The Life & Times of Jimmie Rodgers, The Father of Country Music

Bannack State Park (stateparks.mt.gov) we will host the Montana Conversations program "The Life & Times of Jimmie Rodgers, the Father of Country Music" with Ed & John Kemmick. The program will be held on June 10 at 7 pm in the church at Bannack State Park. The program is free and open to the public. Funding for the program is provided by Humanities Montana through grants from the National Endowment for the Humanities, Montana's Cultural Trust, and private donation.

Greg Blake Band

The Old Depot Theater, Wall O'Water and Womack's Printing are proud to present the Greg Blake Band on June 10th at 7:00 pm. Included in the band is fiddler, Blaine Sprouse, who played on the Alabama super hit If You're Gonna Play in Texas, You Gotta have a Fiddler in the Band. Montanans and especially Dillonites will argue that having a fiddler in the band is not just the province of Texans; but they will appreciate that this is an extraordinary opportunity for Bluegrass fans to hear a collection of nationally prominent musicians in the intimate setting of Dillon's historic theater.

Tickets are on sale at the Beaverhead County Museum and at the door for $10 each. Reservations can be made by calling 660-2304.

The lineup of performers in this high octane band are Greg Blake, award winning writer, singer and guitarist. Mandolinist, John Reischman, has taken his traditional and original arrangements across Canada and the United States. Reischman has been called one of the premier mandolinists of his generation. Keith Reed plays and teaches Bluegrass banjo and guitar. Isaac Callender is familiar to Dillon audiences as a judge for the 2017 Dillon Fiddle Contest and recent performer at the Old Depot Theater with Tim May. Callender has been instrumental in bringing this band to Dillon.

CLASS REUNION

Members of Beaverhead County High School's Class of 1960 will be celebrating their 75th birthdays at their 57th reunion on July 7, 8 and 8, 2017. Festivities start Friday at 5:00 pm with a mixer at the Elk's Lodge Bar. Saturday's events will take place at the Elks Lodge Hall and include a social period starting at 5:00 pm and dinner for registered attendees at 6:30 pm. A second social period will follow the meal. Sunday breakfast will be at the University of Montana, Western, Cafeteria. The Cafeteria line opens for us from 8:00 to 8:30 am. You may stop by during any of these events to say hello to our Class members. To attend the dinner, we must receive a completed invitation and a check to cover the cost of your meal before June 24, 2017. A paste and copy version of our invitation is on our facebook page, BCHS Class of 1960, or you may call John Mugaas at 406-404-1028.

Ensuring High School Grads are Equipped for Citizenship

By Tom Purcell

"I may have to do WHAT to receive my high school diploma?"

"Pass a U.S. citizenship exam. The Civics Education Initiative is hoping state legislatures will require high school students in all 50 states to pass the exam in order to graduate. Some states, such as Arizona, have already passed such a law."

"But my high school made me take American history courses, and I got straight A's."

"Great for you, but many studies show that many Americans are pathetically ignorant of basic facts about their government and its unique history." "If it becomes a requirement for high school graduation, how will this citizenship test work?"

"You'll have to pass a test on 100 basic facts of U. S. history and civics taken from the United States Citizenship Civics Test - the test all immigrants applying for U.S. citizenship must pass. You'll have to answer at least 60 percent of the questions correctly to pass."

"Can you help me prepare for these questions, sir?"

"Sure, young fellow. What is the Declaration of Independence?"

"It is an amazing document, sir. Thomas Jefferson wrote to King George III, telling him to stuff it. The Declaration said that all men are created equal, that the power of government comes from the people, that people can change the government if they don't like it, and that individuals have unalienable rights, among them life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness."

"OK, why were the colonists so upset with the Brits that they declared independence?"

"Well, sir, this was because of the Stamp Act, the high taxes imposed on every piece of paper they used. This 'taxation without representation' infuriated the colonists and motivated their desire for independence."

"Fascinating. I didn't know that, either, young fellow. OK, what was the Constitutional Convention?"

"Sir, this took place in Philadelphia during the summer of 1787, when 55 delegates from 13 colonies drafted the U.S. Constitution. It established a republic, which grants power to the people, who vote for officials to represent them. The Constitution divided government power among three branches - legislative, judicial and executive - to ensure checks and balances."

"Hey, that was some good thinking. What does the judicial branch do?"

"Its job is to review and explain the laws and resolve disputes between parties. Most importantly, it is supposed to objectively determine if a law is in accord with the U.S. Constitution."

"OK, what is the First Amendment?"

"It is from the Bill of Rights, the first 10 amendments to the Constitution that were designed to protect individual rights. The First Amendment protects freedom of speech, religion and assembly, the right to petition the government, and freedom of the press. It is essential to the survival of a democracy that the press be objective and that it works hard to root out corruption."

"I had no idea that amendment had so much stuff going on. What is the rule of law?"

"That's an important one, sir. In America, everyone must follow the law, including leaders and government employees. No one should ever be above the law in America."

"OK, name two or more ways that Americans can participate in their republic."

"Americans should participate in their republic if they want it to survive. Americans should vote. They should contact elected officials and say what they think about the issues. They should write letters to the editor. And why not consider running for elected office themselves?"

"Young fellow, you know more about American civics than most people. It's too bad all Americans aren't required to pass the citizenship exam every now and then to understand basic facts about our government and its unique history."

"Perhaps so, sir, but that would be unconstitutional."

Do You Know the Truth... Description of hell and how long the wicked remain will remain in there (#44)
---We believe the following: (1) the Bible was given by the inspiration of God as stated in 2 Timothy 3:16-17;

(2) all statements made in this and any ensuing articles will be based on what the Bible says; (3) the Bible only is the reliable source of spiritual & doctrinal truth; (4) all beliefs in conflict with Biblical teachings are false.---

Luke 16:23-24 describes hell, "And in hell he lifted up his eyes, being in torment, and seeth Abraham afar off, and Lazarus in his bosom (in front of). And he cried and said, Father Abraham, have mercy on me, and send Lazarus, that he may dip the tip of his finger in water, and cool my tongue; for I am tormented in this flame."

This reveals a place of fiery torment where not even a sip of water is available.
Note several aspects of hell: (1) There is no exit; (2) Those there DO NOT WANT THEIR FAMILY THERE; (3) No-one will return to earth from the dead to warn people of hell's reality; (4) Anyone who desires to seek God will find him in the Scriptures.

Revelation 20:11-14 reveals that after the final judgement, hell and all of its inhabitants will be cast into the lake of fire with the devil and his followers where all will dwell for eternity. "And I saw a great white throne, and him that sat on it, from whose face the earth and the heaven fled away; and there was found no place for them. And I saw the dead (spiritually), small and great, stand before God; and the books (of the Bible) were opened: and another book was opened, which is the book of life: and the dead (unbelievers) were judged out of those things which were written in the books, according to their works. And the sea gave up the dead which were in it; and death and hell delivered up the dead which were in them: and they were judged every man according to their works. And death and hell were cast into the lake of fire. This is the second death."

Conclusion: Believing in Jesus Christ is the only way to escape hell!
