumed and presumed to have been moved to Mountain View. Mrs. Stephen-Hassard would like to determine the actual location of the Dillon Cemetery.

Create City Ordinances: The City of Dillon does not have any Ordinances that pertains to the operation and regulations of Mountain View Cemetery. Developing an ordinance was TABLED until next meeting allowing the committee to collect and review of other information.

Ownership of Mountain View Cemetery. The city of Dillon is the official owner as clarified in footnote 1, in the January 9, 2017 Cemetery minutes. NOTE: In a court case from May 8, 1990, Judge Frank Davis's Facts and Conclusions of Law and Order established responsibilities of the Beaverhead County Cemetery District, the City of Dillon with regard to a Permanent Care and Trust Fund and ownership of Mountain View Cemetery. (Court file DV-89-11123 John Marovich, et al., Plaintiffs, vs Jim Wilson, Mayor of the City of Dillon, and the City of Dillon, a municipal corporation, Defendants, Petitioners)

When the Press Loses Credibility

By Susan Stamper Brown

When is the press no longer the watchdog America's founders intended to keep government accountable? When it reports and publishes unverified smears.

America's founders believed that a free press was of such significance they granted it constitutional protection. Thomas Jefferson said, "Were it left to me to decide whether we should have a government without newspapers, or newspapers without a government, I should not hesitate a moment to prefer the latter." The press was an integral ingredient to a free nation which Jefferson believed could be an unbiased watchdog to keep the government honest.

What happens, though, when the watchdog cannot be trusted?

On January 10, notably excited CNN journalists delivered "breaking news" that classified documents presented to the current and incoming presidents included allegations that Russians had compromising information about Donald Trump. Not long after, BuzzFeed apparently heard CNN's dog whistle and published a 35-page dossier, which was really nothing more than a compilation of uncorroborated hogwash, obviously created to delegitimize Trump's presidency.

The following day, NBC News reported a senior U.S. intelligence official disputed CNN's claims. The official said Trump was not briefed on the dossier and claims "no investigations found any conclusive or direct link between Trump and the Russian government." Later, Trump tweeted that National Intelligence director James Clapper "called me yesterday to denounce the false and fictitious report that was illegally circulated."

Calling it a dossier is about as big of a stretch as BuzzFeed editor Ben Smith's justification for publishing it.

"Publishing this document was not an easy or simple call, and people of good will may disagree with our choice," Smith wrote. "But publishing this dossier reflects how we see the job of reporters in 2017."

BuzzFeed's irresponsible decision gave Americans one more reason to distrust the press and made it harder for the press at large to hold the new administration accountable.

WikiLeaks was ruthlessly attacked for publishing corroborated, authenticated information about Hillary Clinton, but it is somehow okay for CNN to hold the door of innuendo open and for BuzzFeed to run through and publish uncorroborated rumors about Trump.

WikiLeaks laid bare the truth about what regular Americans already suspected. It exposed a sinister collusion between the press, CNN specifically, and the Clinton campaign. Leaked emails revealed former CNN contributor Donna Brazile leaked debate questions to help Clinton. The emails also exposed that the Democratic National Committee colluded with CNN about what kind of interview questions Wolf Blitzer should ask Donald Trump.

Twenty years after his original comments about the press, an obviously much wiser Thomas Jefferson wrote in 1807 to newspaper editor John Norvell: "To your request of my opinion of the manner in which a newspaper should be conducted, so as to be most useful, I should answer, 'by restraining it to true facts and sound principles only.' Yet I fear such a paper would find few subscribers. It is a melancholy truth, that a suppression of the press could not more completely deprive the nation of its benefits, than is done by its abandoned prostitution to falsehood. Nothing can now be believed which is seen in a newspaper. Truth itself becomes suspicious by being put into that polluted vehicle." Apparently, some things never change.

Beaverhead County Mental Health Local Advisory Council 2016 Activity Report

In 2016, the Beaverhead County Mental Health Local Advisory Council (LAC) once again focused on education and awareness, as well as the early identification and assessment of mental/behavioral health issues in our community.

In February 2016, a two-day summit was held at UM-Western that was attended by approximately eighty (80) individuals from our community and around Montana. The "Integrating Behavioral and Physical Health in Rural Southwest Montana" summit was facilitated by two professionals from the National Council for Behavioral Health, and paid for with a grant awarded to the LAC and the Beaverhead County Public Health Department by the Montana Healthcare Foundation.

As a result of the summit, four (4) primary goals were identified for our community. An implementation team and various task forces have been created that continue to work on reducing the stigma of mental illness and reducing Beaverhead County's high suicide rate. Various LAC and community members continue to meet on a regular basis with the goal of having a final report to the Montana Healthcare Foundation by May 2017.

