BSSG National Anthem contest winner selected

By Dan Dragan

The 8th annual Big Sky State Games National Anthem Contest winner is Abbi Lemelin of Dillon. The eleven year old just finished her 5th grade year at Park View Elementary.

Lemelin will sing the National Anthem at the 32nd Annual Big Sky State Games Opening Ceremonies on Friday, July 14 in Billings.

She began performing at the age of six, singing at her church. At nine, Lemelin started singing the National Anthem at school sporting events. Since then she has performed for numerous University of Montana Western football and basketball games.

Lemelin also has sung the National Anthem at softball events for Beaverhead County High School and for several middle school events.

Other than singing, Lemelin enjoys riding horses and playing basketball and softball. One hobby Lemelin enjoys more than anything is spending time with her grandpa at the ranch.

She is beyond excited to sing the National Anthem for Opening Ceremonies. Gates open at 5:30 p.m. and the Parade of Athletes begins at 7:30 p.m. at Wendy's Field at Daylis Stadium.

To register for the Big Sky State Games visit www.bigskygames.org or call (406) 254-7426 for more information.

Big Sky State Games Major Sponsors are Kampgrounds of America, First Interstate Bank, and BlueCross BlueShield of Montana. Wendy's sponsors Opening Ceremonies.

To the editor, Courtesy Counts!

On July 4th please do not forget your neighbors' dogs and cats.

Firecracker sounds, whether small or big, scare the hair and hide off dogs and cats.

The big bang sounds are so stressful for dogs and cats that they even "pee their pants" and urinate on themselves.

Let us all (including our neighbors' dogs and cats) have a joyous and courteous July 4th.

BCD Tidbit – Recycling

Beaverhead Conservation District is a political subdivision created by the Montana Legislature in 1950 to help carry out locally led conservation initiatives throughout Beaverhead County. We will be writing tidbits for the local newspaper regarding conservation initiatives every other week.

We have all heard how recycling is important to the world. As you look down the aisles of the grocery store for your favorite soup or soda, you are surrounded by recyclable items such as plastic, glass, aluminum, and paper products. Recycling is an amazing process where these items can be repurposed into new products.

In general, recycling facilities have specific infrastructure to take specific types of recycling products. For example, greasy pizza boxes are commonly placed in cardboard recycling bins. Unfortunately, they cannot be recycled and have to be removed manually at the recycling facility which slows down the entire recycling process. This is why it is so important to check with your recycling facility to ensure you're recycling products that are able to be recycled with their infrastructure.

Here in Dillon, there are many options for recycling. We are lucky to have the Beaverhead Recycling group who has made the process much easier. We are able to recycle mixed paper (includes magazines, newspapers, sticky notes, colored and white paper, etc.), tin, steel, aluminum cans, and flattened corrugated cardboard (flattened and no oil/grease soaked boxes) in town. At this time, Dillon does not accept plastics, but the Butte recycling accepts plastics #1 and #2. There are very limited recycling options for glass in Montana, but it is always a good idea to check in with local co-ops or businesses to see if they will be able to reuse your glass. The Dillon recycling posts are located a few different places including off of Hwy 91 N near West Electric, the Alley South of Sparky's, the middle school, and West Electric. The landfill also accepts large appliances, scrap metal, and electronic waste. Be sure to check out their webpage before heading out at http://beaverheadcounty.org/wp-content/uploads/2016/12/2017-Recycling-Poster.pdf

Overall, recycling is important for many reasons! It allows us to reuse materials, fill landfills slower, and helps minimize air pollution. If unable to recycle items, upcycling is still an option! Here are a few tips on ways to reduce your waste.

1. Reuse glass to make storage containers, drinking glasses, or gardening pots for herbs or small plants. If cannot reuse, check in with nearby coops to see if they have a glass recycling program.
2. Use reusable grocery bags! If you forget your reusable bags, take the used bags to Safeway to be recycled into bags again.
3. Store and take plastics #1 and #2 to Butte to be recycled
4. Compost any food scraps to upcycle into your garden.
5. Buy products based on what can be recycled in Dillon. If there aren't many options, talk to the grocery stores and ask for more city specific recyclable products.

There has an abundance of issues that the mayor, city employees, city committee and council members have been working on. Their plates are full. It is easy to be a judge if you are not in the mud doing the work. Before you condemn the city workforce get your facts and then take those thoughts and talk to people directly involved.

Why is it that taxpayers become complacent and don't take time to attend the city meetings? The city elected and appointed officials are managers of your tax dollars and appreciated hearing from you. Help them sharpen their management skills by sharing your ideas via attending a meeting every now and then.

Humans have different visions, different ideas, education, principles, values and experiences that make them who they are and how they reason as individuals. This is why it is important for you to be pro-active with city government. Attend meetings, call your representatives visit with personnel at city hall…

I attend as many meetings as I can, listen to audio tapes and read minutes before I write articles. I do my best to write what I hear. I can't include an hour of dialog so I do reduce the information down and still present the facts as I heard them. It is important not to take my word. Go to the city get copies of minutes, audio tapes or go on line at www.dillonmt.org and attend meetings to acquire the information in its entirety.

- Mayor Klakken has rebuild the web site making it user friendly and extremely easy to access information from. On the site is the founding documents, minutes, ordinances, city maps and much more.

When we are not directly involved with eye to eye contacts, open communication then we become isolated and our outlook gets smaller. We might depend on papers, internet, face book (someone's opinion) to acquire information. It is important for humans to stay true to their own ethics (beliefs) by not looking to others to tell us what is happening.

There is an election in November where many of the council members and mayor will be up for election. Do your research, you might want to attend a city meeting, and check the box that marks the name of the person that will work for you as well as all the taxpayers.

"The Quest for the Junk Yard Dragon"

Thursday June 29, 2017 at 10 am at the Museum Depot

"The Quest for the Junkyard Dragon" featuring puppeteer Markie Scholz will be presented at (place) on (date), ShowTime(s) at (time) as part of the Summer Reading Program; Build a Better World. "The Quest for the Junkyard Dragon" is sponsored by (Sponsor). As the owner of Dragons Are Too Seldom Puppet Productions, Scholz creates an event that looks and feels life-size with puppets ranging from six inches to six feet in size. The "Quest for the Junkyard Dragon" is a delight for young and old.

Dragons, trolls, witches, screaming meemies hassle Sham, our heroine. Sham uses her creativity so that she can figure out how to get by each of them. She must find the Junkyard Dragon. Together, they will create a plan to regain her place in the kingdom and Build a Better World. During this forty five minute journey, Sham creates friendships and escape the evil forces who try to keep her from Skavang, the dragon who shuns humans but collects their trash. The script is written with a great deal of dry humor to entertain adults as well as children. "I love fantasy." says Scholz, "In it, good and evil come clothed in all sorts of strange and wonderful shapes and sizes."

Scholz is one of the original founders of the troupe, Dragons Are Too Seldom Puppet Productions. During their 45+ year history, she has performed in over 40 states and six countries as part of the troupe and as a one-person show. She brings magic and the wonder of fantasy everywhere she goes.

For further information, contact Lori Roberts at 683-4544.
