Attorney General Fox Joins 42 Other State Attorneys General

in a $33 Million Settlement with Johnson & Johnson Concerning Representations of Over-The-Counter Drug Quality

Montana Attorney General Tim Fox joined 42 other state attorneys general last Wednesday in reaching a $33 million settlement with Johnson & Johnson Consumer Inc. and Johnson & Johnson. Montana's share of the settlement is $634,130.

The settlement resolves allegations that Johnson & Johnson, acting through McNeil Consumer Healthcare Division, unlawfully promoted their over-the-counter drugs as complying with federally mandated current Good Manufacturing Practices (cGMP), even though the Food and Drug Administration found that some McNeil manufacturing facilities did not comply with current Good Manufacturing Practices between 2009 and 2011. Moreover, some McNeil OTC drugs were deemed adulterated as a matter of federal law.

"This settlement is a reminder to all companies operating in Montana that they must follow the rules if they are going to do business here," said Attorney General Tim Fox. "Cutting corners is never acceptable, especially when doing so could adversely affect consumers' health. This settlement is a victory for Montana consumers, and I'm glad my office helped take the lead on this case."

According to the complaint, McNeil marketed certain batches of OTC drugs that failed to comply with federal standards, and as such, were deemed adulterated. McNeil's alleged quality control lapses resulted in recalls of drugs manufactured between 2009 and 2011.

The settlement requires McNeil to ensure that its marketing and promotional practices do not unlawfully promote OTC drug products.

Pennsylvania and Texas led the Executive Committee for the multi-state settlement, which also includes Attorneys General from Montana, Arizona, Delaware, District of Columbia, Florida, Kentucky, Maryland, Massachusetts, New Jersey, and Ohio.

Also participating in the settlement are Alaska, Arkansas, California, Colorado, Connecticut, Hawaii, Idaho, Illinois, Indiana, Kansas, Louisiana, Maine, Michigan, Minnesota, Missouri, Nebraska, Nevada, New Hampshire, New Mexico, New York, North Carolina, North Dakota, Rhode Island, South Carolina, South Dakota, Tennessee, Vermont, Virginia, Washington, West Virginia, and Wisconsin.

McNeil-PPC, Inc. was a wholly-owned subsidiary of Johnson & Johnson that manufactured and distributed over-the-counter (OTC) drugs. McNeil Consumer Healthcare Division formerly a division of McNeil-PPC. Inc., is now a division of Johnson & Johnson Consumer Inc. ("McNeil").

Planning Board

By: MJ

At the February 9, 2017 meeting Mr. Don Hand was elected Vice President.

By-Laws: Mr. Dolan discussed the MCA code and City Ordinance regarding the Planning Board. There as an in-depth discussion of the By-Laws. Subject was tabled.

Dillon Motor Coach RV Resort Application: This is for a 30 unit space for RV's located on Swenson Way. Property is owned by Earl Reamy and the Matthew King is the developer. Was tabled for further information.

Capital Improvement Plan: Mr. Mooney as a member of the Planning Board wanted to have a discussion on the Capital Improvement Plan Update. He stated that there was $28,000 in the budget. There will be contact with engineering firms regarding costs. Mrs. Lynn Giles pointed out that the Downtown Group obtained the grants and the City spent the Downtown's money on the Growth Policy. After some discussion it was decided this will be reviewed by the members and discussed at a later date.

Main Street Update: Mrs. Giles reported they are in the process of getting their 501C application in. This would alleviate the need for matching funds for grants. The Main Street Committee has their by-laws done. They are applying to continue "bump outs" and "lamps" on Montana Street. One of their missions is to help businesses get started in Dillon. Giles is looking to have signs out on the interstate advertising Dillon and the historic Downtown. Area.

QUESTION: Mr. Ed Mooney is a sub-division owner in Dillon. He is on the Planning Board where applications will be submitted. Should Mr. Mooney recuse himself from voting on sub-division applications? It is clear that he would have a conflict of interest?

