MEMORIAL FOR UNIVERSITY OF MONTANA WESTERN ATHLETE SCHEDULED SUNDAY

University of Montana Western Athletic Director Russ Richardson announced today that a memorial service for M.J. Simkins has been scheduled Sunday, June 4, 2017 at 2 p.m. at Vigilante Field.

Simkins died in a house fire in Dillon, Mont. early Tuesday morning.

Richardson said Simkins, who was entering his senior year at the university, was well known and liked at UMW and in the community. "M.J. was a stand-out athlete who excelled on the field and in the classroom. He was a young man of great integrity and will be missed. The news has deeply saddened all who knew him."

A secondary education and history major at the university, Simkins played for the Beaverhead County High School Beavers, the Dillon Cubs and the UMW Bulldogs. In addition he had received academic awards in high school and college. Richardson said the family has asked that attendees wear their favorite Beaver, Cubs or Bulldog gear at the memorial to honor Simkins.

A funeral service is planned Monday, June 5, 2017, 12:10 p.m. at St. Rose Parish Catholic Church. The public is invited to both the memorial and funeral service. The family has asked that in lieu of flowers, contributions be made to the Montana Western Foundation to support a scholarship created in M.J.'s memory.

Planning Committee Correction

By: MJ

On two Planning Committee articles I had in the Dillonite Daily this week I had a mistake on each article. Russ Schwandt and Dan Nye are not on the planning board. They termed out. I have not had time to do the research on who is Chairman, who is Vice Chair or who all the committee members are. Will print a corrected list of who the committee members are and the positions they hold later.

Thank you for your patience and sorry for mistake.

How Much Do You Hate Property Taxes?

Tyrades! by Danny Tyree

Most Hated Levy In America."

First, a couple of disclaimers. Since I have a child in public school, I have not felt particularly overwhelmed by my own tax bill. And I'm truly appreciative of a conscientious county employee who got two worthless buildings removed from my mother's tax appraisal.

Still, I can see why a survey conducted by Gallup, CNN and USA Today a decade ago declared the property tax to be the most despised tax by more than a two-to-one margin.

It is hard to wrap your mind around the logic of some taxes. Sure, "sin taxes" indulge our Puritanical heritage of discouraging antisocial behaviors. And fuel taxes defray the costs of infrastructure. But income taxes punish us for working and investing. And property taxes punish us for (a) keeping realtors busy or (b) upgrading the appearance of our existing property.

It's fortunate that marriages don't follow the same logic.

("You cleaned up the garage, remembered my birthday and brought me roses? Your sorry rear end is spending the night in the dog house, and you'll be hearing from my lawyer!")

Theoretically, adding a room to your house, constructing a tool shed or remedying an eyesore does place an additional strain on county/city resources; but surely the magnitude is exaggerated. ("That darned Houlihan added a hummingbird feeder to his gazebo. Now we'll have to add a second shift of cops to watch for gang activity.")

It's creepy the way the municipalities use drive-by viewings and even drones to guess at your property's value. Creepy and juvenile. It's like operating government with a big game of "I spy with my little eye." What's next? The sales tax people use a lively game of hopscotch to set rates?

True, many tax assessors have a heart; but others can be quite unsympathetic. ("Well, your great-great grandfather should have THOUGHT about the city someday needing a new meth treatment clinic with 500-channel satellite dishes before he bought this property.")

Many tax assessors live in the mythical land of "IF." You know, like "IF you sold your land for a subdivision, it would be worth a jillion dollars." Of course, the response should be something like, "IF your dog was dropped from a plane wearing a nuclear bomb, it would wipe out a lot of ISIS tunnels. Should I call the Pentagon, or shall we just agree to disagree???"

Granted, tax assessors have a thankless job, carrying out someone else's master plan. Someone else's IDIOTIC master plan. Hitting someone with a big bill AFTER they've tied up their money in a mortgage and property insurance? I can imagine government geniuses saying, "I notice you've fired every bit of ammunition in your pistol. How would you like to be my personal bodyguard?"

Scrutinize your assessment for errors. Other than that, I can't help you. Even if you try to stay under the radar, your assessment may rise simply because your neighbors threw caution to the wind and made the neighborhood as a whole more valuable. Whatever you do, don't let the Neil Sedaka lyrics "I'm living right next door to an angel" blare from your house. Your assessment could soar to high heaven.

Pint Night Fundraiser to Benefit Local Community Based Services Program

One of Dillon's Pint Night Fundraisers will benefit Yellowstone Boys and Girls Ranch's (YBGR) Dillon Community Based Services (CBS) program. The June 2 event is free, open to the public and kid friendly.

Charise Lemelin, YBGR's Dillon Clinical Director, said she is ecstatic about receiving the "go-ahead" for the event. She said that they'd like to use the donations raised for underfunded needs affecting Dillon's services.

"Our biggest needs right now are office space and vehicles, and funds as we move forward with foster care," she said.

Event Details: June 2, from 4 - 10 p.m. The 200 block of South Montana Street will close to traffic. The event will begin at 4:30 p.m., with family-friendly games at Depot Park. At 6 p.m., guests can purchase food, drinks and hear live music inside Beaverhead Brewing Company. One dollar for every drink the brewery sells, as well as proceeds from the Branding Iron's barbecue sales, will be donated to YBGR Dillon's CBS program.

So, visit downtown Dillon, Friday evening, June 2, for a night to support the cause of helping kids and families!

WILDFLOWER IDENTIFICATION CLASS FOR WOMEN SET FOR JULY

Montana Fish, Wildlife & Parks' Becoming an Outdoors-Woman Program is sponsoring a Wildflower Identification class July 8 at the Jack Creek Preserve Outdoor Education Center near Big Sky.

Participants will spend the day learning basic flower identification while exploring the meadows and mountain sides of the Madison Range. The class runs Saturday from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. The class fee is $15. Participants should bring a lunch.

Registration forms are available on the FWP website at fwp.mt.gov ; click "Becoming an Outdoors Woman" under the Education tab.

For more information, contact FWP's BOW coordinator, Liz Lodman, by mail at FWP-BOW, P.O. Box 200701, Helena, MT, 59620; call 406-444-9940; or email llodman@mt.gov.

The Becoming an Outdoors-Woman (BOW) program is designed to introduce women to outdoor skills. The BOW program provides participants with information, encouragement and hands-on instruction in outdoor skills such as fishing, shooting, archery, map & compass, survival, canoeing and outdoor cooking.

Oscar has been missing from Beaverhead Lane since 5/25. This big kitty is gray/black and white and very friendly. He is new to the area and new to being outside. Please check your garages and sheds as his curiosity may have gotten him locked in somewhere.

If he has adopted you or have any information please contact Ashley at 406-925-2066. Oscar is very much missed by his family and a reward is being offered for his return to us.
