Shirley Bea Toland Davis

Shirley Bea Toland Davis was born October 4th, 1935 to Dillard McClenney Toland and Gyona Almeda Scott Toland in Texas. She died unexpectedly on March 9th, 2017 in Dillon, Montana.

Shirley Married Asa Edwin Davis on February 27, 1954 in Bredckenridge, Texas. They had three children, Steven Walter (Susan) Davis, Kirk Edwin (Marilyn) Davis, and Gail Lynn Davis (Joe) Barnhart. Shirley was a gifted artist in many mediums but is best remembered as a compassionate friend and advocate. She lived in Dillon since 2004 and thoroughly enjoyed the wonderful people she met in Montana.

Shirley is survived by her three children, their spouses, nine grandsons and fifteen great-grandchildren.

She is preceded in death by her husband, Asa Edwin Davis, mother and father and only brother, Leo Donald Toland.

There will be a private, family service after winter has passed.

Music in Our Schools

March is designated to celebrate Music in Our Schools. Beaverhead County High School will host a Band and Choir Concert on Tuesday, March 21, 2017 at 7:30 pm in the BW Lodge Gymnasium.

The concert will feature BCHS choirs and bands who will be joined by Dillon Middle School 8th grade choir and band, Lima High School Choir and students from Reichle School. The choirs will be directed by Mrs. Carolyn Van Slyke, Neil Lemieux, and Kristin Cruz. Christopher Kloker and Neil Lemieux will conduct the bands.

The concert is free to the public. Please join us for an evening of music to celebrate the accomplishments of our amazing young musicians

Neider Medical Fund

Many people in the Dillon community will remember Scott and Shirlee Neider, former nurses at Barrett Hospital. In the ER Shirlee was known as "the general"; on more than one occasion when an ambulance pulled up and Shirlee was waiting at the door, the patient's response was "thank God!" They knew they were in good hands. Scott can be remembered as a gentle giant. His kindness and easy going nature, along with his nursing expertise was a huge comfort to many people. Now our old friends are in need of help.

In recent months Shirlee has undergone a major surgery and Scott has had multi-vessel open heart surgery. Shortly before he was to return to work, Scott was diagnosed with esophageal cancer and is currently undergoing chemo and radiation therapy, with another big surgery planned after that. As if that were not enough, Shirlee recently took a fall and broke her ankle, making it difficult for her to care for Scott and return to work full time.

Anyone interested in helping the Neiders can make a contribution to their Go Fund Me campaign (gofundme.com), called the Scott & Shirlee Neider Medical Fund. Or a note of encouragement can be sent to: Scott & Shirlee Neider, 2698 1/2 Caribbean Drive, Grand Junction, CO, 81506-1758.

Western Men's Basketball Earns Individual Postseason Awards

In his tenth year on the bench guiding the Bulldogs, head coach Steve Keller just completed his most successful regular season. The Bulldogs went 24-7 (.774 winning percentage) and 14-4 in conference (.778). "The entire Montana Western community is proud of Steve Keller and his recognition as the 2016-17 Frontier Conference Coach of the Year. Steve has made a lasting impact not only on the basketball program at Western, but in countless lives that he has affected." Stated Director of Athletics Russ Richardson, "Coach Keller has the reputation of being 'hard' on the court, but his passion for the game and the kids he coaches has literally changed the lives of the student athletes he serves! This is a very well-deserved honor."

This is the second time Keller has been named Frontier Coach of the Year.

RED HAT SOCIETY NEWS

In March at Papa T's, Harriet Chambers and Mary Jo Waldemar co-hosted our March activity with the theme of St. Patrick's Day in their prizes, place settings etc. At each setting was a "Goodie Bag" filled with an Irish pin, green beaded necklace, fortune cookies with an Irish saying inside the cookie and a bag of gold nuggets (chocolate).

St. Patrick's Day head bands were awarded to Marion Williams Sydney Tiedgen, Diana Carroll and Georgia Thomas. A special prize of a Red Hat pin was awarded to Elaine King. Congratulations to all of you.

We want to thank the staff of Papa T's for their fine service and food but most of all, thank you to our co-hostesses, Harriet and Mary Jo. You really outdid yourselves and we want you to know how much you are appreciated.

Citizen Advisory Panel about Chronic Wasting Disease

Montana Fish, Wildlife and Parks (FWP) is seeking 6 - 12 people to serve on a Citizen Advisory Panel about Chronic Wasting Disease (CWD) in Montana. The panel will lend a citizen's perspective to FWP in reviewing the science and management of CWD, predicting and anticipating public sentiment, and how to inform the public about potential CWD-oriented management actions. The panel will also review and assess FWP's current CWD plan. This citizen panel needs to be diverse and ideally will have people from across the state and include wildlife and livestock perspectives, scientific and recreation interests, commerce and tourism, and local and state government representation. FWP staff will participate in but not formally sit on the citizen panel. Meetings will be facilitated and be advertised and open to the public with opportunity for public comment.

To learn more or apply visit:
