Oden Synness

Oden Synness sailed onto Valhalla on February 18, 2017, two days after his 44th birthday, after a grueling and valiant double overtime match against cancer.

Oden was born to his teenage parents, Trent and Nola (Jorgenson) Synness on February 16, 1973, in Helena.

He spent eight of the first 10 years of his life, beginning at the age of 2, living in either an old school bus converted to a motor home or on a 24-foot sailboat on the Caribbean Ocean, or on the hiway from coast-to-coast.

By the age of 5, traveling in their "bust," Oden had been to places like Seattle, San Diego, Santa Fe, Sun Valley and Key West; had visited Disneyland and attended the grand opening of Disney World in Orlando; and moved to Punta Rassa (FL), with sailboat "Wings" in tow.

After moving onto the boat, the family sailed from Boca Grande (FL) to the Bahama's Exuma Cay, via the Keys. At just 6 years of age, he piloted Wings out of Biscayne Bay through the Miami ship channel, while his dad made "sammiches" below deck.

The boat served as TNO's home for three years, while Oden spent his preschool days chatting with old fishermen and catching people's boats as they slid into the marina dock for fuel.

During his elementary school years, Oden split time between the sailboat in Ft. Myers Beach (FL) in the winter, and his family home in Helena in the summers. Those adventurous years were filled with sailing excursions to the Florida Keys, Dry Tortugas, and the Bahamas.

"Rasslin'" became an energetic young Oden's sport of choice. After moving back home, he competed at numerous State, Regional and National AAU and USA Tournaments with the Helena Wrestling Club, in addition to a stellar career for Helena High.

In 1990 he qualified for the Montana Cultural Exchange team that competed in Egypt for two weeks. Oden graduated HHS in 1992 with a college wrestling scholarship to Montana Western.

And although he earned a reputation as a talented, gritty, fierce competitor on the mats, he was also renowned for "robbing" his prep teammates and college buddies of their lunch money, in the poker games on bus rides and dorm parties.

Upon learning of Oden's death, past Capital High heavyweight Boe Shuman epilogued on Twitter: "The Helena wrestling community lost a good one," Shuman tweeted of his former 125-pound crosstown Bengal rival. "I will always cherish my memories of Oden. He was a Lion."

Oden continued his education at Montana State University and graduated from farrier school while working at a building supply store and driving school bus.

In 1995, Oden discovered his passion for stonework while studying industrial arts in college at Fort Collins, Colorado. He worked at Jordan Marble and Granite Company, fabricating marble and granite countertops.

Oden returned to Helena in 1999, where he became part-owner of the historic Carrie Hilger ranch - located north of Helena and southwest of his great-great-grandparents homestead below the Sleeping Giant. With Trent and Nola, they formed Sleeping Giant Ranch L.C., which he owns yet today.

In 2001, Oden started his own business in Helena, Synness Stoneworks, and later Synness Contracting and Stone in 2013, in Dillon. He was a true master of the trade, and always put quality ahead of quantity. His beautiful countertops grace the kitchens of dozens of homes in central and southwest Montana, and those who benefitted from his talents realized that Oden enjoyed a special friendship with all his clients.

In 2010, Oden married longtime best friend Laurie Barrett, and together they had three children; Oden Barrett, and twins Corbin and Cobi Synness. That same year he was diagnosed with Stage 4 Hodgkins Lymphoma. For seven years he butted heads with the disease, but through it all he remained a hard-working (when he was able), devoted, and loving, husband and father.

Among Oden's hobbies were water skiing, camping (his favorite spot was Curch Camp on the Missouri River under the shadow of the Sleeping Giant's Nose), coaching wrestling, boating, the shooting sports, elk hunting and golfing. Oden loved spending time with his wife and children camping, attending rodeos and carnivals, road trips in the mountains (especially in their "new" '72 CJ5 Jeep) and taking part in his "nugget's" school activities.

But mostly, he just loved to have fun, no matter what he was doing.

His mother related that if one thing epitomized Oden, it was his large collection of Hawaiian shirts.

"The Hawaiian shirt is fun, colorful, complicated in pattern, and ready to party at a moment's notice," Nola wrote. "That was Oden — his presence made life more fun."

Trent said that Oden never had a middle name, until now: "I'm naming him Oden Fun Synness. What a ride. Love PaPa," penned his Dad.

Oden was predeceased by his grandfather, Chuck Jorgenson.

He is survived by his wife Laurie, and children Odie B (7), Corbin (5) and Cobi (5); parents Trent and Nola Synness; his brother Noell Jorgenson (Anna), and niece Lily Jean, of Bozeman; grandparents Wes and Carol Synness, and Jean Jorgenson; and father and mother in law Kelly and Terry Barrett, of Dillon. In addition to many beloved aunts, uncles and cousins, as well.

Per Oden's request there will be no service to celebrate his life. The family suggests that those wishing to may gather with friends and share their Oden stories, while lifting a beverage of your choice (his favorite was Coors) in honor of his well-lived, well-loved life.

An education fund for Oden's children has been set up. Contributions may be sent to: Oden Synness Memorial Fund, C/O First Security Bank, 1721 11th Ave., Helena, MT 59601.

City Hall Committee cont'ed.

