Robert "Bob" Henry Walsh

Robert "Bob" Henry Walsh passed away Sunday, May 21, 2017, at the family ranch after an extended illness.

Bob was born on May 17, 1930, to Elizabeth (Davis) Walsh and Carter E. Walsh at the family ranch home near Stockton, California. His great-grandfather arrived in Stockton and San Joaquin County after traveling from New York as a hunter for the John James Audubon Party. He was the direct descendent of early settlers in San Joaquin County, California. Bob had a great life and many dreams came true – ranching, racing horses, being a banker, father, husband, father and grandfather.

Bob attended schools in Linden, California and graduated in 1947. After graduation, he worked at farming and ranching with his father and brother, Gene. Through mutual friends, he met a Texas girl who was visiting her brother and sister-in-law in Stockton. And that was that! Coralene Williams and Bob were married on June 11, 1950, which resulted in a marriage that lasted almost 67 years and to which three children were born – Katherine, Kenneth and Karen.

Bob farmed on the family ranch on Jack Tone Road in Linden. His brother Gene bought a cattle ranch in Montana and after visiting them, Bob knew that was what he wanted to do as well. So after buying the Mailey Ranch on the East Bench near Twin Bridges in 1962, Bob packed up his family and moved to Montana. After a rocky start, a lot of hard work with his wife and family at his side, Bob made the ranch profitable. Bob acquired more land, more cattle, and more horses. Bob had a strong affection for horses – he bought his first one at the age of 8. He raised reputable horses that sold at special sales and always had many repeat buyers. He started racing Quarter horses and then moved on to the raising and racing of Thoroughbred horses. Traveling to racetracks all over the country and to most of the Canadian provinces to see his horses run was his greatest pleasure and entertainment.

In 1982, Bob was part of group of investors that purchased the First National Bank of Twin Bridges. Soon thereafter, the Bank of Sheridan was acquired and the name changed to Ruby Valley Bank. The motivation to invest in the bank was so that the small communities would be viable with local lending and financial services available. Bob served as Chairman of the Board up until his retirement in 2016.

After the ranch was finally paid off, Coralene convinced him it was time to see some of the world – and they did -- Africa, New Zealand, Australia, Ireland, Panama Canal,

Transformation & Change

By: MJ

Transformation and change can only happen when you renew your mind, your thoughts and actions. A difficult challenge.

Commitment and promises we make every day will impact us personally and the people around us. We all have "bless your heart friends." Example: When a friend promises to meet us for a cup of coffee at a certain time and then shows up a ½ hour late. When we tell a child we will be a certain place at a certain time to pick them up and then show up 45 minutes late that child is impacted. Instead of taking responsibility for the commitment we make we say, if you don't like the fact that I'm late it is "your problem." Making promises is a short cut to make someone feel good or like putting a band aid on your problem with commitment and entitlement.

It would be a better world if we would remember that our behavior does have an impact on others; family, friends, co-workers... It would be a healthier world if we did not think that we were entitled.

Entitlement is like the scum at the bottom of the pond. It is invading our culture. We see it in all walks of life. Entitlement leads us down the path where we think it is ok to be late, to demean, to disgrace, degrade and humiliate others... Entitlement says "I don't care what you think - I deserve."

Why: Why do we make promise when we are not going to keep them? Note: "I want" is a very strong and compulsive feeling humans have. Humans have two thought processes; one says; "to make promises" and the second says "no my schedule is full & I don't have time." That entitlement thought that says "I want and it is ok if I am late" wins most of the time.

Entitlements are part of our everyday life. Organizations are using your phone that you pay for, to call you for advertisement or solicitation. The phone company thinks they are entitled to give out or sell your number. People are revolting by cancelling land lines and buying cell phone.

It's better to say nothing then not to keep a promise or commitment. Keeping our word, keeping our promises is a way of keeping entitlements from taking control of our lives.

Attorney General Fox Seeks Input for Addressing Substance Abuse in Montana

Attorney General Tim Fox announced Wednesday an effort through his office's Aid Montana initiative to gather input from Montanans regarding how best to address substance abuse.

"We want to hear from people across the state on how to effectively combat Montana's substance abuse problem," said Attorney General Fox. "Whether you're a healthcare professional, educator, social worker, or have experienced or work with the effects of substance abuse in your work, profession, or family, we want to hear your ideas for what needs to be done to fight this epidemic ripping through our state."

