Dillon Public Library Presents "The Quest for the Junk Yard Dragon"

Thursday June 29, 2017 at 10 am at the Museum Depot
"The Quest for the Junkyard Dragon" featuring puppeteer
Markie Scholz will be presented at Dillon Public Library on Thursday, June 29, Show Time 10 am at the Museum Depot as part of the Summer Reading Program; Build a Better World.

As the owner of Dragons Are Too Seldom Puppet Productions, Scholz creates an event that looks and feels life-size with puppets ranging from six inches to six feet in size.
The "Quest for the Junkyard Dragon" is a delight for young and old. Dragons, trolls, witches, screaming meemies hassle Sham, our heroine. Sham uses her creativity so that she can

Scholz is one of the original founders of the troupe, Dragons
Are Too Seldom Puppet Productions. During their 45+ year history, she has performed in over 40 states and six countries as part of the troupe and as a one-person show.

ADDRESSING RUMORS

Hello Dillon,

This is Kyle from Sportswear and Design.

I want to address any rumors that you may have heard.

No! We are not leaving town.

Dillon has supported my family and I through some of our toughest times, and I feel that by leaving town it would be a slap in the face of our community.

When Karen and I were visiting hospitals and talking to doctors and nurses she always made it a point to brag about how great Dillon is, and how they have supported our family.

Thank you for reading this and I hope it will ease the rumors going around.

Sincerely,

The Gibson Family and the
Sportswear & Design Crew

DUI Accountability Court Graduation

On October 13, 2015, the Beaverhead County DUI Accountability Court received a federal grant and through the collaboration of Loren Tucker, Fifth Judicial District Judge, local law enforcement, judicial, legal, mental health and chemical dependency professionals was started. The DUI court seeks to reduce DUI incidents in the community, provide appropriate treatment, reduce recidivism, save tax dollars, enhance public safety, and ensure timely entry into treatment after conviction.

The Beaverhead County DUI Accountability Treatment Court began with six (6) participants, and on April 13, 2017, held its first graduation ceremony graduating Bob Smith and Bill Johnson.

Bob Smith, the first participant in the Treatment Court, was a 7th time DUI offender and had participated in all of the treatment that the Department of Corrections had to offer. He was headed for prison. The DUI Court screened Mr. Smith and accepted him into the program.

It was hard for him to complete this program, which lasted 18 months as he lived and worked approximately 7 miles from Dillon and had no driver's license. He had to attend chemical dependency treatment, group meetings, AA meetings, weekly appearances in the DUI Court and give numerous random UA tests. This meant he had to get time off of work and find rides to Dillon several times a week. Luckily he has an employer who was very supportive of him and understood what it was going to take to help his employee successfully complete this program.

Bob stated, "Making the decision to get sober is easy, but staying sober and dealing with life's complications is the hard part. This program allows me to be sober while I am learning to deal with life's problems."

Bill Johnson was a 3rd DUI offender. While not a felony conviction, like Mr. Smith's he was facing a substantial fine and a year in jail. The fine and jail sentence would be suspended if he successfully completed the DUI Accountability Treatment Court.

Mr. Johnson faced the same challenges in the Treatment Court as his license was also suspended and he lost his job. Through his perseverance and help from friends, he worked through all of these challenges to successfully complete the Treatment Court. Today he is a big advocate of AA and on any given day you can find him opening the Alana Club, making coffee, and maybe you could even talk him into a game of Scrabble.

Bill stated, "The Accountability Court has been a wonderful program for me and has taught me to be accountable. I can now look in the mirror and not blame someone else. The Accountability Court has saved me and kept me from going down the wrong path; it has saved my life."

The DUI Accountability Court team is extremely proud of these two individuals and the hard work and dedication they both exhibited to complete this program.

These graduates know that even though they have graduated from the Treatment Court, they cannot let their guard down and forget everything they have learned. They know that their addiction to alcohol is for a lifetime and that they will always need to use the tools provided to them through the Treatment Court.