Greg Blake Band on June 10th

The Old Depot Theater, Wall O'Water and Womack's Printing are proud to present the Greg Blake Band on June 10th at 7:00 pm. Included in the band is fiddler, Blaine Sprouse, who played on the Alabama super hit If You're Gonna Play in Texas, You Gotta have a Fiddler in the Band. Montanans and especially Dillonites will argue that having a fiddler in the band is not just the province of Texans; but they will appreciate that this is an extraordinary opportunity for Bluegrass fans to hear a collection of nationally prominent musicians in the intimate setting of Dillon's historic theater. Tickets are on sale at the Beaverhead County Museum and at the door for $10 each. Reservations can be made by calling 660-2304.

The lineup of performers in this high octane band are Greg Blake, award winning writer, singer and guitarist. Blake grew up in West Virginia, "a big man with an even bigger heart, he brings an uplifting joy to the music he knows and loves". Mandolinist, John Reischman, has taken his traditional and original arrangements across Canada and the United States. Reischman has been called one of the premier mandolinists of his generation. Keith Reed plays and teaches Bluegrass banjo and guitar and includes playing at Lincoln Center among his credentials. Isaac Callender is familiar to Dillon audiences as a judge for the 2017 Dillon Fiddle Contest and recent performer at the Old Depot Theater with Tim May. Callender is in demand as a soloist and side man having played with such notables as Jeff Scroggins and Colorado, the April Verch Band and Peter Rowan among others. As a former UM-Western student, Callender has been instrumental in bringing this band to Dillon.

Attorney General Fox Presents Outstanding Crime Victim Advocate Award in Butte

Attorney General Tim Fox presented one of two 2017 Outstanding Crime Victim Advocate of the Year awards at a ceremony this afternoon at the Community Center in Butte. Dr. Jessie Salisbury, Medical Director of the Butte Child Evaluation Center, received the award at an event held in her honor by colleagues and friends.

Dr. Salisbury was nominated by area colleagues from local law enforcement, social work, and the justice system. She has been the Medical Director of the Butte Child Evaluation Center (CEC) since its inception in 1998. The Butte CEC was the first Child Advocacy Center to be accredited in Montana; Dr. Salisbury was instrumental in the accreditation process. In addition to her work at the Butte CEC, Dr. Salisbury is also a pediatrician at the Rocky Mountain Clinic in Butte.

Attorney General Tim Fox said, "Dr. Jessie Salisbury has the distinction of being the first physician to ever receive the Outstanding Crime Victim Advocate of the Year award in its 24-year history. While it's normally the role of a traditional victim advocate to provide crisis counseling and emotional support, among other forms of assistance, we can clearly see that Dr. Salisbury has offered those services and so much more to over one-thousand abused children she's helped at the Butte CEC."

Becky Rate, Emergency Shelter Coordinator at the YWCA Mercy Home, also received the 2017 Outstanding Crime Victim Advocate of the Year award from Attorney General Fox yesterday in Great Falls.

Letter to the Editor

I inherited from my grandmother, who taught school for about 35 years, a book whose title is, "Century Readings for a Course in American Literature" by Fred Lewis Pattee, Litt. D., dated 1919. It begins with the date 1787 and concludes in 1914, 890 pages in all.

This morning I was reading Abraham Lincoln's 'First Inaugural Address' (March 4, 1861) when I came upon the central portion where he references the trials facing the Nation at that time, which to me are the trials we are facing today, you be the judge.

"My countrymen, one and all, think calmly and well upon this whole subject. Nothing valuable can be lost by taking time. If there be an object to hurry any of you in hot haste to a step which you would never take deliberately, that object will be frustrated by taking time; but no good object can be frustrated by it. Such of you as are now dissatisfied, still have the old Constitution unimpaired, and on the sensitive point, the laws of your own framing under it; while the new administration will have not immediate power, if it would, to change either. If it were admitted that you who are dissatisfied hold the right side in the dispute, there still is no simple good reason for precipitate action. Intelligence, patriotism, Christianity, and a firm reliance on Him who has never yet forsaken this favored land, are still competent to adjust in the best way our present difficulty.

"In your hands, my dissatisfied fellow-countryman, and not in mine, is the momentous issue of civil war. The government will not assail you. You can have no conflict without being yourselves the aggressors. You have no oath registered in heaven to destroy the government, while I shall have the most solemn one to 'preserve, protect, and defend it."

Ed Flanders