Other activities of the LAC during 2016 included:

- Two trained QPR (Question, Persuade, Refer) instructors who are members of the LAC conducted QPR suicide presentation trainings to school staff in Ennis, Twin Bridges and Sheridan. Eighty-five students in Twin Bridges in grades 8-11 also received the QPR training. In addition, eight (8) QPR trainings were conducted in Dillon over the past year to college, high school and middle school students, as well as the general public. A total of 119 adults and 140 students received this QPR training in 2016. In the past three years, 348 people have been trained in QPR by members of the LAC.
- The LAC coordinated and partnered with other community organizations on awareness and education activities during the year. In May, Move for Mental Health that included live music and food was held in Jaycee Park on May 31st. The LAC also provided monetary support once again for the annual Race for Renewal event held in Wisdom in September.

• During the year, presentations were made at the monthly meetings by the following people:

1. Janette Reget, Executive Director Governor's Office Mental Disabilities Board of Visitors – State of Montana behavioral health facilities.
2. Andrea Lower, Supervisor for Gallatin County Court Services – evidence based diversion and pre/post trial sentence programs.
3. Peggy Holland and Rick Parke, Alcoholics Anonymous District #71 – public information on cooperation with the professional community.
4. Rebecca Chance-Scharf, Community Education Manager with the Behavioral Health Unit (BHU) at St. Peter's Hospital in Helena – stress management, workplace burnout training, as well as the various services provided at the BHU at St. Peter's.
5. Brandi Daw and Shawn LaPray with the Community Outreach Office for the Behavioral Health Center at Eastern Idaho Regional Medical Center, Idaho Falls, Idaho – various services provided by the Center including their 24/7 assessment and referral team. They also spoke about the Jason Flatt Act and the Jason Foundation.
6. Sheriff Frank Kluesner, Beaverhead County – State and County matching grant funds he is using for Deputy training and transportation of mental health patients to and from facilities out of the county.
7. Senator Jeff Welborn and Representative Tom Welch – suicide prevention, as well as mental/behavioral health related legislation anticipated in the 2017 session.

The Beaverhead County Mental Health Local Advisory Council meets the second Friday of every month from noon to 2:00 p.m. in the multi-purpose room of the Beaverhead County courthouse. The public and all stakeholders are welcome and encouraged to attend.

Do You Know the Truth... "Family of God" and "Church" not synonymous terms (pt. 1)

---We believe the following: (1) the Bible was given by the inspiration of God as stated in 2 Timothy 3:16-17; (2) all statements made in this and any ensuing articles will be based on what the Bible says; (3) the Bible only is the reliable source of spiritual & doctrinal truth; (4) all beliefs in conflict with Biblical teachings are false.---

The family of God. It is important to understand that every human being is not in the family of God by means of the fleshly (natural or physical) birth. Every person born from Adam until the end of time is/will be born through the same biological process. Adam and Eve were both sinners, so every one of their descendants, i.e. everyone, is born a sinner. This sin has a consequence as stated in Romans 6:23a, "For the wages of sin is death." This is the reason Jesus says in John 3:3, "Verily, verily, I say to you, except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God." This new birth is a spiritual birth that takes place ONLY by belief/faith in Jesus Christ as stated in John 3:16, "For God so loved the world that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believes in him should not perish, but have everlasting life." It is through this spiritual birth that we become God's child and God becomes our Father. It is an error to think that God is everyone's Father. Note John 8:44 where Jesus pointed out to some of the most 'religious' people of His day, "You are of your father the devil, and the lusts (desires) of your father you will do..."

A final proof text regarding becoming a child of God was written by Paul in Galatians 3:26, "For you are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus."

Conclusion: Note that nothing is said in any of these references that indicate we become church members at the point of faith and trust in Jesus Christ. [Next week: How does one become a church member?]

Benefits of Training Your Dog

The benefits of having a trained dog are nearly limitless! From the moment you get your new puppy or dog, here's a run-down of just some of the advantages and benefits:

Benefits of Dog Training:

- Puppy classes provide the opportunity for getting your new family member started off right. Puppy classes provide the experiences and opportunities for your puppy to develop interaction skills with other puppies, with people, and in new environments.
- Puppy socialization has been found to be critical to the psychological health of adult dogs. Puppy classes provide the opportunity for this important facet of your puppy's upbringing.
- Training classes provide dog owners the skills and knowledge for dealing with common, normal dog behaviors—starting with puppy behaviors such as housetraining and chewing.
- No matter what age you start training your dog, foundation training provides the basis for any activity, behavior or job you want your dog to do.
- Training provides dogs with the basic good manners we all want—from polite greeting when guests arrive, to walking nicely on the leash, to coming when called.
- A trained dog is a fully participating member of the family—what a gift for all of you!
- A trained dog joins in the fun when company comes, accompanies the family to the kids' sports games, goes with you to visit friends and relatives, goes for hikes, swims, and everything else the family does together.
- Training enables you to choose from among a broad range of activities and dog sports to participate in and enjoy with your dog such as dog agility, Rally obedience, dancing with your dog, tracking, search and rescue, skijoring, sledding, water rescue trials, obedience, carting, reading programs, therapy work, and a nearly endless range of fun and philanthropic things to do!
- Training has been shown to be the single most important thing that keeps a dog in his or her "forever" home.
- Training builds your mutual bond, enhances the partnership and enriches the relationship you share with your dog. Is there anything better?
- Having a trained dog is a joy for both you and your dog!
