Silver Bow Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution essay competition

Daisy Rhodes, a seventh grader at Reichle School, was awarded first place for seventh graders in the Silver Bow Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution essay competition. The topic was "Celebrating a Century: America's National Parks". Her essay has also been judged as the first place winner at the state level. It will now be judged in the Northwestern Division, which includes state winners from Montana, Wyoming, Idaho, Oregon, Washington, and Alaska. As a state winner, Daisy and her parents are invited to Bozeman later this year when Daisy will receive her state award. Daisy is the daughter of Justin and Anna Rhodes. Her teacher at Reichle is Sue Webster.

THANK YOU
 I'd like to take this opportunity first to thank you for supporting the men, women, children, and communities involved in bringing this series to life. The work we do wouldn't be possible without the diehard support of fans like you. The amount of work that so many have put into this series is humbling to say the least. We premiered the series on February 18th at the Big Sky Cinema in Dillon Montana, the town where most of our filming was completed, to an over-full auditorium. Staff had to enact the standing room rule and our local Montana Youth Challenge volunteers who were working the event brought in folding chairs just so that there would be enough seats for everyone in attendance. It was a glorious moment for myself personally as well as all the members of the Big Muddy team. The pride held by all who worked on the film was radiating.
 Prior to the screening David Worth, Hollywood director and cinematographer, called to personally congratulate this award winning team after which we showed the series in its entirety. The mood was ecstatic and the audience was amazed. Watching the emotional responses from the audience was, for me, the most enjoyable part because they were totally engrossed in the story on screen. It was an amazing success. We are now trying to work out a deal to do a 12 theater limited run of the series across the state of Montana as well as some specialty exhibitions in Bozeman, Helena, and Dillon for the folks who couldn't make the premiere or didn't want to brave the crowded theater. So stay tuned on our Facebook page for updates and showings.
 DVD production is now in full swing-It took some extra time to get all of the various materials and equipment in but everything is rolling with 95% efficiency. There was one minor change to the design of the box set and that was the addition of one more DVD, so instead of a three DVD set it is now four. By adding an extra disc to the set it allowed me to maximize the DVD quality of each film to the highest settings possible which gives you all the best viewing experience that the DVD format can offer. I have checked the DVD master copies on a 60" 4k television via a Blu-Ray player app on the Xbox One and even on a large screen with a high resolution the picture is amazing and unless one knew you would swear it is HD. Shipping is estimated to begin no later than late next week, 13 - 19 March, and orders will be processed from oldest to newest until all orders are fulfilled.
 We maintain a strict replacement policy to ensure that what you buy is exactly what you get, however there is always that rare chance that you might get a bad disc or a disc that was damaged in shipping. Should this occur please contact us immediately through our Selz page and we will replace the bad disc for free. Please keep in mind that even though our DVDs are guaranteed to play on 85% - 95% of all players there are still some pieces of technology out there that might not like the standard DVD-R format. Should an issue arise we encourage you to double check the disc(s) on a second, more current, player prior to contacting us for a replacement(s).
 Exciting times are ahead and I am happy to have you all along for the ride.
 Best regards,
 Chris Hoffert

Montana Retired Educators' Day

Thursday, March 9, 2017 has been designated by Gov. Steve Bullock as Montana Retired Educators' Day. This day is set aside annually by the Governor to show appreciation to Montana Retired Educators for the dedicated work they have done educating children and preparing them for the 21st Century. On this day, retired educators from throughout Montana will travel to Helena and meet with their legislators at the Capitol. In addition, they will listen to presentations from AARP, the Governor's Office, Teachers' Retirement System, and National Retired Teachers' Association.

Educators believe working with children to help develop their God given talents is one of life's highest professional callings. Although retired, educators support the efforts of practicing teachers to improve the lives of students.

Professional educators strive to instill in children a love of learning that will continue throughout their lives. Teachers have great empathy for their students and parents for whom they work. There is no greater satisfaction to a teacher than seeing the eyes of children light up when they have mastered difficult concepts that become building blocks for more advanced learning.