Aid Montana: Addressing the Impact of Drugs was launched by Attorney General Fox and the Montana Department of Justice in April 2017. Aid Montana will be a comprehensive approach to addressing Montana's substance abuse problem. Law enforcement, treatment, education and coordination efforts will be central components to the Aid Montana strategy.

"We need to know what works, what doesn't work, what's missing, what Montanans have found to be most effective through their experiences, and how our state's comprehensive approach to addressing substance abuse should operate in unison to combat this problem," Fox added.

Attorney General Fox highlighted four ways Montanans can send their ideas for addressing substance abuse directly to the attorney general's office.

- By visiting www.dojmt.gov/aid-montana/
- By sending an email to: AidMT@mt.gov
- By sending a message to the Aid Montana Facebook page
- By sending a letter to Aid Montana, Office of the Attorney General, 215 N. Sanders Street, Helena, MT 59601.

Over the summer, Attorney General Fox and the Montana Department of Justice will partner with the Montana Healthcare Foundation to hold six listening sessions across the state to hear real life experiences of individuals affected by substance abuse. The dates and locations for these listening sessions will be announced early next month.

The Department of Justice and the Montana Healthcare Foundation will hold a substance abuse and addiction summit this fall to begin developing a comprehensive substance abuse prevention strategy built off of the input gathered from the listening sessions.

It's the goal of Aid Montana to have a strategic plan completed before the 2019 legislative session. Aid Montana will present a "roadmap" to lawmakers that outlines what needs to be done at the legislative level to efficiently and effectively combat this problem. Whether it be shifting resources to find where they are most effective, or changing laws to better reflect the reality of the problem, the Montana Department of Justice wants policymakers to have a clear understanding of what needs to be done.

Zoning Meeting Cancelled

By: MJ

The regular scheduled zoning meeting for May 23rd was cancelled. Cancellation was due to the packets of information not posted for the public's information or sent out to committee members. Director of Operations over sees the information being distributed. If you have dealt with the government you have learned that they move slower then molasses running uphill in January. The zoning committee okays or denies building permits. Postponing a meeting is delaying someone from starting their building projects. We do need to keep in mind that "government runs slower then molasses running uphill in the winter time."

In the packet were permits for a home business, garage conversion, mother-in-law's house, zoning document changes...

It is my understanding the meeting has been rescheduled for May 30, 2017 @ 7:00 pm in the City Hall council chambers. Check with city hall or watch for a posting.

QUILT SHOW

First annual quilt show hosted by The No. 1 Ladies Quilt Shop and friends. It will take place the Thursday, Friday and Saturday of labor day weekend (August 31, and September, 1 and 2). We are looking for local businesses that would be willing to have quilts on display in their business, and then we are looking for quilters who are willing to have their quilts on display. Quilts can be antique, previously made or new for the show. We will also accept table runners and wall hangings. There will be no charge for the quilt show and we are not going to judge quilts. This is just going to be a "show and tell" quilt show. If you have a quilt you want to show and would like to sell it you can add a for sale sign. Businesses and quilt owners will work together on how best to display your quilt. We thought this would be a wonderful way to show quilts and include businesses around town. For more information please contact the quilt store. 683-5884. Thank you! Veva and friends

KENNEL CLEANING CREW NEEDED

It has been a long cold snowy winter and the kennels at the Beaverhead Animal Shelter are in need of a good "spring cleaning". The primary focus will be scrubbing out the kennels and the dog houses. If you are interested in being part of a cleaning crew (4 people for 2 days; 7 hours each day, $10/hour) please contact Susie at 406-683-8119. The date has not been set yet as they will need some nice warm weather for these 2 days.

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

There are never enough volunteers to keep up with the various chores at the Beaverhead Animal Shelter. They desperately need a volunteer to write the Thank You notes to all the wonderful individuals and businesses that donated items for their annual fund raiser ... can you believe, it has been a month already. They truly do appreciate each and every item donated, and need to let them know that. If you would like to help the Shelter, but cannot do any of the physical labor chores, please contact Susie at 406-683-8119 and offer to help. It can be done at your home. A list of those who donated items and the thank you notes will be provided.