By: MJ

February 16, 2017 City Hall meeting continues.

EMPLOYEE SLARIES: Councilman Straugh moved to table this item, stating that there is a limited amount of money to distribute to employees. Councilman Straugh state he was supportive of employees being paid more, however he does not think the City can afford to do so. Mayor Klakken stated the Montana Public Employees Association (MPEA) contract negotiations are coming up. The current contract expires at the end of June. Negotiations cannot begin sooner than ninety (90) days prior to the contract end date. Danny Devers, Pres. of the MPEA-Dillon Unit, said the group hopes to start negotiations around the first part of March.

Mayor Klakken stated that when the contract negotiated in 2014, a flat two percent (2%) increase per year of the contract period was agreed upon for all union employees. Mayor made suggestion of looking into a different method for the next contract. A minimum and maximum would be established depending upon number of years of employment for each position. A linear scale would be used based upon twenty (20) or thirty (30) years of employment. He is also looking into how to include a cost of living increase but is uncertain on how to approach it. He went onto say that (2%) is too high because the General Fund only allows for about point six (0.6%) and point seven percent (0.7%). Street Maintenance, Water and Sewer, and Cemetery accounts have some room for increases, but not all employees work in those departments. Mayor went onto say that there are some options out there.

Mr. Devers questioned the title "Street Supervisor" position listed. He stated the city has never employed a "Street Supervisor" and wanted to know if a new position had been created. Mayor Klakken said he put that job title with corresponding wages on the list to use for comparison for wages for a department "Lead." He compiled the list to provide a starting point for establishing wages.

Mr. Roder, Vice President of MPEA-Dillon Unit ask about petitioning the Legislature to change money coming into the City. Councilman Straugh suggested hosting the local Senator and Representative and talk to them about how the city budget work. He thought the League of Cities and Towns should also participate. The cutoff date for bills to be drafted and processed in the Legislature for this year is probably too late. Possibility for next session.

HEALTH INSURANCE: The city of Dillon pays ninety percent (90%) of each employee's health insurance and each employee pays ten percent (10%). The same ratio is set up for coverage of families. The mayor stated he is looking into a way to make it fair for employees who do not have dependents so they receive the same benefit as employees who do have families.

Bulldogs Come up Just Short in Semi-Final Clash Against MSU-Northern

The No. 20 Montana Western Bulldogs (23-8, 11-7) fell in a close game to the No. 12 MSU-Northern Skylights (23-7, 10-6) 44-42 Friday night in the Armory Gymnasium.

The Bulldogs lost a heartbreaker against Northern 44-42 in the semi-finals of the Frontier Conference playoffs. The Bulldogs lead for most of the game, but Northern hit a three pointer with 13 seconds left in game and the Bulldogs game tying attempt was too hard of the glass.

The Bulldogs held Northern to just two made free throws during an 11:15 stretch. The Skylights were held without a field goal during the span that stretched from the first through third quarters. But the Bulldogs couldn't take advantage and were only able to build a nine point lead during the Skylights scoring drought.

The Bulldogs struggled to get shots to fall as they only made one three point shot. And shot 36 percent from the field for the game.

The Bulldogs battled foul trouble all game and got a great performance from Alexa Welch (Helena, Mont.) off the bench. Welch played 19 minutes, going 4-5 from the field for eight points, two rebounds and an assist.

Aniese Palmore (Santa Monica, Calif.) led the Bulldogs with 13 points and nine rebounds. Britt Cooper (Harrison, Mont.) scored 12 points and six rebounds.

The Bulldogs should advance to NAIA National Tournament, they will find out their playoff fate on Wednesday March 8 at 5 p.m.

The No. 10 Montana Western Bulldogs (24-1, 14-4) Lost a heart breaker Saturday night at the Straugh Gymnasium. Falling to Lewis-Clark State College (23-9, 11-7) 101-95 in overtime of the Frontier Conference semi-finals.

The Bulldogs held a five point lead with 23 seconds left, when the Warriors hit a three-point shot to cut the lead to two.
On the ensuing in-bounds attempt the Bulldogs were called for a five-second violation, despite calling for a timeout. The Warriors tied the game on driving layup, and the Bulldogs buzzer beater attempt fell short.

The overtime period went back and forth, before the Warriors advance to the conference championship game.

Dom Robinson (Tacoma, Wash.) carried the team, playing all 45 minutes, making a career high 13 shots and scoring a career high 39 points. He also had six rebounds and four assists.

The Warriors shot 55 percent from the field, while the Bulldogs shot just 39 percent, half of the Bulldogs shot attempts were from downtown, but could only connect on 13 of the 40 they shot. They Bulldogs uncharacteristically missed nine free throws, many coming late in the second half.

Shyke Smalls (Great Falls, Mont.) scored 18 points and grabbed seven rebounds. Zaccheus Darko-Kelly (Missoula, Mont.) scored 16 and had six rebounds. Kooper Kidgell (Billings, Mont.) scored 12 points.

With the Bulldogs already guaranteed a spot in the NAIA national tournament, the loss isn't a major blow despite the frustration of blowing a late lead. The Warriors however, were a bubble team and desperately needed a win to qualify for the tournament.

The Bulldogs will find out who they play next, when NAIA bracket is released on March 8, at 6 p.m.