On this special day, parents and students are asked to show their appreciation to Montana's retired educators by helping them celebrate. You may do this by thanking your favorite teachers who inspired you to become a success in life.

The mission of every professional educator, practicing or retired, is to help students become the best people possible, educated to their full academic potential. When this is achieved, a student may quote the poet, William Hensley, "...I am the master of my fate, I am the captain of my soul."

In closing, retired educators worked diligently to produce well educated children enabling them to become outstanding Montana citizens. For these reasons, we celebrate the professional work retired educators have done for all Montanans. Please join in helping retired educators celebrate their special day.

MONTANA LEGISLATIVE REPORT FOR MONDAY, MARCH 6, 2017

Having reached the halfway point for the 65th Montana Legislative session, both the House and the Senate took a few days off last week but we are headed back to work this week. Much has been accomplished but the heavy lifting remains to be done as the new two year budget must be finalized. With the contraction in revenues, programs and expenditures must now be prioritized and addressed as available funding allows. Additionally many Bills on a wide variety of subjects remain alive and will be dealt with in the coming weeks.

I spent my few days at home not only getting rested up but also in visiting with local residents as well as County officials, local educators, ranchers, businessmen and BCHS government classes. I also had phone calls and emails from other Legislators as we continued to work together on upcoming issues.

With this being break week, I thought I would take a little time to address some of the Legislative operational questions I have been asked. These include:

---How many hours a day do you work? --- Like many Legislators, I usually arrive at the Capitol about 6:30AM and leave after 6PM. Two to three mornings a week, I have a meeting at 7AM followed by Taxation Committee meetings five days a week beginning at 8AM. Floor sessions begin at 1PM and I have afternoon Committee meetings—either Human Services or Fish, Wildlife and Parks--- five days a week beginning at 3PM or whenever the Floor session ends. The past 2-3 weeks, many evenings it was 7:00PM or after before we completed Committee work. I typically spend time after I leave the Capitol and before I head to bed reading upcoming Bills on which we will be holding a Committee hearing or having a floor vote. Our Saturday morning floor sessions usually run about two hours and I then use some time following these Saturday sessions to get caught up on my paperwork, reading, as well as work on my Bills.

---How many emails do you receive? --- On a typical day, I receive 60-75 emails. However, depending on the specific Bill, I have gotten as few as a dozen emails to as many as several hundred on one Bill spread out over a couple of days. Obviously not all emails come from local residents as I routinely get emails from people throughout Montana and the United States. Contact such as emails and phone calls from local residents are most important to me. The best way to contact me is via the Legislator contact system available at mt.gov.leg. Legislative staff prints out and delivers your emails and phone messages continually during the day to my desk on the House floor.

---Do you have an office at the Capitol? --- No, the vast majority of House members do not have private offices. Members of House leadership whether they are in the majority or minority party have limited basic office space. The rest of us use our House seats/desks for most of our work. There is a room in the basement of the Capitol called the dungeon which contains three computers, three printers, and a copier for our use as needed.

---Can visitors come onto the House floor? ---Yes, you can in limited instances. The House floor is generally closed to all unauthorized persons from two hours before we begin our Floor session until two hours after the Floor session ends. You are always welcome to watch actual floor sessions from the balcony galleries depending on space. Most House members whether you are from their District or not, are good about inviting interested parties and particularly students of all ages, onto the House floor when appropriate to answer questions, discuss our processes, and show them the massive Russell painting which hangs in the House Chamber.

Are you enjoying it? --- Yes, I am. I most certainly have learned a great deal and have much more to learn. I have also made some mistakes but am learning from them. It is a challenge but I become more comfortable each and every day. The people I work with are diverse, intelligent and hardworking. We do not always agree but we have mutual respect for each other. There is no doubt that I will develop many lasting friendships from this experience.

I hope this week's update has provided you a look at some of the behind the scenes aspects of the Montana Legislature. Have a great week and be safe!

Rep Tom Welch, House District 72
