Southwest District Career Development Events

Beaverhead FFA students had a busy day yesterday in Twin Bridges at the Southwest District Career Development Events (CDEs). 11 FFA chapters were in attendance, including Beaverhead, Belgrade, Big Timber, Broadwater, Gardiner, Park, Ruby Valley, Twin Bridges, Wheatland, and White Sulphur Springs.

Results are as follows:

Jr. Ag Mechanics – 2nd place team consisting of Tyler Sitz, Cash Atkinson, Lars Murdoch-Kalsta, and Brayden Hankinson. Tyler Sitz was the 2nd place individual. Students demonstrated their knowledge and abilities with tool identification, lumber identification, construction, electrical wiring, machinery parts identification, and a general knowledge test.

Sr. Ag Mechanics – 1st place team consisting of James Kramer, Timothy Martin, Dylan Johnson, Carl Kambich, Trent Wahl, Tristen Ellis, and Christopher Kiewatt. James Kramer was the 1st place individual, Tim Martin was 3rd, and Dylan Johnson was 4th. The contest included construction, wiring, tool identification, tractor diagnostics, welding, and a general knowledge test.

Sr. Agronomy – 5th place team consisting of Kristian Landis, Abbey Trang, Bailee Doering, and Mikaela Trang. The agronomy contest consisted of plant identification, seed identification, soil texturing & analysis, irrigation calculations, pesticide application, fertilizer calculation, and forage evaluation, as well as a general knowledge test.

Farm Business Management – 4th place team consisting of Eric James, Mikaela Trang, Bailee Doering, and Kristian Landis. Eric James was 8th high individual. The Farm Business Management contest evaluates students' ability to make sound financial and management decisions based on agricultural scenarios, and includes partial budgets, cash flow statements, inventories, and various commodity marketing exercises.

All of these teams placed in the top half of our district, and will qualify for state competition in Great Falls next month. Be sure to give these kids a pat on the back when you see them!

Many thanks to Mr. Hellwinkel and the Twin Bridges FFA for putting on an excellent contest and meal.

Council Meeting 2/15/17

By: MJ

All councilmembers were present except councilman Shafer.

Mr. Clark's home business was on the agenda for a final vote of approval or rejection. The council voted to allow the business with several contingencies.

Public spoke up: Most of the public members present spoke up doggedly against allowing the business. Ms. Sandra Berry and Mrs. Mary Jo O'Rourke were the two main speakers for the group attending in opposition of Mr. Clark's business being approved. They spoke about Title 17 (zoning document) having some words changed that allowed Mr. Clark's business in an R-2 residential zone. It appeared they found the zoning rules frustrating. They felt the public was not informed of the wordsmithing done to the zoning document. NOTE: Committee member Mr. Mooney clearly outlined in written form all the changes that the zoning committee was suggesting to be made far before Mr. Clark submitted his application at meetings where public had the right to participate. Mrs. Marcy Busch felt the business would monetarily devalue her historic home. Mrs. Edith Fletcher did not live in the area however spoke against Mr. Clark and in agreement with the protestors.

Public notifications outlined by laws: It is a long lengthy process to make changes to a document. The public has many opportunities to network throughout the process. NOTE: 1) the zoning committee is required to hold public hearings, post notices of the hearings in the local paper, post the dates, the times and identify on the agenda what will be discussed at the meetings. After the zoning board has completed all the above they then make a recommendation to the council. 3) The council then must repeat the process before making a decision. All meetings are open to the public and the public can participate.

Zoning Board: The zoning board was once again criticized by members of the public for not having a person on the zoning committee with long term knowledge. Mr. McIsaac was one of the authors of the zoning document. He had the long term knowledge however he declined when asked to serve another term. Sometimes "new blood" with new ideas is good.

- Protests are an essential part of how our governmental system works. It gives everyone a chance to have a say. When the verbal part of a protest substitutes abusive remarks for evidence the protest loses its value. This line of "reasoning" is fallacious because the attack is directed at individuals.
- One way of exerting will over another is to attack the person. While this is not always nice, it can be successful.

FWP UPDATES SNOW GOOSE CONSUMPTION ADVISORY

Montana Fish, Wildlife and Parks issued a consumption advisory for snow goose hunters in the Dillon/Butte area in early December 2016 following the Nov. 28 event at the Berkeley Pit. In the advisory, FWP asked hunters who had harvested snow geese after Nov. 28 to process and freeze birds until which time the department could determine how the event affected edible portions of these geese and other waterfowl.

The Environmental Protection Agency has since analyzed tissue samples gathered from snow geese and other waterfowl collected by the pit owners. The agency recently released a memorandum indicating the limited potential risk posed by consuming the birds concluding, "These results suggest that ingestion of tissue or organs from these waterfowl for both short term and chronic exposure periods would be unlikely to result in adverse health effects from inorganics."

While it would appear safe for humans to consume muscle tissue and organs of these harvested geese, under the circumstances, it is at the discretion of the hunter whether he or she chooses to eat or discard snow geese harvested after the Nov. 28 event.

Museum Open House

The staff and volunteers of the Beaverhead county Museum have been busily doing three new exhibits for 2017 and preparing for an open house on February 28th. The exhibits feature the town of Glendale, from draft horses to opera glasses, historic Dillon Churches and early day dressmaking in a display titled "A Stitch in Time". The sewing display is sponsored by the # 1 Ladies Quilt Shop. The open house will be held between 5 and 7 p.m. so that area residents can see the new displays. Refreshments will be furnished and served by United Way volunteers and admission charges will be waived. In addition, the museum store will be hosting a $5 book sale and providing chances on a gift basket to be raffled that evening.

Just to add a bit more fun to the occasion, some of the staff and volunteers will be dressed in period reproduction clothing and will be prepared to discuss the new and older exhibits. Then, for those who wish to participate, there will be a digital scavenger hunt with prizes at the end, so bring your iPhones.
