Dateline NBC to Air Montana's Nicole Waller Homicide Story Sunday Evening

Sunday night's episode of the national television show Dateline NBC will feature the homicide case of former Kalispell resident Nicole Waller. The show is scheduled to air Sunday, May 21, as a two-hour episode, broadcast statewide on Montana's NBC affiliates.

Dateline NBC reporter Josh Mankiewicz interviewed several individuals from the Montana Department of Justice, including Division of Criminal Investigation Agent Mark Hilyard, Prosecution Services Bureau Chief Brant Light, and Assistant Attorneys General Joel Thompson and Ole Olson. Officers from the Flathead County Sheriff's Office, the Richland County Sheriff's Office, and the FBI were interviewed as well.

"Our Montana Department of Justice prosecutors and investigators serve justice faithfully, and live for the opportunity to honor crime victims with unfailing service and tireless dedication," Attorney General Tim Fox said. "Our hearts go out to Nicole Waller's family, and we pray that our work to bring justice will help them heal and find some measure of closure in the wake of this senseless crime."

Nicole Waller of Kalispell went missing on February 14, 2013 on her way home from Sidney. Her vehicle was found abandoned near Poplar. Agents from the Montana Department of Justice's Division of Criminal Investigation worked collaboratively with the FBI, the Flathead County Sheriff's Office, and the Richland County Sheriff's Office on the investigation, which helped DOJ's Prosecution Services Bureau team prove Nicole had been murdered by Cody Johnston. A deliberate homicide conviction was obtained October 20, 2016, from a Richland County jury.

Cemetery Committee Meeting

By: MJ

Members present; Chairman Hand, Councilman Garry and Shafer.

Canine Forensics Team: Mayor Klakken reported they would be here May 16th. There will be two dogs with one handler for each. If the dogs indicate there are human remains, the area will be marked with a flag. GPS systems will also be used. On May 12th a group from Montana Tech will come can be using ground penetrating radar.

Located Remains: Mayor Klakken said if remains are located proper procedures will be followed for exhuming them and moving to Mountain View Cemetery.

American Legion/City: Acquiring the land deeded to the American Legion by Mayor Wilson in 1991 was discussed. Motion was made to pay the Legion for their portion of the survey. (Passed) Legion has not made a decision. City has prepared area with underground sprinklers, seeding...

Signs: You will start seeing new location signs showing Plat, Block and Lot numbers this summer.

Trees: The tree board has inventoried trees in cemetery and the committee will be meeting with them. Discussion held was on removal of some large trees and replacement with another kind. Spruce trees are a problem because they require a lot of water, dropped needles that kills grass and have a shallow root system.

Teddy Bear Picnic

The Dillon Public Library will hold its annual Teddy Bear Picnic. It will be on Thursday May 25th, begin at 10:30 am, and be held at the Jaycee Park weather permitting. If the weather is bad the picnic will be held in the library. There will be teddy bear shaped sandwiches and snacks. Bring a favorite teddy bear with you. Changing Darkness into Light

This past week the Law Enforcement family lost a brother, as Broadwater County Sheriff's Deputy Mason Moore was killed near Three Forks by a senseless act of murder.

Although this is not in our county it affects each and every Deputy and Police Office of Beaverhead County as well as every county in Montana.

How do we make sense of this and where do we go from here?

I don't have all the answers, but I do know this as all of you do that in this world, we live with evil every day.

As a Chaplain, I read the Bible and believe it to be true. In the Bible, God tells us that in this world we will face trials and tribulations and this week was just another reminder that this is true.

We can't change the past, but we can change our course. But where do we go from here?

First of all I want to publicly thank each and every Sheriff, Deputy, Chief and Police Officer, Detention Officer and Dispatcher of Beaverhead County for their selfless service to our community. We are truly blessed to have a great team of men and women who put us first instead of themselves.

Second, I would like to encourage all of us as citizens of this county to spend a moment each day to lift a prayer of thankfulness and ask God to protect this great team of our Law Enforcement family.

If I can equate evil with darkness and good with light, I would like to make this analogy.

I was told that scientifically there is no such thing as darkness – you cannot make a thing called "Dark"

When you put your young children to bed you don't tell them to "turn on the dark and go to sleep"- no you tell them to turn off the light.

You can only have dark if you get rid of the light.

Why is there evil or darkness in our world? – Because the light or goodness is being removed.

I would like to challenge us as a community to bring back the light.

We are a large county in terms of land mass, but relatively small in population. We need to stick together and take care of our own. Can we commit to make an effort to take care of not only ourselves but each other? Instead of calling the cops when our neighbor's dog barks, or someone parks in front of our house, or music is being played too loud, can we commit to working it out ourselves?

"The University of Montana Western Foundation is excited to bring the second annual Wine and Craft Beer Festival to southwestern Montana. We have partnered with Summit Beverage again and five local artists to create a wonderful evening for the community to enjoy," foundation director Roxanne Engellant said. "The festival will showcase our featured artists, wine and craft beer for the benefit of our students, faculty and programs at Montana Western."

Scheduled in the Keltz Arena on the Montana Western campus, the festival will include wines from Montana Winery, Trinchero Family Estates, Eagle Vino, Precept Wine and Shed Horn Cellars. If you aren't a wine lover, we will also be featuring craft beers from KettleHouse, Philipsburg Brewing, Draught Works, Bozeman Brewing and Dillon's very own Beaverhead Brewing Company. In addition to the local wine and craft brews, hors d'oeuvres will be served between tastings.

Local artists Cory Birkenbuel, Cody Mitchell, James Wigen, Charlotte Quist and Ross Miller will have their work on display. All the featured artwork will be available for purchase during the festival. Tickets are $40 for individuals and $70 for couples. Call 406-683-7303 for tickets and more information. Special note: if you are involved in either the sewing or quilting programs in your 4-H club, you can come to the sale at 2:00 pm and take home a whole bag full of items FOR FREE. Do You Know the Truth... If hell is real, who will go there and how long will they remain?

---We believe the following: (1) the Bible was given by the inspiration of God as stated in 2 Timothy 3:16-17; (2) all statements made in this and any ensuing articles will be based on what the Bible says; (3) the Bible only is the reliable source of spiritual & doctrinal truth; (4) all beliefs in conflict with Biblical teachings are false.---

In our society we often hear the word 'hell' used to express both good and bad. It has been used to describe someone who is a good athlete, but it is also used in reference to something bad or to someone that has done something bad. It is also used by some who get mad at another person, so they tell that person to go this terrible place of punishment. Hell is also a term used to express how badly someone may have been startled.

In spite of the thousands of times and various ways the term 'hell' is used, many reject the idea that such a place exists. Among those who reject the existence of hell, most probably accept the existence of heaven. It seems as though most people today assume the very dangerous idea that everyone goes to heaven when they die and no-one goes to hell. And most believe they are good enough to go to heaven, but few think they are bad enough to go to hell. (By the way, who is it that decides what is good and bad?)

The fact is that all the information we have about heaven and hell comes from the Bible. This being the case, is it logical to believe in either heaven or hell and not believe in both? And if both exist as clearly stated in the scriptures, is it logical to think that everyone is going to heaven and no one is going to hell? Why wouldn't we assume that everyone is going to hell and no one is going to heaven?

Next week scriptures will be given about the reality of hell, who it was prepared for, who will go to hell, how long hell and its inhabitants will remain, and when hell will come to an end.
