National Poetry Month

The Southwest Montana Arts Council is celebrating National Poetry Month with a Spoken Word Festival on Friday, April 28, at 7 p.m. at BCHS Auditorium. The event will feature several local authors and word lovers. A portion of the proceeds for this event will benefit the Friends of the Dillon Public Library. Tickets are available for $10 for adults and $5 for kids at Wildwood Floral and SMACarts.org. Tickets at the door are $12 and $6. UMW students may attend for free with a current ID.

The performers are local poet Alan Weltzien, The Bookstore owner Debbie Sporich, local author Shane Borrowman, cowboy poet Rick Kuntz, cowgirl poet Denise McRea and library director Marie Habener, who will also be celebrating her last day as the director of the Dillon Public Library. Iraqi poet Saif Alsaegh, who is working on his MFA at the University of Montana, will also read his poetry at the event, as well as providing workshops at Dillon Middle School earlier in the day. The evening will conclude with a performance by spoken word artist Tahj Kjelland. The event will be emceed by SMAC president Laura Straus.

"We are very excited to present this event," said SMAC executive director Mandy Maass. "It's a great format to celebrate poetry and words, as well as some of the amazing talent we have in Dillon right next to a poet from the other side of the world in the work of Saif Alsaegh. I think our community will also enjoy the spoken word performance of Tahj Kjelland, which is a type of performance we don't get in Dillon often."

This event is proudly sponsored by Pioneer Federal, Mandy Maass & Jason Strahl, Laura & Neal Straus, Dillon Tribune, Michael Mhoon, Steve Armiger and Humanities Montana. A special thank you to the Dennis & Phyllis Washington Foundation for providing funds to hold poetry workshops at Beaverhead County schools in February, March and April.

Senator Jeff Welborn's Weekly Report

Helena:

Last Wednesday and Thursday in The Senate Fish & Game committee, we held confirmation hearings for Martha Williams, Governor Bullock's pick to lead as Director of Fish, Wildlife & Parks. Ms. Williams brings a very impressive resume, one of both academic and professional experience. She most recently served as associate professor of law at University of Montana. Williams has spent her career learning and teaching about fish, wildlife, parks, natural resources and conservation. Before coming to UM, she served as the deputy solicitor for parks and wildlife at the U.S. Department of Interior, where she oversaw legal issues and litigation for the National Park Service and the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service. In addition, Williams served as legal counsel for the Montana Department of Fish Wildlife and Parks from 1998 to 2001. Ms. Williams had a base of support both in our committee and from letters and phone calls I've received from ranchers, former legislators, both Republicans and Democrats, wildlife and land managers, leading private property rights attorneys, top shelf agriculture organizations, hunters, anglers, and most importantly from her young son. We on the committee recommended her appointment, and her confirmation was approved by the full Senate before we left for Easter break. I feel Ms. Williams has what it will take to make necessary policy, and personnel changes at the highest levels within the Department. I look forward to working with her on behalf of all Montanans.

Shifting gears:

Buyers of new luxury cars and recreational vehicles registered in Montana would face a new annual tax of at least $1,500 if their vehicles are worth at least $150,000, under a bill endorsed by us on the Senate Finance committee on Wednesday, our committee voted to levy a new 1 percent surtax on new vehicles and RVs with manufacturers' suggested retail prices of more than $150,000. The tax would drop to 0.9 percent when vehicles are 1 year old, to 0.8 percent if they are 2 years old. I voted against this measure, as I feel it will only drive business away from Montana, and ultimately not back fill this current hole in the infrastructure budget due to even less fees potential being collected.

Dubbed by some legislators as the "Ferrari tax," the new tax would be on top of the current annual licensing fees already paid by owners of these vehicles under current law.

I feel we should take a more holistic approach to revenue shortfalls, this is a bandaid, that may not stop the proverbial bleeding, but actually make it worse.

One final thought for this week;

We are looking at a proposal to create a new system allowing the state to react more quickly when it faces a shortfall in revenue. Over the last two years, state revenues fell more than $236 million below what the 2015 Legislature expected, according to a report from nonpartisan researchers in the state Capitol.

Currently, when the state's General Fund falls below 5 percent of total general fund budget, the governor must call legislators back into a special session.

Our Republican plan would put in place more sensitive triggers protecting the state from sliding into that type of budget crisis in the future.

The concept would be similar to if you had a good paying job and suddenly, found that for the next few months your salary cut drastically. It encourages you react quickly, cutting spending, even if you already had the money budgeted. I feel this would put in place a more responsible approach, than our current law provides. This will be in the Governor's hands soon, we'll see if he agrees. Have a great week.

Pickleball Popular Life Sport

Pickleball is becoming a popular life sport for all ages and skill levels. Many people have heard "pickleball" but are not familiar with the game It combines many elements of tennis, badminton and ping-pong. A badminton-sized court similar to a tennis court is needed. Pickleball is played with a paddle and a plastic ball with holes and can be played as doubles or singles. It can be played as a leisurely fun game or competitively.

Pickleball is being introduced to kids in teenagers in physical education classes in middle and high schools. According to the Sports & Fitness Industry Association's (SFIA) 2016 Participant Report, there are more than 2.5 million pickleball participants in the United States.

If you are interested in learning to play, playing, and/or seeing some courts provided in Dillon, please call Gayle Begin at 683-3464.

Controlling People

By: MJ

Sometimes people who really want us to fulfill our own dream are deceiving us. It's really their dream they want to achieve. This type person is referred to often as a "controlling person." Relationships with a person like this generally will go well when others live life their way. Parents sometimes live their dreams out through their children. Example: Maybe the parent always wanted to be a great basketball player so they push their child into playing basketball even though the child has no talent or likes for the game. A husband might not want to have his wife join the work force because it would interfere with the comforts for him provided by the wife being home or a wife might not want a husband to retire because he would be around the house in her world.

NOTE: A person serving on a committee or working with a group of people might not want to compromise because in their eyes it is extremity important to the cause for them to remain steadfast, when in reality they are not providing the cause any benefits but are controlling others for their own end.

Often when you find yourself in one of these position and you decide to peel off and follow your own star or change the situation, often the controller will become a very unhappy person (toxic).

Relationships and interaction with others provides support and is important in our lives if it goes both ways. When there is no compromise, no communication then it might be time to find ways to change the situation or walk away.

DILLON DOWNTOWN BUILDING OWNERS

Editors Thought

The City Council will hold a hearing TONIGHT at 6:30 p.m. in the Council Chambers, for the purpose of taking public comment on the resolution of intent to adopt emergency ordinance removing off street parking requirements in Dillon Municipal Code, Title 17, Zoning for Central Business District (C-3 Zone).

The businesses down town must have off-street parking that we can not get unless we take down more buildings. We are grand-fathered in unless the business changes. If there is something new they must meet this parking requirement or pay $300 fee to apply of an adjustment. Is this another fund raising idea or hindrance to promote business from the zoning committee? Go to the meeting now, get the check book out later or take down historic buildings in the future.