Anyone interested in learning more about the DUI Accountability Court is encouraged to contact the DUI Court Coordinator, Claris Yugas at 683-3776 or cyugas@mt.gov

Reminder of Recreation Fee Changes at Piney Boat Launch July 1

The Forest Service would like to remind visitors to the Georgetown Lake area that beginning July 1 and continuing through September fees at the Piney Boat Launch will be $5/day per vehicle.

A season pass will be available for $50 from BSRC at Piney Campground. Senior and Golden Age passes will be honored for day use fees. Fees will not be charged fall through spring when the concessionaire does not manage recreation sites around Georgetown Lake.

The Pintler Ranger District is making changes to the concessionaire campground and day use site management permit issued to Big Sky Recreation Company, LLC (BSRC) for the Beaverhead-Deerlodge National Forest at and near Georgetown Lake vicinity.

Fees will be implemented by BSRC at Piney Boat Launch in order to provide continued maintenance and improvements to the site. "Through the fee implementation we will be able to make improvements to the site," said Eric Tomasik, acting District Ranger. Future improvements to Piney Boat launch will include repairs to the boat ramp, picnic areas, shoreline protection, and signing. Implementation of fees at Piney, and other recreation sites across the forest, were identified in a 2008 Recreation Facility Analysis that made recommendations to address deteriorating facilities, increased user demand, and program costs.

For additional information, contact the Pintler Ranger District at (406) 859-3211.

HABITAT IMPROVEMENT PROJECTS PROPOSED FOR SW MONTANA WMAs

Montana Fish, Wildlife and Parks is proposing a habitat improvement project for the Robb-Ledford and Blacktail Wildlife Management Areas southeast of Dillon.

Cottonwood Bench looking West towards the Snowcrest Range 1921

The proposed project includes removing expanding conifer trees to prevent the loss of sagebrush grassland habitat, increase sage-grouse nesting habitat, and increase year-round forage for elk, mule deer and other species.

The Robb-Ledford and Blacktail WMAs provide year-round habitat, including critical winter habitat, for elk, mule deer, moose, pronghorn, greater sage-grouse, and ruffed grouse.

The project is proposed to run through the year 2026 to minimize the impact at any given time and place. Volunteers will be solicited to help with the on-the-ground implementation of this project minimizing cost and building bridges between the community and local biologists.

The completed environment assessment for the proposal can be found here:

BEAVERHEAD RIVER COWBOY CHURCH

YOU'VE HEARD IT SAID THAT JESUS IS THE GREAT PHYSICIAN

WELL CHURCH IS LIKE A HOSPITAL

SICK PEOPLE GO TO CHURCH....

TRYING TO GET WELL

AND SOMETIMES....JUST LIKE A HOSPITAL...

SOME PEOPLE DON'T MAKE IT.

SOME PEOPLE REFUSE TO ACCEPT TREATMENT

SOME PEOPLE DIE INTENTIONALLY

CHURCH WILL NOT MAKE PEOPLE A CHRISTIAN

THE BIBLE EXPLAINS THAT MOST PEOPLE IN FACT

WILL GO TO HELL.

THIS MEANS THAT MOST PEOPLE WILL REFUSE TO LISTEN TO THE TRUTH . THEY HAVE THEIR VERY OWN IDEAS ABOUT GOD

AND WHEN THEY HEAR SOMETHING CONTRARY TO WHAT THEY BELIEVE THEY ARE GOING TO YELL AND SCREAM ABOUT IT.

IF SOMEONE CHOOSES TO NOT BELIEVE THE GOSPEL...

DON'T DWELL ON IT.

CONTINUE TO PRAY FOR THEM.....

AND THEN

MOVE ON TO THE NEXT PERSON

CHRISTIANS CAN NOT SAVE PEOPLE

GOD DOES THAT

CHRISTIANS ONLY TEACH PEOPLE WHAT GOD HAS SAID.

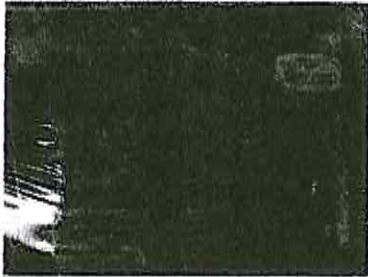

AND THE BIBLE SAYS THAT MOST STUDENTSFLUNK THE EXAM.
