(Ned) Joseph R. Wellborn

Ned passed away May 24, 2017. He was born to Rela A. and Hattie (Calloway) Wellborn on June 19, 1926 at their homestead in Johnson Gulch up Medicine Lodge. He lived there for a few years with his parents, his older sister June, and his younger brother Bill. They later moved to Armstead and he attended schools there and in Lima. In his younger years, he did a lot of trapping and logging and ran a saw mill with his brother Bill and their Dad.

He married DeEsta Hoffman January 25th 1952 in Dillon and they lived in Armstead. They built their home in Grant shortly after their marriage by cutting and hauling the logs and using their own saw mill.

He and his brother Dave owned a ranch and an elk farm at Medicine Lodge and Red Rock. Ned loved to be up Muddy Creek watching over his cows. He held the earliest guides and outfitters license in Montana. He had many stories of the old days and our family holds those memories for him.

Ned was preceded in death by his parents; his brother Bill; 2 sisters June and Grace, and 3 babies that passed at birth.

He is survived by his wife DeEsta of 65 years; 2 daughters Judy (Kevin) McCracken and Esther (Fred) Bridger; grandchildren Vince (Cheryl) Pierce, Paula (Ryan) Watson, and Travis and Charlotte Elliott; 7 great-grandchildren; 1 great-grandson; sister Nell (Elmer); his brother Dave; and sister-in-law Helen Wellborn.

There will be a private family service held at Brundage Funeral Home and a friends and family reception at the Elks Lodge at 4 p.m. May 30th.

The family asks that instead of sending flowers you make a donation to Hospice or the charity of your choice.

TENNIS TOURNAMENT

The Dillon pair of Tessa Sawyer and Adrianne Southam were single tennis players until last year when they teamed up to be on the doubles side of things for their tennis team. They took first place this year at the State Tournament in Class A up in Kalispell and can see now that it was a great choice for them. Coach Lois Woodard said our girls were way more skilled and just better players. The girls had lost only one game to Hardin this year. In singles Mariah McClure lost out in consolation to Corvallis. Todd Nordahl and Kyson Wilson came out in fourth place after starting their tournament quarterfinals Thursday with their first lose of the season. They then had a close match against Miles City but unfortunately lost in three sets. The boys singles side say Bradley Rakich get a couple wins in consolation play to bounce back but lose a tough one to come out with a 4th place finish.

The BCHS tennis teams both came one with the 3rd place trophies for their respective groups.

Team scores were Girls Glendive 26, Billings Central 26, Dillon 20, Polson 18, Whitefish 15, Hardin 12, Corvallis 5, Belgrade 3, Butte Central 2, Columbia Falls 1, Lewistown 1 and Stevensville 1.

The boys team scores were Billings Central 20, Hardin 17, Dillon 16, Havre 14, Polson 12, Glendive 11, Belgrade 7, Whitefish 6, Livingston 2, Lewistown 2 and Butte Central 2.

BCHS STATE CHAMPIONS

It was another great weekend for Beaverhead County High School and our athletes. We will be celebrating the recently crowned champions in both tennis and track on Tuesday, May 30 with a firetruck ride. Students will be released from class at 11:45 AM to load the firetrucks and will depart for their ride through town at 11:55 AM. There will be 2 firetrucks one for our tennis doubles champion and the other for the individual track champions.

* Tessa Sawyer and Adrianne Southam-Class A Doubles champions
* Troy Andersen 100 and 200 meter dash champion.
* Tylia DeJohn, Kylie Christiansen, Brynly Fitzgerald and Hayle Sundquist 4X100 meter relay Champions

A Community Conversation About Mental Health Services for Children and Families
May 31st, 2017
Dillon Middle School Library
5:30 – 6:45 pm

What is the Child-Center Community Based Mental Health Initiative?

Mental Health America of Montana (MHA of MT) and Bozeman Health are working together to develop a more community based, child-centered, trauma-informed mental health delivery system.

The key theme of the proposed work is to address how best to serve the mental health needs of our children and families in the Greater Gallatin community.

Step one of this project is to convene key community stakeholders to participate in a "community conversation" through Focus Group meetings.

The Focus Group for Beaverhead County will take place on May 31st, 5:30-6:45 at the Dillon Middle School Library. It will be led by Dan Aune, the Executive Director of the Mental Health Association of Montana, with an emphasis on the following Talking Points:

- Identify current services and gaps
- Identify readily available data on children's psycho/social needs or development in our community
- Understand current road blocks from a child & family perspective
- Understand current road blocks from a first responder perspective
- Understand current road blocks from a provider perspective

Please plan to attend. Your input is urgently needed. However, if you are unable to attend you may still contribute to the conversation by taking a short five-question survey at https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/WZQ5LHW

Sponsored by: Beaverhead County Mental Health Local Advisory Council, Altacare, and the Yellowstone Boys and Girls Ranch.

June 3rd Los Koritas Mexican Restaurant is having a Buffet Fund Raiser Benefit for a 12 year old boy that was diagnosed with Leukemia.

Scott Chagua

All funds will be donated to the family

$15 per plate plus drink.

From 10 am to 4 p.m.

