McKinizzy Ray-Ann Hayden

An angel wrote down my Baby's birth in the Book of Life and whispered as she closed the Book ...

Too Beautiful for this earth!

McKinizzy Ray-Ann Hayden was born at 7:46am on February 23, 2017. She weighed 11 oz and was 23 cm long. She graced us with her sweet presence for short amount of time passing away at 7:32 pm in mommy's and daddy's arms. Our little angel gave us just moments of her life that we will carry with us forever.

McKinizzy was proceeded in death by Paul Timothy Jones (Grandpa), Troy M McClain (Cousin), Lindsay Karr (Aunt), Glen Hayden (Grandfather), Floyd "Pinky" Wheeler (Uncle) and Robert Wheeler (Cousin).

She was survived by Megan and Leonard Hayden (Mom and Dad), Kimberlee Jones (Grandma), Albert Hayden (Grandpa), Nancy Korrell, (Grandma), and numerous Aunts, Uncles and Cousins.

Services will be held Saturday April 8,2017 at Brundage Funeral Home at 3:00 pm. Graveside Services immediately afterwards at Mountain View Cemetery.

Reception will be held at the LDS Church for friends and family following Services.

Most people only dream of ANGELS, I got to hold one in my arms and FOREVER in MY HEART! ! !

• It's Flamingo Flocking time again!! Various Flocking packages available from now through April (including Insurance against flocking). Some history about April, Sexual Assault Awareness Month (SAAM)

• In the late 1970s, women in England held protests against the violence they encountered as they walked the streets at night. They called them Take Back the Night marches. Word spread to other countries as the protests grew. In 1978, San Francisco and New York City held the first Take Back the Night events in the U.S. Over time, sexual assault awareness activities grew to include the issues of sexual violence against men and men's roles in ending sexual violence.

Letter to the Editor

You may be wondering why, when you watch local TV news, you're seeing so many ads attacking Rob Quist, who is running to fill the congressional seat vacated by Ryan Zinke. These ads aren't cheap, but that's not a problem for the group that created and is paying for them. This group, the Congressional Leadership Fund, has committed around $700,000 to defeating Quist and promoting his opponent, billionaire Greg Gianforte.

Bankrolled by a handful of Gianforte's fellow billionaires, the Congressional Leadership Fund is committed to getting more Republicans elected to congress to advance the Trump agenda (e.g. reversing clean-air and clean-water regulations, cutting social security benefits and raising the age of retirement, increasing the American military presence abroad, privatizing public schools, and of course cutting taxes on the wealthy).

So please keep this in mind the next time you see one of those slick anti-Quist TV ads. It's part of the $700,000 being spent to destroy Rob Quist.

Thursday Night Live

The Southwest Montana Arts Council and Beaverhead Brewing Company are excited to announce the lineup for 2017's Thursday Night Live. There will be free, live music every Thursday in April at Beaverhead Brewing Company from 6-8 p.m. A percentage of the beer sales will be donated to SMAC to help support all of the free arts programming they provide, such as Dinner in the Park, Youth Art Workshops & Projects, School Outreach Art Residencies and bi-annual Art Walks in lovely downtown Dillon.

This year's lineup is:

April 6 – Russ Chapman. Russ combines a keen sense of wit and medicine show sensibility to play his early swing, pre-war blues and New Orleans swamp music.

April 13 – Ken Waldman. Ken is a fiddling poet troubadour from Alaska. He'll be conducting a school residency while he's in town in addition to entertaining us with his Appalachian-style old-timey music. Sponsored by Judy Siring – Farmers Union Insurance

April 20 – Andrea Harsell. Andrea's full throttle voice and rocking guitar fills a room with her American roots and blues music. Andrea will also conduct a songwriting workshop for ages 12 and up from 4-5 p.m. Location TBA.

April 27 – Community Showcase. This evening is a chance for our local amateur musicians to show off their chops. Any interested musicians should contact SMAC or Graham at the brewery. Sponsored by Stockman Bank.

For more information, contact SMAC at 683-6208 or SMACarts@gmail.com.

VFW Take Part in the "Buddy Poppy" program

"In Flanders Fields
The Poppies Blow .."

These opening words of Col. John McCrae's immortal poem are known to every child in the United States. Dedicated to the memory of the men who fought and died in France during World War I, the Poppies of which he wrote have become the true symbol of all those who have given their lives in our nation's wars.

The United States entered World War I in April 1917. Over 4.7 million men and women served in the regular U.S. forces, national guard units, and draft units. There were 53,402 killed in action, 63,114 deaths from disease and other causes, and about 205,000 wounded.

The red poppy is an internationally recognized symbol of veteran sacrifice and since 1922 the VFW has honored the memory of veterans who paid the ultimate price for our freedom with the VFW "Buddy Poppy".

In support of the Buddy Poppy program, the VFW is joining the U.S. World War I Centennial Commission in announcing the launch of a great new grassroots awareness and fundraising program, called the WWI Poppy Program. The goal is to spark awareness and conversation about the WWI Centennial as it honors the legacy of the 4.7 million American veterans and the sacrifices made by those served during WWI.

The Poppy seeds are being sold to raise funds for charitable programs on behalf of the needy and disabled Veterans, and the Widow and Orphans of deceased Veterans.

The seeds are available from Womack's Printing, 126 N Montana St, the 3D Store 130 S Montana St, VFW members or by calling PJ 683-3590. They are $3 each or 4 packs for $10.00.
