DEATH NOTICE

Dr. Dan Dennis passed away April, 15th 2017 in Portland, Oregon. He graduated from BCHS in 1950.

Denim Day

The Women's Resource Center is hosting a Denim Day in collaboration with the University of Montana Western Rape Prevention Task Force this year in Dillon.

History of Denim Day

For the past 18 years, Peace Over Violence has run its Denim Day campaign on a Wednesday in April in honor of Sexual Violence Awareness Month. The campaign was originally triggered by a ruling by the Italian Supreme Court where a rape conviction was overturned because the justices felt that since the victim was wearing tight jeans she must have helped her rapist remove her jeans, thereby implying consent. The following day, the women in the Italian Parliament came to work wearing jeans in solidarity with the victim. Peace Over Violence developed the Denim Day campaign in response to this case and the activism surrounding it. Since then, wearing jeans on Denim Day has become a symbol of protest against erroneous and destructive attitudes about sexual assault. As a part of this rape prevention education campaign we ask community members, elected officials, businesses, and students to make a social statement by wearing jeans on this day as a visible means of protest against the misconceptions that surround sexual assault.

Denim Day Event in Dillon

Wear jeans with a purpose on April 26th, 2017 for National Denim Day. The Women's Resource Center in collaboration with the University of Montana Western Rape Prevention Task Force is bringing Denim day to the Dillon Community. Your business or organization can support the effort of the Women's Resource Center by encouraging your employees to wear denim on Wednesday, April 26, 2017 for a small suggested donation of $5. Additionally, your business can go the extra mile by matching your employee's donation, therefore, doubling your impact. Please contact Valerie for more information at 406-683-6106

Older People and Old Barn Similarities

By: MJ

Many barns age gracefully with color fade, slight lean, broken strut or two... The aging process for both humans and barns seem to parallel each other. We see beauty when the sun shines through the cracks, when the wood fades in color, structure leans... It is a little harder to see that beauty when the wrinkles cause crevices, sagging becomes apparent, bags store water under the eyes, dark spot show up…

A building starts out a new modern architectural beauty and then moves into a period where it is recognized as a building that has historical value and the next step is a building that can be used to enhance a new modern piece of architecture. This might be where humans and barns lose their similarity during aging process.

Humans to venture through many summers and winters and have weathered. You might be able to see our passed life via our skin colors that have faded, wrinkles that have showed up, hair that has taken on a silver/white hue, the lean we display or the hobble action that has become a way of walking.

Ageing requires us to continually meet new challenges. Question: Why does our society see age as a way of dismissing people instead of embracing them? A lose lose for both the young and the timeworn. Is it because age has taken away the instant attraction and gratification and placed it deeper into the soul? Is it because we don't want to take the time to look for the concealed beauty?

Yes, it is true as we age we lose some of our vim and vigor. I am one of those dreamers that believes when we lose one thing we gain another. Life has taught us that it is okay to slow down and smell the roses, to be appreciative, diplomatic, tactful and accept all the rest that goes with aging.

Fight Childhood Hunger Week

By Tessa Sawyer

Before my project, I knew little about hunger in Montana. After I was chosen as a member of the Governor and First Lady Youth Leadership Council, I began to research and plan my project. I was shocked by the true nature of hunger. The problem of hunger in our state and nation is very real and frightening beyond belief. One in five kids in Montana suffers from food insecurity. Should a child have to worry about where they will get their next meal?

I began planning my project in December 2016. I decided that my project needed to be sustainable and impactful over a long period of time. What better way to make a difference than to provide students with the nutritious food they need to grow and learn? I decided to create a food pantry on the BCHS campus. My first step was to assess the need. I created and conducted a survey at the school. The results revealed that more than 20 students were experiencing food insecurity every day.

Over the next five months, I spent every spare second I had gathering supplies, researching hunger, and contacting organizations in my community and around the state. I wrote a detailed handbook of pantry operating procedures and created supplemental forms.

