UMW holds inaugural Winter Formal Benefiting Good Cause

University of Montana Western's Department of Residence Life recently hosted an inaugural winter formal on the Montana Western campus.

Held on a Saturday night, dance attendees were treated to a variety of dessert and drink options and a meticulously curated collection of music, sophomore Resident Assistant (RA) Caitlynn Ratliff explained.

The dance was conceived of and planned by Ratliff and fellow RAs, junior Amanda Stobie and junior Gabriela Gomez-Wint.

"We wanted to make a fun event for students in the middle of winter, but more than that we wanted the dance to benefit a great organization that students could feel good about," Ratliff said.

Residence Life will donate all proceeds from ticket sales to the Make-A-Wish Foundation. The non-profit organization has arranged experiences described as "wishes" to children with life-threatening medical conditions since 1980.

"Based on the success of our first year, the formal will become an annual event," Residence Life Director Mike Piazzola said. "Our students had a great time and raised money for a good cause. That's the Montana Western way."

"Montana Western RAs, who are responsible for organizing events like the winter formal, are chosen through a three-part interview process that includes an application, group interview and individual interview," Piazzola said. "The RA position teaches them leaderships skills, how to respond to emergencies and how to work with people who are different from themselves. RAs like Caitlynn, Amanda and Gabriela are a large part of why UMW's students have so much fun on campus."

Students interested in becoming RAs should contact Residence Life Office at 406-683-7565 or residencelife@umwestern.edu.

Ratliff said she is already planning next year's formal in her mind and thinking of ways to enhance the experience for Montana Western students.

FROZEN PIPES

With more cold weather predicted, the City of Dillon would like to remind homeowners to take measures to prevent their pipes from freezing. Here are several tips: (1) allow a small trickle of water from both your cold and hot water faucets to run to keep pipes from freezing. The cost of the extra water is low compared to the cost to repair a broken pipe; (2) keep garage doors closed if there are water supply lines in the garage; (3) open kitchen and bathroom cabinets to allow warmer air circulation around the plumbing and also remember to move any harmful cleaners and household chemicals out of reach of children; (4) If you will be going away during the cold weather, leave the heat on in your home, set to a temperature no lower than 55 degrees Fahrenheit.

The City would prefer to make adjustments for running water to prevent frozen lines than to have customers inconvenienced with frozen water lines which could prove to be very costly.

PAINTING WORKSHOP

The Southwest Montana Arts Council invites you to attend an encaustic painting workshop on Tuesday, January 31, from 6:30-8 p.m. at 36 N. Idaho St.

Encaustic painting, also known as hot wax painting, involves using heated beeswax to which colored pigments are added. The wax will then be applied to a piece of wood. Other elements can be added, like paper and flowers, to create a collage encased in wax.

Local artist and encaustic expert Elaine Spicer will lead the class in the creation of a unique piece of art for you to take home. No experience is necessary; just come and try something new!

Class is limited to 20 participants and cost is $25. Please sign up at SMACarts.org. Call 683-6208 for more information.

$100,000 gift from the J.C. Kennedy Foundation

James C. Kennedy, chairman of Cox Enterprises and part-time resident of the Ruby Valley, has donated $100,000 to the Twin Bridges Senior & Community Center. The donation, the largest single gift to the facility, will be used to build a 494 S.F. dining and activity room. In addition to the $100,000 gift, Kennedy provided $5,000 to fund a special holiday meal for the Center's patrons.

"The Center was absolutely overjoyed to receive this generous donation from Mr. Kennedy," said Board President Ron Nye. "The popularity of the Center has been incredibly overwhelming. Thanks to this donation, we can construct a larger dining and activity room to accommodate our already growing number of patrons."

The Center opened in April 2016 and can currently accommodate seating for 45 patrons.

Kennedy is a noted philanthropist who supports conservation projects in addition to health and wellness initiatives. His financial support also helped build Barrett Hospital in Dillon and a new Ruby Valley Hospital and Medical Center in Sheridan.

2016-2017 Winter Count of Northern Yellowstone Elk

The Northern Yellowstone Cooperative Wildlife Working Group conducted its annual winter survey of the northern Yellowstone elk population on January 15, 2017. The survey, using three airplanes, was conducted by staff from the Montana Department of Fish, Wildlife & Parks and the National Park Service.

Staff counted 5,349 elk, including 573 elk (11%) inside Yellowstone National Park and 4,776 elk (89%) north of the park. Survey conditions were favorable across the region.

The 2017 count was 9% higher than the 2016 survey results of 4,912 elk, and was 37% higher than the lowest count of 3,915 elk in 2013. This year's count of 5,349 was the highest since 6,037 elk were counted in 2010.

The purpose of this survey was to estimate overall elk numbers and population trends. A separate survey occurs in March with the objective of estimating calf recruitment and bull ratios.

The Working Group will continue to monitor trends of the northern Yellowstone elk population and evaluate the relative contribution of various components of mortality, including predation, environmental factors, and hunting.

The Working Group is comprised of resource managers and biologists from the Montana Fish, Wildlife, & Parks, National Park Service (Yellowstone National Park), U.S. Forest Service (Custer Gallatin National Forest), and U.S. Geological Survey-Northern Rocky Mountain Science Center, Bozeman.

Elk and Deer Special Application Drawing Deadline is March 15; Changes in Permit Types for Several Regions

Hunters are reminded that the deadline for applying for bull and antlerless elk and mule deer buck permits is March 15. The deer and elk permit application packet is available at FWP license providers and online at <http://fwp.mt.gov/hunting/licenses/>. The deer and elk permit application packet explains the rules for each hunting district and gives directions for applying. Hunters can apply online, or they may stop in to the FWP Office and apply in person.

All elk B licenses previously offered in region one are now "antlerless elk permits." Hunters who wish to hunt antlerless elk in region one must apply by March 15.

Elk hunting in many HDs or portions of HDs in Regions 2,3 & 6 now offer "antlerless elk permits" instead of, or in addition to, elk B licenses. If you seek to harvest an antlerless elk using an anterless permit in those hunting districts, you must apply for an anterless elk permit by March 15. The deadline to apply for elk B licenses is June 1.

Prerequisites for applying for these permits include a conservation license, base hunting license and elk and/or deer license. Also, applicants for Archery Season only permits must purchase a bow and arrow license prior to submitting an application.

COMPREHENSIVE ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT STRATEGY MEETING IN BEAVERHEAD COUNTY

Looking to help guide the direction of the local economy in your community? Headwaters RC&D is updating the Comprehensive Economic Development Strategy (CEDS), the only region-wide economic development plan for Southwestern Montana, and is looking for public input to help craft the document and guide local decision makers.

Headwaters is hosting a Regional Strategy Meeting in Dillon as part of its five-year CEDS update. As a resident of Beaverhead County, your feedback is significant for envisioning what our economy will look like over the next five years. We are reaching out to you for your valuable input and support of this process.

You are invited to assist in identifying community and economic development priorities and projects within your community, the evening of February 6th, 2:00 PM at the Beaverhead County Courthouse. Public input is critical, and this is your opportunity to work with community members to highlight what projects will have the highest economic impact and priorities in Beaverhead County.

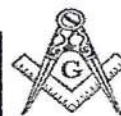

If you would like more information on this topic please contact Jené Matzkanin, Administrative Assistant, Headwaters RC&D: 406.533.6781, jmatzkanin@headwatersrcd.org
