MONTANA WESTERN UNVEILS NEW BULLDOG MASCOT DURING ALUMNI WEEKEND

After an extensive branding and design exercise, the University of Montana Western will reveal a new Bulldog mascot at Alumni Weekend activities, April 21 and 22, 2017, Russ Richardson, university athletic director, announced today.

Richardson said a committee, which included representation from campus constituencies and members of the community, began work in October 2016. "We reviewed mascots from competitive universities, identified visual trends and considered the elements that we wanted our new bulldog to reflect."

The result was a creative brief that guided design Richardson said. Through a series of exercises the group identified a list of attributes that they felt the new mascot needed to reflect including:

- Focused/determined.
- Intense.
- Fearless.
- Proud.
- Distinct/unique.
- Engaging.
- Memorable.

"We are excited to share the results of this branding process," Montana Western Chancellor Beth Weatherby said. "The committee worked hard to create an updated and unique symbol based on a well thought-out strategy."

Richardson said the group also felt a new mascot needed to differentiate Montana Western from other universities using bulldogs (the third most popular symbol in intercollegiate athletics).

"Creating something that did not copy existing bulldog mascots was no easy task. We knew, though, that we wanted something that reflected current design trends, was not dated and avoided a 'cartoonish' look," Richardson said

The new mascot branding system includes three versions of the bulldog in addition to an individualized typeface. University word marks include "Montana Western," "UMW," "Bulldogs" and "Dawgs."

Beginning April 21, the new mascot will appear in applications across the campus and throughout the community. Posters, banners, window decals, apparel, pennants, car stickers and are a few of the items planned for the mascot launch, Richardson said.

In addition, the university will be launching a new athletics website at umwbulldogs.com.

Richardson said the new website was developed in partnership with Sidearm Sports and will provide an enhanced user experience with up-to-the-minute information and athlete profiles to help fans keep up with and support university teams.

Local author, Myrna Shafer Carpita will be the featured author at The Bookstore during the spring art walk sponsored by The Southwestern Montana Arts Council.

Maggie, From Indiana to Montana,
by Myrna Shafer Carpita

Maggie (Halbert) Hand was born in 1869 in Southern Indiana. In 1936, at Lavon, Montana, she started writing her story. Maggie left her family and future generations a very wonderful legacy in her writings. She saw, she listened, she remembered, and most importantly, she wrote.

Maggie did and saw many things in her 79 years of life. She, as a child, and throughout her life, heard family stories, observed life's comings and goings and experienced history in the making the same as we all do. She saw vast changes in our society, experienced the building of the frontier, from Indiana to Kansas and on to Montana in 1892, as "the new school teacher at Dewey, Montana", and lived through the many changes in technology and life. She understood that things would not remain the same and the old ways and times needed to be remembered. She then wrote of life as experienced by her and viewed from a woman's perspective.

Maggie's story is further enhanced by news articles, her children's writings, photos, antidotes and poems from her scrapbooks.

About the Author

The great granddaughter of Maggie (Halbert) Hand, the author, Myrna (Shafer) Carpita, was two years old when Maggie passed away. Although she does not remember her great grandmother she connected with Maggie through her writings. Myrna noted that "transcribing Maggie's 800 hand written pages was like having a wonderful visit with her."

Born into a mining and ranching family that lived in the small town of Argenta, Montana, as a child she was raised by her parents with grandparents, aunts, uncles and cousins living nearby. As such there were multitudes of stories about everyday happenings, and stories about the past. She took an early interest in the story telling around her particularly those of her grandfather, John, Maggie's oldest child. He spoke of the past and the people in his life as a young man. She listened and tried to understand all that he told her. With Maggie's writings there came a clarity to John's stories and a deeper understanding of family and area histories.

The author has lived in various parts of the United States, including near where Maggie was born. As a result of living in the Illinois and Indiana area she came to understand the area dialects the upshot of which was being able to recognize the Midwest dialect in Maggie's writings and spellings.

As the clan historian she has been given extensive family records allowing her to conduct genealogy research, interviews and family and area history exploration. She has published family genealogy books on several family lines and has other extensive family and historical records.

Myrna and her husband Jim returned to Montana in 2002 and now lives on part of what was the John and Ida Hand ranch at Argenta.

Meet the author, Friday, April 21st, 5:00-7:00 at Bookstore. Please call 683-6807 if you have questions or would like reserve an autographed copy of Maggie.