The Road Runner's started out as a small ragtag group of friends who were and still are "motorcycle enthusiasts" just trying to get us together to ride as much as we could with our limited time was our focus. Some people in our group were introduced to the Montana Patriot Guard Organization, wanting to honor and stand up for our Veterans and their families was something that appealed to us, we all quickly joined the Patriot Guard. While volunteering with this wonderful organization, we met and became friends with so many amazing people who were involved with causes that were near and dear to their own hearts. We wanted to help them all and began attending as many rides and fundraisers as we could like; MIA/POW rides, M.I.A.P. rides and functions, military send offs and homecoming events for our Montana troops as well as cancer runs and Toys for Tots rides. By the end of our second year, we knew we needed some focus. In early 2013 we started planning our own poker run and worked on becoming more of an organized group with our Road Runners Bike Club. Our first poker run was a huge success and brought in about 30 bikes. We had so much fun and knew from that point on that this was the direction we wanted to move towards. Our 1st donation went to the Montana Patriot Guard, It wasn't a lot but it was a start and we were hooked! Wanting to keep with that theme and donate to causes that were dear to all of our hearts in the Road Runners we decided to focus our donations towards veterans causes and charities.. We also decided that we wanted our donations to stay within the state of Montana, if possible. In 2014, we chose an organization called Homes for our troops. They were building an specially adapted home for a disabled veteran, our donation went straight to Marine, Lance Corporal Tom Parker, to build his home in N.W. Montana. Lance Corporal Parker was able to move into it debt free without a mortgage. In 2015, we saw a need and stayed right in our home town of Dillon. Our donation went to the Dillon Kiwanis Veterans Memorial park and the money was used to buy a new lighted flag pole and 2 bricks in the memorial wall. The Road Runners donated the bricks back to the Kiwanis Club to gift to someone deserving and the flag pole will be used in the WWII Veterans Memorial that is currently being moved and reconstructed. For 2016, we found an amazing charity out of Manhattan, MT called Heroes and Horses Inc. They are committed to helping combat veterans from all over the USA reintegrate into society thru the use of horses, nature, problem solving and comradery within their groups. Our donation helped them get well on their way to buying a new horse trailer to expand their services. We are so excited to watch the increase in numbers of attendees to our events. We have riders who now come from all over Montana, Idaho, Wyoming and even Colorado we are becoming a destination ride. Our donations get bigger every year also which makes our heart full. We love that our community, as well as the surrounding towns in our area, have opened their arms to help us with these functions. We have some great backers who have stepped in and donated to us every year....we would not be here without them or the riders who come in to ride these events with us. This year we are really hoping to gather up a full weekend of events that will pull in visitors to our local area. We would love to see this becoming a big yearly event that could also be a boost for Dillon. We have some amazing rides all around our area for motorcycle enthusiasts as well as classic car runs that is untapped at this point. As for the Road Runners, we have big goals for our future. We would love to get to a point where we can focus on our own veterans cause. We want to buy a recreational property and set up an environment where soldiers who are coming back from deployment can come with their families to a quiet place and they can reconnect and enjoy the outdoors without all the worries and chaos that usually follows them. Of course, this would be all at no charge to them. Until we get to that point, we will continue to find worthy cases and charities to contribute to.

BOZEMAN PAPER REPORTS PARKING ISSUES SIMILAR TO DILLON

Parking requirements stifling Midtown development, Bozeman commission says May 2nd article

Looking to throw fresh fuel on a long-smoldering effort to encourage urban-style construction along the North Seventh corridor, Bozeman commissioners agreed Monday with a consultant's case that redevelopment in the Midtown area is being stifled by city parking requirements.

Furthermore, four of five commissioners said they wanted to try throwing out parking minimums entirely in Midtown's B-2M zoning district, making it easier to build mid-rise buildings by letting developers decide how much parking to include of their own accord.

"The market is a major driver in this, and people are not going to build there without some greater incentive," said Commissioner Chris Mehl.

The discussion stands in contrast to the commission's April 11 decision on the Black-Olive apartment project, where — citing parking concerns — four of five commissioners voted down a five-story building proposed in downtown by a historic neighborhood.

"Minimum parking requirements reduce affordability. They raise the cost of a development. And they render many proposals economically unfeasible," said Commissioner Jeff Krauss, who voted against Black-Olive over its "parking deficit."

"I'm all for radically reducing the parking minimums," Krauss said.

Deputy Mayor Cyndy Andrus, dissenting, said she does support giving developers the option to build less parking in Midtown but that she'd prefer a less-radical option.

"I just feel at this point it's too big of a step for us to go to no minimums," she said. "I think we've had cases in the past, some of them in the recent past, where we've looked at cases that have not had adequate parking."

The city has tried a number of measures aimed at spurring new development along North Seventh over the past decade — creating a tax increment finance district, embracing the "Midtown" branding and rezoning broad swaths of the corridor for taller, denser buildings. Even so, in contrast to the several midrises underway or proposed in downtown proper, the city has seen little new life in Midtown beyond a couple renovations.

A report by Portland-based Leland Consulting presented to commissioners Monday argued that's in part because the city's "excessive" parking requirements make it nearly impossible for private developers to build the sorts of retail-plus-residential buildings the city is looking for in Midtown.

A multi-story building on the current E-Z Auto lot at the corner of Mendenhall and North Seventh, for example, could include 42 apartments and six retail spaces, the consultants say.

But with existing parking standards requiring 54 parking spaces on a fairly tight site, they conclude that building wouldn't pencil out unless it could rent out two-bedroom apartments at $2,170 a month. Even with Bozeman's cramped rental market, they say that's $600 a month above the going rate.

"If you really want that transformational change, you need to let them apply their investment to a building, and not storage for parking," said consultant Alisa Pyszka.

Adding too much parking to developments, she said, wastes land and counters efforts to promote walking, biking and public transit by spacing new buildings further apart.
