Lucille L Nellis

Lucille L. Nellis, with her family by her side, passed away peacefully at her home in Dillon, MT on June 20, 2017 at the age of 102. Lucille has lived in Dillon with her daughter Phyllis since 2004.

Lucille was a beloved daughter, mother, sister, wife, aunt, grandmother and great grandmother. She was a role model, teacher, matriarch, artist, author and a good listener. A friend to anyone she touched with her wisdom and compassion.

Lucille is survived by 7 of her 8 children, who live throughout the western US. She is also survived by 20 grandchildren, 26 great grandchildren and 5 great-great grandchildren.

Lucille became a widow at age 56. Her gypsy spirit kicked in and she traveled extensively to visit her children and grandchildren, many times kidnapping a grandchild to share in her adventure.

Lucille will be greatly missed. In honor of her memory we encourage you to hug someone you love.

TY CANADY "FRIEND"

When someone passes away in our small town there is usually an outpouring of love and kind words being shared in honor of the one who was lost and the family and friends left behind....

Last week Dillon lost a good man, last week Ty Canady passed away, last week my friend went to heaven. Ty was a friend to many and yet he had very few friends. He was a kind man with a heart the size of Texas and most residents would never know that about him. You see Ty was our local homeless man and most people never gave him the time of day, most never took 5 minutes to say hello....so today I am taking a moment to introduce most of you to him.

I met Ty 8 years ago while working at Safeway. I was outside gathering carts and I saw this man gathering carts already, as he pushed a long line of carts into the front doors of Safeway he said "good morning ma'am". I asked him if he was an employee and he said "No, I just thought I would help out" and that was the very moment I became friends with a man named Ty Canady.

About a year after moving here I worked at one of our casinos, Ty would come in and play $5 and pray he would win big! He would get a coffee on the really cold days and make that $5 bucks last hours just so he could stay out of the cold. When my shift ended I would suit up to walk home and this man was waiting for me so he could walk me home and keep me safe. Our brief walks would allow us to get to know each other....did you know he has a family? Did you know he was a gold minor? Did you know he had a good life at one point in time? I did, I knew, but I also took the time to talk to him.

Over the next couple of years I would see him all over our little town and I would always take the time to say hello.

About a year ago I was sitting out front of Safeway at the tables and Ty walked over and asked if he could join me...I said "hell yes man, sit down, take a load off" we talked for about an hour.

He offered me half of the deli sandwich he just bought and we had lunch. He told me about his health troubles and how getting to his doctor was really hard for him, I offered to take him to his appointments but he kindly and respectfully declined saying that my gas was better used for my family.

This past winter I noticed Ty was living next to me in his fan...He would come and sit on my porch for hours and talk with me, we laughed and cried a lot! I offered him a seat at my table for dinner and again he respectfully declined. Thanksgiving was right around the corner and I begged for him to join me and my family for the day and he said he had a seat at one of our local churches, I fixed him a plate anyway. I would check on him constantly to make sure he had enough warm blankets and food he always told me not to worry about him and tat he would be just fine ~

Ty knew all my kids by name and he would always offer up some kind of treat. This man who had no home to his name still offered up whatever he had to those who had more than him.

He was a kind soul with wealth beyond what the eye can see. He had so much to offer all of us and yet so many of us in this town refused to see what he had and who he was!

Being rich isn't about money its about what the heart holds and what you have to offer this world we live in, Ty had an abundance of wealth and riches to offer and wasn't given the chance to offer them.

I am blessed to have known this man and my children are better people because of what he taught them...that love is blind, wealth and riches come from the heart, always give even when you think you have nothing to give, never judge a person, be kind to everyone you meet because you may find that the homeless man next door isn't just some homeless man. You might see that the person next to you is just that a person...

So until we meet again my friend...I will keep your memory alive and share your story as often as possible. Thank you for loving me the way you did and thank you for always being "the gentleman next door".

