Joseph George Rebich Jr.

Joseph George Rebich Jr. (Nonie), son of Mary (Malesich) and Joseph G. Rebich, passed away on March 8, 2017. Joe was born on the family ranch south of Dillon on February 3, 1934. He ranched his entire life, enjoying all of the farming. He served in the Army from 1956-1958, stationed in the South Carolina.

Joe never married but was a favorite uncle to his many nieces and nephews, always more than willing to give them a ride on his dune buggy. Joe enjoyed taking rides to the summer range, Small Horn Canyon, in his dune buggy and later in his Ranger.

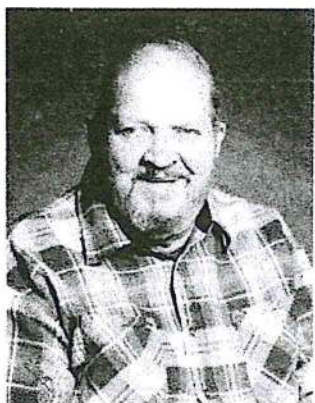

Joe was a gentle and kind soul, loved by his extended family and will be missed by all.

Joe was preceded in death by his mother and father; three sisters, Helen Fargher, Betty Reynolds, and Dorothy Meine; brothers-in-law, Bob Meine and Harley Norris; and his brother Paul Rebich. He is survived by his sisters, Irene Nesgoda, Louise (Jim) Keef, and Mary Norris; and brother Philip (Shirley) Rebich and by many nieces and nephews.

At Joe's request, no services will be held. A celebration of his life will be held for family and friends at the Rebich Ranch on Saturday, March, 18, 2017, at 2:00 p.m.

There will be a guestbook available at www.brundagefuneralhome.com

Charles Edward "Chuck" Dishno

Charles Edward "Chuck" Dishno was born August 4, 1934, in Bly, Oregon. Chuck was very proud of the fact that he was 4th in his high school graduation class...of four; he like to say he was the top of the lower 25%. Although Chuck came to Dillon from Oregon, via California, he came with genuine Montana bon a fides. His Mother, Lura Hartman Dishno, was born in Missoula and his Grandfather, Silas Dishno, came to the Big Hole in 1895. He bought a house and barn and a couple of hundred acres near what is now Jackson. Silas was a founding father of Dillon. If you stroll along railroad Street, heading toward the fairgrounds, you can see his name stamped into the sidewalk in front of the pretty white house he built for his wife, Melinda. Chuck's father, Ed Dishno, had a ranch in the Big Hole in the 20's.

Chuck and his wife, Roz, moved to Dillon in 1989, where he started a printing business, Bannack Press, in the back room of the Sears building. As we all know, the Sears building is gone now...which is just as well, as Chuck used to say, if you turned out the lights in the daytime, you could see sun light streaming through the broken mortar in the walls, and it was a little bit drafty in the winter. One of the things Chuck loved best in his life, next to his wife, Roz, was Kiwanis. Chuck was a Kiwanian for 40 years, and rose to the rank of Governor of the Montana District, 1995-96, the first ever from Dillon, and ran for International Trustee, in 1997. Chuck loved living in Dillon, and up until a few short years ago, could be seen tooling through the streets on his silver scooter, passing out dog biscuits to his furry friends, and terrorizing shoppers at the IGA.

Chuck loved to tell short, very often, hilarious stories about his childhood in Oregon, his stint in the army and his wonderful family. He published a book of short stories entitled, "The Way We Were" in 2006. It's out of print now, but several copies are being offered on Amazon for the minuscule price of just $1,076.30 + $3.99 shipping. And speaking of his writings, those of you who regularly read the Dillionite, are familiar with Chuck's Famous Quotes and legendary political "feud" with La Von Brillhart. They were such good enemies, that they called each other on their birthdays every year.

Chuck will be mightily missed by his wife of 47 years, Rosalind Chong Dishno; his daughter, Lura Panici, and her family of Yearington, NV; his son Mike Dishno, wife Lisa Dishno, and their family of Clovis, CA; his step-son, David Wilson, his wife Joanne, and their family of Ventura, CA; his step-daughter, Roberta Wilson, and her family of Dillon; and his Coffee Gang down at the Los Koritas Mexican Restaurant.

Please join Chuck's family and friends in celebrating his life with a visitation on Monday, March 20th from 6 to 8 pm, at the Brundage Funeral Home; and a graveside service on Tuesday, March 21st, at 1:00 pm, with a reception at the Our Savior Lutheran Church after the service.

Rumor on the Street.