From now through Thursday, April 27, they are offering a special "bag" price. Any items valued under $2 that you can fit into a bag (provided by the store) will cost only $3.

The Store will be closed on Friday, April 28, as the volunteers get items ready for the Spaghetti Dinner fund raiser that night and on Saturday, April 29 as they rearrange the store following the auction. The store will reopen on Tuesday, May 2.

Worn Wear Evening

The Patagonia Outlet will be hosting a Worn Wear Evening on April 20th, 2017 at 6 - 8:30 pm. Bring in your broken Patagonia items and we will help fix them. Walk-in clinic

The BHH Walk-in clinic is one of Dillon's best values, available to provide convenient, quality care without an appointment Monday through Friday 7:30 AM to 4:00 PM. The clinic is located in the lower level of the Professional Services Building and offers on-site x-rays and blood draws as an additional convenience. The caring and dedicated family medicine doctors and providers who staff the clinic can expertly diagnose and treat conditions for all members of the family – babies through seniors. The clinic also offers immunizations as well as DOT and sports physicals.

The BHH Walk-In Clinic accepts all major insurance health plans, including Medicare. The Walk-in clinic is a convenient, cost effective alternative to the emergency room, with lower insurance co-pays.

Because the Walk-in clinic is part of the BHH family of services, patients can be assured that providers have access to their medical records, making the care safer and more effective for each individual. Although the Walk-in clinic doesn't take the place of that important relationship with your primary care provider, the BHH Walk-in clinic is a great value for those times when you need safe, quality, personal care without an appointment at a reasonable cost. 10,000+ satisfied patients over the past 3 years are a testament to this value.

For questions about the BHH Walk-in clinic please call 683-1113. CAUTION: The walk-in clinic is not intended to be a substitute for an emergency room. For potentially life-threatening emergencies (problems breathing, chest pain, sudden onset of pain, sudden change in mental status, etc.) dial 911 or go to the nearest emergency room.

Peep's Diorama Contest

Anyone who visits the Dillon Public Library before Friday April 21 to view the entries in the 2017 Peep's Diorama Contest is eligible to vote for the "Peeple's Choice Award." Other awards are for age categories, but the Peeple's Choice Award cuts across all boundaries to win not only the bragging rights for building what the public determines is the most clever and well executed Peeps diorama, but also a Peep Award Plaque.

All winners in this contest will be announced on Monday, April 21st, and prizes may be picked up at the Library beginning that day. We are asking all contestants to leave their dioramas on display through Friday, April 28. So, if you don't get a chance to get to the Library before this Friday to view the dioramas and vote for your Peeple's Choice Award favorite, you will have time to at least view the dioramas the following week. There are a total of 17 dioramas on display at the Library, with several individual entries from 5 year-olds, and a group entry from 5 year olds also.

Everyone who entered this year's contest worked hard on their diorama entries. It would be a shame for you to miss out on seeing the work of our community's many clever and industrious diorama builders!

BEAVERHEAD COUNTY MUSEUM BOARD OF TRUSTEES

REGULAR MONTHLY MEETING
April 20, 2017 Research Room 7:00 p.m.

BEAVERS SOFTBALL SLUGFEST

The lady Beavs lost a heartbreaker, slugfest to Park 9-10. Each team racked up 10 hits. Dillon fought back after a 7-0 deficit when their bats finally came to life, and the game was knotted up 8-8 going into the 7th. But, Park was able to score 2 and the Lady Beavs only one when the tying run was called out on an obstruction on her way to 3rd. Bailey Berriochoa threw 5.2 innings, allowing 5 runs on 6 hits, fanning 3, and walking 4. She is throwing really well for us right now, and we tell her to be a ball hog on the mound. It is so nice to have the ball in Bailey's hands as much as possible as her softball instinct is unrivaled.

Erica Rude lead the team on offense going 3 for 4 with a double, a homerun and 5 RBI's. Rude is currently leading the team with 10 RBI's, and has a .895 slugging percentage. Adrianna Pittman went 2 for 3, Scout Voss went 1 for 3 and hit the 2-run homer which tied up the game in the bottom of the 6th. And, Abbi Olsen went 2 for 4 with a double and 2 RBI's.

I am proud of the way the girls fought back, and I am hoping that they can start the game versus Butte Central on Thursday the way they finished the game against Park tonight. We just need to stay hot!
