YBGR Expands Foster Care in Montana

Yellowstone Boys and Girls Ranch (YBGR) is expanding its services to children and families in Montana. Their Community Based Services (CBS) Therapeutic Foster Care (TFC) program is expanding from locations in and around Billings and Livingston, Mont., to also include Dillon and surrounding area.

Siblings hug their foster mother at YBGR's 2016 Christmas party for Therapeutic Foster Care families.

"We're at the point where we want to grow the program," said Charise Lemelin, YBGR's CBS Clinical Director.

Lemelin said that she has a dream to acquire 15-20 foster care placements in the Dillon area. Funding for the program would create two new positions – a family resource specialist and a treatment manager.

"When you hear times of children in crisis having to sleep overnight in their social workers' offices and in shelter care settings, or that current foster families are having to accept more kids into their homes than the recommended amount to keep kids safe, it speaks volumes to the need and crisis in this state," said Kim Chouinard, YBGR's Executive Director of CBS.

"If we have families ready to license, we can get started with families right now," Lemelin said. "A piece of it, too, is having respite care available so that when foster families get stressed out or just need a weekend, it's there for them."

The organization serves 23 families between the Billings and Livingston locations and works with Child Bridge on programs which assist with TFC families.

"Part of this initiative is to create more placements in Livingston as well," Lemelin said. "We know there is a need in Montana and we want to do our best to fill it."

The first foster parent informational meeting will be held

Dillon History:

By: MJ

1907: Before the city council came a proposition concerning the remains of thirteen bodies that had been unearthed on Montana Street near the Creamery just outside the city limits. The bones were gathered and interned in Mountain View Cemetery. A dispute came about between county and city because the city said it was up to the county to pay the expenses for burial and the County Attorney (Melton) said, "If the city goes outside its limits and digs up something that does not belong to it, it is the city's funeral."

1950: Elsie Cornell (Craig's grandmother) bowled a 199, 198 and 176. Lou Rocheleu was basketball coach with stars of the team Ed Thompson and Floyd Vandergrift.

1962: Frank Hazelbaker was elected speaker of the House of Representatives. Dillon became the 26th high school to adopt a wrestling program and the Club Bar held its annual free smorgasbord.

Receiving golds were: Malcom Peterson who explored which type of manure produces the most methane and Haley Thomas. Her project was: "Do Different Environmental Conditions Effect Macroinvertebrate Populations Sampled from Mud and Gravel Substrates in Streams in Southwest Montana?"

The reading strategies classes just completed their cupcake wars. In fifth period finishing third was Trace Gardner, and Forrest Wagoner in second. First place went to Tristen Setzer with his chocolate cupcake with a Reese's peanut butter cup bottom and peanut butter topping with miniature Reese's cups on top. In the 7th period class Riley Hall was third and Taylor Wright was second. Finishing first was Haley Thomas with her coffee cupcake with chocolate crumbles and a white chocolate strawberry on top that looked like a carrot emerging from the "soil." Congratulations to our cupcake wars winners.

Congratulations to Daniel Martin for placing 11th in the State Geography Bee.

Our last big event in our spring fund raising event will be this Thursday, April 13th. Students have been buying chances to throw a pie in the face of one of our staff members. They will have their opportunity in our "Smuck For a Buck" activity. Students, continue to buy your luminarias and bring your donations to 8th period for your class competition. This is the last week.

This week in Smarter Balance Testing, students will test in their math classes. Please come well rested and ready to go.
