UMW mens basketball recap

By Eric Montgomery, NAIA Media Coordinator

KANSAS CITY, Mo. – No. 1-seeded Dalton State (Ga.) controlled play in the paint and claimed a 79-60 win in the second round of the 2017 Buffalo Funds-NAIA Division I Men's Basketball National Championship at Municipal Auditorium in Kansas City, Mo. The Roadrunners advance to the quarterfinal round and will play third-seeded Texas Wesleyan, a 77-75 winner over The Master's (Calif.), on Saturday, March 18 at 7:30 p.m., CST.

Reed Dungan led all scorers with 19 points for Dalton State, while Carnilious Simmons posted 17 points and a game-best 19 rebounds. Sayvon Wilson chipped in with 16 points and nine rebounds, and Isaiah Box tallied 11 points and six rebounds.

"I thought the difference in the game was the kids were willing to do what needed to be done to win the game," said Dalton State head coach Tony Ingle. "We ran a 1-3-1 half-court defense the majority of the night. We've maybe ran that defense two minutes total in four years. It was the best defense we needed to win the game."

Dalton State (29-4) dominated play inside on both ends of the floor, posting a 52-30 rebounding advantage that included a 16-6 discrepancy on the offensive end. The Roadrunners turned those rebounds into 17 second chance points, contributing to a total of 50 points in the paint to 28 for the Bulldogs.

The Roadrunners led nearly wire to wire, falling behind by just a single point on two occasions in the opening minutes of the game. Wilson erased the last of the two deficits with six points of an 8-0 spurt that pushed Dalton State in front, 21-14, at the 10:46 mark of the first half.

The closest Montana Western edged toward the lead came late in the first half when Chase Haack hit a three-pointer, followed by buckets from Shyke Smalls and Kooper Kidgell to tie the game at 31-31. However, Dalton State answered with nine-straight points to finish the half, the last five coming from Dungan.

Defense was the catalyst in the second half for the Roadrunners, holding the Bulldogs to 9 of 31 (.290) shooting that included a 14.3 percent mark (2 of 14) from three-point range. Though both teams recorded just seven turnovers apiece, Montana Western finished the game 4 of 27 (.148) from beyond the arc.

"You can't win if you don't rebound," said Montana Western head coach Steve Keller. "We didn't make enough shots and they outworked us. We still had a great season and I didn't expect this team to go 25-8."

Smalls paced Montana Western with 12 points, while Kidgell, Haack and Marcus Payne each finished with 10 points. Dom Robinson chipped in with eight points and four assists, while Zaccheus Darko-Kelly led the effort on the glass with six rebounds.

Game Notes:

Montana Western – With the loss, the Bulldogs of Montana Western now fall to 8-14 all-time in the national championship after completing their 14th appearance in program history … Last season, Montana Western was knocked out in the first round to William Penn (Iowa) … Out of the Frontier Conference, the Bulldogs rank No. 4 in the NAIA in scoring offense per game (88.2) and No. 5 in total scoring (2,823) … The 60 points scored tonight were well-below their season average … Four Bulldogs earned double-digits led by Shyke Smalls with a team-high 12 points … The Bulldogs were held to just 14 percent from the 3-point line while only connecting on four.

Fabrics and Detergents." And in third place was Tynan Ostler, with his project, "Your Favorite Fabrics: Do they keep you warm?"

The Grand Champion winner in the 8th grade was Haley Thomas. Her project was: "Do Different Environmental Conditions Effect Macroinvertebrate Populations Sampled from Mud and Gravel Substrates in Streams in Southwest Montana?"

In our relay for life fundraiser campaign to end cancer, we have several fund raising opportunities this week: tomorrow, Tuesday, March 21st, 8th graders will have the chance to smash out cancer, by paying a buck to play dodgeball 8th period. Then on Wednesday, March 22nd, students will have an opportunity to "Put a Cap on Cancer" by paying $1 to wear their hat to school. Next, on Thursday, March 23rd, sixth graders will be able to participate in the cake walk to raise money to fight cancer. Also, in each 8th period class, students are competing to see who can raise the most money to fight cancer. The class with the most money raised will get a pizza party at the end of the competition. So, students please take advantage of this very worthy cause.

The DMS Academic Olympics Teams competed in Bozeman Tuesday, March 14. Over 40 teams competed in this event. Our B team of Anisley Shipman, Maddy Shipman, Evey Hansen, Michael Hutchinson, Eli Sherwood, and Tynan Ostler won sixth place overall. There were also some individual awards for the written test which is taken by every competitor at the competition. Of all seventh graders taking the test, Daniel Martin took first place on the written exam. Chaidh Lochridge placed fourth followed by Sam Jones in fifth for eighth graders taking the test. Dillon should be very proud of the way all these students represented Dillon Middle School and our community. Congratulations to you all. And thank you, Mrs. Waldorf for all of your hard work with our students.

Last week, the DMS students were treated to a speech and drama assembly. Some of the top Speech and Drama students from BCHS came and performed their pieces for the middle school students. Thank you to to the following BCHS students: Ray Shipman, Heidi Martin, Maggie McGee, and Sarah Griffin.

Our lunchtime dodgeball competition was very exciting when the team of Jon Kirkley, Anthony Macias, Casten Lemelin, William Webster, Callahan Hoffman, and Holter Santos defeated the team of Jace Fitzgerald, Cole Truman, Cole Pulliam, Daxon Graham, Michael Hupp, and Jonny Reiser in the championship. What a fun game to watch. Thank you Mr. Williams.

Track and field starts Monday, March 27th after school for 7th and 8th graders. Tuesday, March 28th, at 5:00 pm, in the DMS gym, there will be a mandatory parent meeting for all track participants and their parents. Please do not miss this important meeting.

Beaver Head Hunters Genealogical Society

The March meeting of the Beaver Head Hunters Genealogical Society will be Tuesday, 21 March, at 7:00 pm in the Museum research room.

Some of us are getting older and don't want all of our hard work through the years being thrown out by our children. Who might be interested in our research? After our brief business meeting, we will be discussing our genealogy records and "What to do when the kids don't want it."

As always, the public is invited. If there are any questions, contact Dorothy at 660-0414.

Dillon Walking School Bus ...

The Walking School Bus is gearing up to walk with students again this spring. We will be having a volunteer luncheon on Tuesday, March 21st at noon in the breakroom of the Courthouse to finalize our schedules. If anyone would like to volunteer to walk with the kids and would like to join us for lunch, please let us know by Monday, March 20th. We walk on Monday, Wednesday and Friday mornings, and are in desperate need of additional help. Please contact Jaime Flynn at 683-3780 or Shannon McWilliams at 683-3785.
