James Darwin Miller

Obituary for James Darwin Miller (Jim): Jim was born October 17, 1944 to George and Katherine Miller in Dillon, Montana. He was the youngest of four brothers and one sister.

Jim passed away Friday, January 20, 2017 at Parkview Kindred Nursing home where he had lived for 13 years. Jim loved his home at Parkview and often told others how good they were to him and how it was such a good place for him in his later years.

Preceding him in death was his father: George Miller, mother: Katherine Miller, brother: Bob Miller and sister-in-law, Norma Miller, sister: Marion Miller Smith and niece: Debbie Smith.

Jim lived all of his life in Dillon and never left except for a brief time in the army. He and his mother Katherine made their home together and Jim took excellent care of her in her later years. Jim was known as a good and hard worker, 100% dependable and worked many years for his brothers doing a variety of jobs. His family were involved in the cement business in Dillon for many years and built the Sacajawea Motel in 1955.

His best memory of life was when he accepted Jesus as his Lord and Savior on Easter morning when he was 10 years old at the 1st Baptist Church across from the Post Office. Jim also enjoyed helping his Dad raise Shetland ponies and playing cops and robbers with nieces and nephews while racing through the fields. Later after moving to Parkview, he became an unofficial greeter and wore a baseball hat which was inscribed "John 3:16" and he was usually in the dining room waiting to exchange pleasant greetings with anyone who had a spare moment. He also delighted in old gospel hymns sung by Pastor Jim Grosse and listening to the visiting Pastors who preached each Sunday.

Jim's family would like to thank those that were so helpful over the years. Dr. Madany, Duane Keown, Pastor Jim Grosse and the Parkview staff.

Jim is survived by brothers: Gordon (Irene) Miller, Marvin (Pat) Miller, brother-in-law, Jack Smith and Jack's son Craig, sister-in-law Betty Miller and numerous nieces and nephews.

Jim will be buried in the family plot at Mountain View Cemetery next to his Mother. Graveside rights will be held at Mountain View Cemetery on Wednesday, January 25th at 11:00 AM with Pastor Grosse officiating.

Please join the family and friends for lunch after the service at the home of Jim's niece Kathie and Dave Drew, 355 Southwind Lane across from the Equestrian Center on Highway 91S. There is a guestbook available online at www.brundagefuneralhome.com.

Stephen L. Lewis

Stephen L. Lewis passed away Friday January 20th, 2017 in Dillon, Montana. On September 8, 1941 Stephen Leo Lewis was born to Leo Lewis and Bernice J. Whitehead Lewis. He joined his parents and sisters Janice and Renee in Rexburg, Idaho to complete this little family unit.

In 1952 the Lewis family moved to Dillon, Montana where Leo, a millwright, was employed to help build Williams Feed.

Steve had no trouble with the transition and played Babe Ruth and Little League. In High school he was also managers for the football and basketball teams; graduating from Beaverhead County High school in 1959.

In the fall 1959 he enlisted in the U.S. Navy. After boot camp he was assigned to the U.S.S. Bennington. He was with the Arresting Gear Crew and has seen ports of call in the South China Sea, Japan, Hawaii, Hong Kong, and the Philippines.

When he returned he worked for Williams Feed for awhile until he found employment in the propane industry, in which he worked from a bobcat driver, manager and to sales personnel until his retirement in 2010.

During these years he met and married Fayne Roth of Anaconda, Montana in 1965. Their beloved son, Shawn Stephen was born in Havre, Montana in 1966, and their beloved daughter Dalayne Renee was born in Dillon, Montana in 1969.

He was a lifelong member of the Elks and had served on the Dillon Volunteer Fire Department.

Above all Steve was a family man and put them first as he did with his grandchildren, Sam and Emily.

Steve was preceded in death by his parents, Leo and Bernice, son Shawn, and sister Renee Martinell.

Surviving are his wife and partner of 51 years, Fayne, once again poor free throw shoot plagued the Bulldogs. Once again they shot 42 percent from the line, which allowed Rocky to stay within striking distance. However the Bulldogs were able to pull away late and come away with another conference win

Britt Cooper (Harrison, Mont.) scored 10 points, pulled down seven rebounds, and had three steals. Kaye Bgnell (Avon, Mont.) had seven points and five rebounds.

Next up for the Bulldogs is the Orediggers of Montana Tech on Jan. 26 in Butte, Mont.

Tip-off is set for 5:30 P.M.

Bulldogs Beat Rocky Mountain 92-80

The 9th ranked Montana Western Bulldogs (17-3, 7-1) bounced back from a disappointing loss the night before, catching fire from downtown late to beat Rocky Mountain College (10-9, 3-4) 92-80 in front of a packed Straugh Gymnasium.

The Bulldogs regrouped nicely from a tough loss the previous night to 13th ranked Carroll College, by shooting 45 percent from beyond the arc and having six players record double digit scoring.

The Bulldogs took a 13 point lead into halftime and built that lead to 17 early in the second half. It looked like the Bulldogs were going to coast to an easy victory. But Riley Bradshaw and Chad Kenanen had other plans, as the two combined to hit nine three-point shots. Rocky cut the lead to just one with seven minutes remaining. The Bulldogs then scored on their last nine possessions, Dom Robinson (Tacoma, Wash.) and Kooper Kidgell (Billings, Mont.) combined for four three-pointers in that stretch to deny any chance of a Rocky comeback.

Robinson finished with 20 points, seven rebounds and six assists. Kidgell scored 19 and had four assists. Shyke Smalls (Great Falls, Mont.) had 14 points and a steal. Marcus Payne (Livingston, Mont.) scored 13 points and had eight offensive rebounds. Zaccheus Darko-Kelly had 11 points and Riley King (Missoula, Mont.) added 10 points and seven rebounds.

The Bulldogs will face the Orediggers of Montana Tech in Butte, Mont. on Jan. 26. Tip-off is set for 7:30 P.M.

FROZEN PIPES

With more cold weather predicted, the City of Dillon would like to remind homeowners to take measures to prevent their pipes from freezing. Here are several tips: (1) allow a small trickle of water from your cold water faucet to run to keep pipes from freezing. The cost of the extra water is low compared to the cost to repair a broken pipe; (2) keep garage doors closed if there are water supply lines in the garage; (3) open kitchen and bathroom cabinets to allow warmer air circulation around the plumbing and also remember to move any harmful cleaners and household chemicals out of reach of children; (4) If you will be going away during the cold weather, leave the heat on in your home, set to a temperature no lower than 55 degrees Fahrenheit.

The City would prefer to make adjustments for running water to prevent frozen lines than to have customers inconvenienced with frozen water lines which could prove to be very costly.