Sincerely

SaraJane

DILLON CUBS HONOR COACH WHITWORTH

The Dillon Cubs honored a former coach and manager at their home game Saturday against Anaconda. Gail Whitworth was the Cubs Coach in 1981 and was their manager from 1982 to 2000. He was awarded coach of the year for Montana in 1993 taking his team to claim the title of State A American Legion Champions.

The Cubs won both games for the day going 8-7 in the first and the second game was the icing on the cake with a 19-9 win.

The first game the Cubs were down 7-3 with one out left with runners at first and second when Ben Jones hit a singled and Jace Fitzgerald scored. The next batter Preston Hales was hit by a pitch and the bases were loaded. Cole Johnson came up but walked to force another runner in and Pete Gibson hit a three-run triple to right center field and sent the Cubs to the winners column.

The second game was so pretty, with a total for both teams of 3 hit batter and 29 players with walks. The teams each had 4 pitchers try to fine the plate in a good fashion with out a lot of success. The American Legion changed its rules and put a limit on the number of pitches that can be thrown by a pitcher this year. The teams then have to keep on which games are coming and what pitchers maybe needed, and how many pitches and how many days it has been since they pitched. Sometimes there is just not enough relief pitchers to close out a game and make it look good while keeping future games and their timing in mind.

The Dillon Cubs pitchers hit two of the batters and walked 11. The Anaconda A's hit one and had the other 18 walks.

Change Old Central Business District Zoning: Area to be changed from R-3 to an R-2 district; Starting at Railroad tracks go East to Idaho St. -- So. to Orr street -- West back to Railroad Street -- North to corner of Reeder Street. This change encompasses a 2 block area. NOTE: There will be a public hearing held August 8th City Hall. Committeeman Stoker stated this would be the first step in changing downtown off street parking issue.

Off Street Parking Presentation: Ed Mooney presented an informational video explaining a procedure that may be used in a off-street parking study taken off the Bozeman document. The presentation presented information with facts, figures and formulas of how to proceed with figuring out what Dillon would need. Mooney strongly recommends someone pays to have a

Attorney General Tim Fox Elected Vice-President of the National Association of Attorneys General

Fox Will Serve as President of NAAG in 2020

Montana Attorney General Tim Fox was unanimously elected Vice-President of the National Association of Attorneys General (NAAG), Thursday, while the association met for its annual Summer Meeting in Big Sky, MT. Fox's election to the position of Vice-President puts him in-line to be President of NAAG in calendar year 2020.

Speaking to his election, Attorney General Fox said, "I'm humbled and honored to be unanimously chosen by my attorney general colleagues, both Democrat and Republican, from across the country to serve as the new Vice-President of NAAG. It's hard to find a better organization of elected officials who focus on collaboration to solve the most pressing problems facing our country, and I look forward to continuing the great work of NAAG as the association's Vice-President to better serve the people of Montana."

With his election to the position of Vice-President, Fox will have served on the NAAG Executive Committee for seven and a half of his eight years in office, by the conclusion of his second term.

In a statement regarding General Fox's election to the position of NAAG Vice-President, Immediate Past President, Attorney General George Jepsen (D) of Connecticut, said, "General Fox is a man of integrity and fine character, and NAAG will be well served with him on the leadership team. I look forward to seeing what General Fox will accomplish for NAAG over the next three and a half years, as I have no doubt that, under his leadership, NAAG will continue its fine work serving the people of this country."

Attorney General Derek Schmidt of Kansas was elected the new NAAG President. Attorney General Jeff Landry of Louisiana was elected NAAG President-Elect.

About NAAG:

The National Association of Attorneys General helps the 56 state and territorial attorneys general fulfill the responsibilities of their offices and assists in the delivery of high quality legal services. NAAG's mission is: "To facilitate interaction among attorneys general as peers and to facilitate the enhanced performance of attorneys general and their staffs. NAAG fosters an environment of "cooperative leadership," helping attorneys general respond effectively to emerging state and federal issues.
