MONTANA WESTERN TO AWARD 440 DEGREES AT SATURDAY COMMENCEMENT FEATURING SPEAKER JULIE CAJUNE

Nationally recognized Salish educator and University of Montana Western alumna Julie Cajune will be the featured speaker at the university's 120th Commencement, Saturday, May 8, 2017.

Chancellor Beth Weatherby said that university is fortunate to have such a distinguished educator and Montana Western alumna addressing graduates. "Julie has had a significant impact on American Indian education in a significant way. She will be an inspiration for our graduates. We are proud that one of our own is once again making a huge difference," Weatherby said.

Cajune is a member of the Confederated Salish and Kootenai Tribes of Montana. She holds a bachelor's in elementary education from Montana Western and a master's in bilingual education. Cajune was the first to teach the Salish language in the school system on Montana's Flathead Reservation.

She is also the executive director of the Center for American Indian Policy and Applied Research of the Heartlines Project. She was also profiled in UTNE Reader as one of "50 Visionaries Who Are Changing Your World."

Cajune is the executive producer for the "Heart of the Bitterroot" and has also produced and directed the film "Remembering the Songs." The projects were undertaken with the assistance of a generous grant awarded to her by the W.K. Kellogg Foundation.

Charity Walters, Montana Western registrar and director of institutional research, said the university will award 440 degrees to 348 graduates with 78 students completing two or more degrees.

Barrett Hospital & HealthCare
Receives Prestigious International Award

Baby-Friendly USA, announces that Barrett Hospital & HealthCare has received prestigious international recognition as a Baby-Friendly Designated birth facility.

Baby-Friendly USA, Inc is the U.S. authority for the implementation of the Baby-Friendly Hospital Initiative ("BFHI"), a global program sponsored by the World Health Organization (WHO) and the United Nations Children's Fund (UNICEF). The initiative encourages and recognizes hospitals and birthing centers that offer an optimal level of care for breastfeeding mothers and their babies. Based on the Ten Steps to Successful Breastfeeding, this prestigious international award recognizes birth facilities that offer breastfeeding mothers the information, confidence, and skills needed to successfully initiate and continue breastfeeding their babies.

There are more than 20,000 designated Baby-Friendly hospitals and birth centers worldwide. Currently there are 421 active Baby-Friendly hospitals and birth centers in the United States. In Montana, only 8 hospitals are designated Baby-Friendly, and besides Barrett Hospital & HealthCare, those in Southwest Montana include Community Hospital of Anaconda and Marcus Daly Memorial Hospital in Hamilton.

The "Baby-Friendly" designation is given after a rigorous on-site survey is completed. The award is maintained by continuing to practice the Ten Steps as demonstrated by quality processes.