By: MJ

It is rumored that a few citizens may still be upset about the "home business" the city fathers allowed in a residential neighborhood. They are saying that the city did not make the citizens aware of the words that were changed in the zoning document therefore the city needs to be held accountability for allowing the business. Why would the city be held accountable if they followed all the laws? Reality: There are existing businesses in that neighborhood; bookkeeping, antique, contractor, real-estate...

NOTE: A change of any city ordinance (document) has many rules and regulations that must be followed. Every one of the meetings and hearings that are held regarding a change is notified via papers, informational posting boards, radio, agendas and in this case there was a walk through for the committee and anyone in the public that wanted to attend. No one from the neighborhood attended the walk through. NOTE: Maybe we need to be grateful and thankful that the Council, Mayor, City Attorney, Committees and city employees that work hard to follow the laws to the best of their ability.

• QUESTION: What is the resentment really about? Is it about "pride," a destructive word that says you must win? Is it about people not getting their way? Is it because humans are self-absorbed, self-orientated, making it all about (me-me-me)? Is it about you personally making money? Awe yes, money, the evil one. When money is the reasoning behind the curtain then the problems become personal.

• Should we sit down in front of a flat screen TV and watch our own performance. Watch and listen to ourselves criticizing others with words like, "what I am going to say is not about you personally" however I am going to continue to use cutting & condemning words, raising our voices, snickering when while others speaks, being the grammar police, threatening law suits... Would it be productive for us to watch our own theatrical performances while we continue to personally beat others down to the point where we get our way? QUESTION: Would it be productive to work together finding the common ground that works for the betterment of the entire community and not just a small area that is not perfect and is not without problems of its own?

Letter to the Editor

Do you feel tired today? It's because of Daylight Saving Time. We did not save any time, we just lost an hour. Daylight Saving Time is a plot to destroy civilization. It is a device to fool us, control us. You are now tired and want to cry and swear. Go ahead, but it won't do any good.

They, and you never find out who "they" are took away the hour. You know someone had time on their hands to come up with this stupid idea. We all need a time out or maybe time off to get used to the hour gone.

Daylight Saving Time was invented by a man, no woman in her right mind would invent this silly scheme. Set your clocks ahead. The cuckoo clock was invented to honor the man who instigated this silly idea.

You just lost an hour but you will still be taxed for the hour you lost. Time to call this stupid idea quits. I called the time advisor and wanted to tell him, time to call it quits. No answer! He was probably sleeping. Time will tell. I do hope so!

La Von D. Brillhart

Jared Wisler

Madison County Sheriff Thompson said twenty-one-year-old Jared Wisler from Twin Bridges was practicing jumps with another male dirt biker from Ennis in the Revenue Flats area three miles west of Norris when he landed nose first on his bike shortly before 5 p.m. The bike rolled several times according to Thompson and Wisler was thrown from the bike.

Emergency personnel and officers from the Madison County sheriff's office arrived just after 5 pm., and Wisler was pronounced dead at the scene.

Sheriff Thompson said drugs and alcohol did not appear to be involved and that Wisler was wearing his helmet, along with other protective gear.

LEGISLATIVE REPORT MONDAY, MARCH 13TH

BY REP. TOM WELCH

Last week's House of Representatives activity at the 65th Montana Legislative session focused primarily on committee hearings and floor agendas dealing with Senate Bills. The first three days of this week will be more of the same.

However, beginning this Thursday morning, the House will spend two full days reviewing the proposed State budget for the next two years beginning July 1, 2017. This review will be highly intensive with much debate.

Following these two tough days, we will have a major framework in place for the new Budget. I would again remind everyone that we are still weeks and several modifications away from a finalized Budget. Changes will happen. I will provide more details and a Budget update next week.

Last Friday evening, I had the privilege to attend the REAL Montana Banquet here in Helena. Southwest Montana resident Jacob Smith and his classmates are nearing the end of a 2-year long program focused on Resource Education and Agriculture Leadership (REAL). I came away very impressed with this program itself and the quality of participants such as Jacob Smith.

I would like to congratulate not only the BCHS Dillon Beavers boys' basketball team but also all local area students who participate in a wide variety of extra-curricular activities. Your efforts as students are commendable.

I do appreciate your emails and phone calls.

Again, the best means to contact me is via email on the mt.gov.leg website or via legislative phone at 406 444 4800.

Have a great week and be safe!

Group to discuss Rinker Buck's The Oregon Trail

Dillon Public Library's Nonfiction Reading Group will meet on Tuesday, March 14, 2017 at 7:00 pm in the Library's basement programming room to discuss Rinker Buck's The Oregon Trail. The reading group is open to the public, and copies of the book are available for checkout at the Library.
