Montana Nonprofit is Consulted for National Juvenile Justice Policy Recommendations

Yellowstone Boys and Girls Ranch (YBGR) has been asked for advice on national policy regarding juvenile justice. Regularly, the Federal Advisory Committee on Juvenile Justice (FACJJ) consults organizations such as YBGR and the National Center for Youth Law to compile research, findings, and guidance which are consolidated and reported to the Office of Juvenile Justice Delinquency Prevention, and subsequently the President of the United States and Congress.

"It's a great success for YBGR to be recognized as a national leader in the field of children's mental health and juvenile justice," said Mike Chavers, YBGR's CEO.

Through a phone conference on April 21, Chavers presented to the FACJJ about juvenile justice and child welfare, detailing his recommendations, based upon experience in the field and knowledge of the juvenile justice system. Chavers discussed his previous work in the state of Illinois, his implementation of youth and community engagement approaches and the current work of YBGR to implement a coordinated continuum of services to obtain sustainable positive outcomes for youth.

He discussed the importance of educational and vocational training for youth, which has shown to significantly improve long-term outcomes and mitigate the costs of incarceration or other forms of support or welfare. He also emphasized the implementation of collaborative trainings and education on an ongoing basis, and increased enumeration for direct-care staff who work with youth.

Chavers input was well-received by the advisors and law practitioners that make up the FACJJ. Additionally, he was asked to continue communication and feedback as they look to develop and advance juvenile justice approaches and strategies on a federal level.

More information of the FACJJ and their Annual Reports can be found at: <https://facjj.ojp.gov/annual-reports>.

Yellowstone Boys and Girls Ranch, a nonprofit organization marking its 60th year, is a national leader in mental health care for children and their families. YBGR has helped more than 10,000 individuals since 1957 through Residential Services and the Yellowstone Academy in Billings and Community Based Services throughout Montana, including centers in Billings, Dillon, Lewistown, and Livingston.

BOB HANSON TO BE HONORED AT MONTANA WESTERN'S COMMENCEMENT MAY 6

Bob Hanson, Montana Farm Bureau president, will receive the University of Montana Western distinguished service award at this year's commencement, Roxanne Engellant, director of alumni relations, announced today.

The university's 120th Annual Commencement is scheduled Saturday, May 6, 2017 at 11 a.m. in the Straugh Gymnasium on the Montana Western campus.

"Bob Hanson has been a lifelong proponent for Montana Western and our students. His service to his community and the university is unparalleled. We are very proud to honor Bob and his significant contribution to higher education," Engellant said.

She cited Hanson's many contributions to Western Montana College (now the University of Montana Western) including lobbying the Montana legislature when the college was threatened with closure; working closely with Montana regents to restore the previously canceled football program; supporting the rodeo program and Community Rodeo Banquet; and, most recently, assisting the university's Young Farmers Young Ranchers program providing financial support to help students attend their national convention.

Hanson has a long history with the Montana Farm Bureau serving in a number of capacities before being named president in 2008. He also serves on the national board of directors for the American Farm Bureau.

A 1970 graduate of Western Montana College (now the University of Montana Western) with a bachelor of science degree in physical science and chemistry, Hanson first taught school in Anchorage, Alaska where he also coached football, track and cross country skiing.

He returned to the family ranch in 1972 where he became active in the community, and with numerous county and state agricultural groups and organizations.

In addition to the Farm Bureau, Hanson is active in the Montana Stockgrower's Association, National Cattlemen's Beef Association and Society of Range Management.

He is the owner of the Montana Horse Company, his family ranch in White Sulphur Springs, Mont., which includes diversified horse, cattle, grain and timber operations.

Hanson and his wife Helen have two grown sons, Lon and Joe, and four grand children.

The Alumni Distinguished Service Award was first presented in 1979. Last year Montana Western honored Michael Schulz, director of the university's Lucy Carson Library.

This marks the 120th commencement for the historic university and represents the ninth year Montana Western has graduated students under

Thompson Park Opens May 1

Thompson Park will open Monday, May 1 for the summer and fall. The 3,500-acre park, managed by the Forest Service and City-County of Butte-Silver Bow, is open daily from 8 a.m. to 9 p.m. through Labor Day and then through October from 8 a.m. to 6 p.m.

The Park has four day-use picnic areas: Nine Mile, Sagebrush Flats, Lower Eagles Nest and Lions Den. Eagles Nest trailhead and Blacktail trailhead provide access to more than 25 miles of non-motorized trails. These trails offer hikers, mountain bikers, and horseback riders' connections to the Continental Divide National Scenic Trail and the Milwaukee Road Trail. Herman Gulch Trail provides a connection into the Highland Mountains area and other motorized trails.

Thompson Park also has a disc golf course in which members of the Mining City Disc Golf Club and an Eagle Scout candidate have been making improvements. The course is the only authorized disc golf course in the park and surrounding National Forest. Visitors are reminded that shooting is prohibited within the park boundary, and fires are only allowed in the developed site fire grills. For more information or to obtain a park brochure contact the Butte Ranger District at (406) 494-2147, or the Butte-Silver Bow Parks and Recreation Department at (406) 497-6535.

"COMMUNITY HEALTH FAIR AT HOSPITAL IS THIS SATURDAY, APRIL 29TH"

Join us for the 2017 Community Health Fair this Saturday, April 29th from 9:00 AM - 1:00 PM at Barrett Hospital & HealthCare. Many health-related vendors will be on site to share information and products related to the health of our community. This includes free hearing screenings, information about nutrition, information about colonoscopies, the Pink Heals program, and a prescription drug take-back event.

There will be complimentary breakfast and lunch, as well as opportunities to win cash prizes and great gift baskets! An air ambulance helicopter will be parked on the helipad to allow community members to get an up-close look and ask questions of the flight crew. There will be 4-H animals on site, as well as therapy dogs to give community members an idea of how animals can promote health.

Come out to the hospital on Saturday, April 29th for a lot of family fun! For more information about the Health Fair, please call Molly at 683-3233.