The pantry's initial goal was simple: feed kids. But as I researched, I learned that providing children with the proper nutrition creates a ripple effect. Feeding a child allows them to learn, perform well in school, and ultimately, to give back to their communities. By investing in students, we are creating a change that will expound far beyond one child.

This week (April 18th-April 21st) I am hosting a school-wide food drive to stock the shelves of the brand new Beaverhead County High School Food Pantry!!! Community member can drop of monetary or food donations in the BCHS Office. Below is a list of food items that are needed for the pantry. Thank you for all of your support!!

School Pantry Items List

- Peanut butter
- Jerky/ Meat sticks
- Dry soup mixes, Top ramen
- Macaroni & cheese, other box dinners

Legislative Report for the Week of Monday, April 17, 2017

by Rep Tom Welch

Both bodies of the Montana Legislature will return to work on Tuesday, April 18th which will be Legislative day 80 following an Easter break. This week or next will likely see the final days of this session.

To date, 1184 Bills in total have been introduced with 709 Bills including House Joint and House Resolutions having been introduced in the House and the remaining 475 Bills and Resolutions originating in the Senate. The Governor has signed 136 House Bills and 61 Senate Bills with a number of Bills still working their way thru various stages of the Legislative process.

I have been asked to discuss the concept of 'blast motions' and 'reconsider motions' as used in the House. Generally, the 'blast motion' deals with a Bill still in Committee and the 'reconsider motion' involves a Bill or action already on the House floor

First, understand that each body of the Legislature establishes their own floor and Committee rules the first days of each Session under which they are going to operate—House and Senate rules may vary in some cases but likely be the same in some cases as well. With respect to the House, in its simplest form, a member may request via motion a 'blast motion' wherein the full House is asked to vote whether to remove a tabled Bill from Committee and bring it to the floor on a future Legislative Day for full House consideration. Two members maximum are allowed to speak on each side of the issue/Bill and then the House votes not on the Bill itself but whether to allow the tabled Bill to be brought forth for consideration by the entire House. Remember that these are Bills that the Committee has not passed out or thus tabled. Usually a majority or 50 votes is needed but there are instances depending on the Committee action on the Bill, when 60 votes are needed. Other rules also often come into play.

Blast motions are rarely successful--I do not recall one successful attempt year to date in this year's House. The primary reason for this is that House members respect the work of the various Committees that hear and vet Bills in a full hearing before making their decision on the Bill. For example, I know of a Bill in one of the Committees on which I sit, where we spent in excess of 12 hours over 3 days vetting a Bill before taking action. I have also seen legislators return from Committee meetings deeply touched by the actions –pro or con-- they took in Committee. Committee work is often long and very difficult but it is an important part of the Legislative process and one that is respected by Legislators. Often Legislators will bring forth a 'blast motion' knowing full well that they do not have the votes to be successful but they simply wanted someone to know that they had tried all means possible to get a particular Bill to the House floor.

I have been asked a handful of times about why I voted a certain way on a Bill when in reality I have never voted on the Bill itself but rather on a 'blast motion' related to the Bill. I hope this brief discussion helps somewhat.

Not to confuse the matter, but we also have the occasional 'reconsider motion' on the House floor. This action involves whether to reconsider an action, usually a vote, taken on the House floor on a particular Bill. Usually this happens when a Bill is voted down in a close vote and the Bill sponsor or other House member will request a 'reconsider vote' in hopes that they can gain the necessary votes over the next day or two to successfully pass the Bill. A simple majority vote is needed for a successful 'reconsider vote'. A few 'reconsider motions' have been successful on the House floor with the following actual action on the Bill itself being a mixed bag.

As has been widely reported, the 65th Legislature is winding down with infrastructure and a finalized budget being the key focal points yet to be resolved. In recent days, the so called Gas Tax Bill (HB473) in an amended form passed the Senate and returns this week to the House for concurrence, the Cigarette Tax (SB 354) was tabled in Committee and HB 333, the Bill providing the framework for the Medical Marijuana operations in Montana resulting from voter passage of I-184 has seen over 30 amendments added to the Bill thus far.

Hope everyone is enjoying the moisture! Have a safe and enjoyable week
