Dale Garland Buckingham

2/13/1931 - 6/28/2017

On June 28, 2017 Dale was surrounded by loving family, when his Lord and Savior Jesus Christ decided to call him home.

Dale was born in Anaconda, Montana on February 13, 1931 to Harry and Dorothy Duvall (Sharp). Dale's Mother, Dorothy remarried C.W. Buckingham. His stepfather raised him from the age of 4 years old thru high school. Dales parents were dedicated Christians and passed much of their knowledge and faith on to Dale and his brother Ron.

He went to grade school in a one room school house in Argenta, MT.

Today this one room school house can be seen at the Beaverhead County Museum in Dillon, MT.

Dale had fond memories of his childhood. One summer his Father took him to the main Crow Indian Reservation in Billings, MT to combine wheat with him. His Father and him slept in a tent on the Reservation at night and worked all day.

He worked on many ranches cowboying, combining, haying and tractoring, to include the Hirschy and the Zebrath Ranch in the Big Hole, the Ferris ranch in Dillon, the Kane and Rock River ranches in Wyoming and the Merritt ranch in Arizona.

He met the love of his life, Cellus (Candi) Carter, in 1951. He was in the Navy stationed in San Diego when he met Candi. They dated for a year, and soon as Dale was out of boot camp, they eloped to Yuma, Arizona and were married on March 22, 1952.

They had five children, Dwight Calvert (Preston), Bibiana Leilani, Garland Carter, Rhonda Dale and Candette Prim. They raised their children on a mini ranch in Lakeside, CA, where they had horses, cows, goats, pigs, chickens, cats, dogs, rabbits and more.

In December 1950 was when Dale joined the United States Navy and was in the Korean War, the Cuban Missile Crisis and the Dominican Republic Intervention. During his Navy career, he was on seven ships and three shore stations. He retired from the Navy in April 1970 at the rank of Master Chief. He started a second career at the United States Postal Service, where he was a Letter Carrier with a walking route and worked for approximately 8 years. Dales next career was with the County of Riverside, CA. He started in the local Hemet office and through promotions held many titles including, Eligibility Worker, Eligibility Supervisor, and Medical Eligibility Data Specialist. He is the one who created this position, which was the liaison between the county system and the state data system. He worked here for 13 years and did his final retirement in 1992.

Dale loved to write in his free time and read Cowboy poetry.

Even though he was very successful in the big city, he missed his roots and in the summer of 2010 returned to his home town of Dillon Montana. Once back home, he immediately fitted right back in and volunteered for several organizations, including the Beaverhead County Museum. He was also a member of the NRA, the American Legion and Chaplin of the VFW. Dale was an amazing man, and very humble. His love for people, his kindness and his devotion to God stood out clearly in the minds and hearts of those who knew him. He was married to his beautiful wife Candi for 62 1/2 years before she went home to be with Jesus. He continued to wear his wedding band every day for the rest of his life.

What a great comfort it is to know that they are holding hands in heaven now. Dale is survived by his 5 adult children, their spouses. Eight grandchildren, Rachel, Joshua, Hannah, Joshua, Cherise, Leland, Michael, Gregory and Prim and 13 great grandchildren.

Dale would not be happy if we did not include what was most important to him. As we mentioned above, Dale loved people, but most of all was his love for Jesus Christ. In his last days at the hospital and the facility, he ministered to everyone who walked in. Even though he was the one who was sick and on hospice, he was not thinking of himself, but of you, the people he knew, the community he lived in. He wanted you all to know that there is a loving God who loves YOU and wants to spend eternity with you. He kept saying 'if you want to see me again, you need to have a relationship with Jesus Christ'. Dale wanted to help everyone and ensure that they would have eternal love and happiness and always referred to John 14:6 "Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me." So, please, not just for Dale, but for yourself consider a personal relationship with Jesus Christ and it will change your life for the better, we promise.

To a wonderful man, we love you and already miss you. We will join you some day.

The following poems tells about his life.

The Cowboy and the Mountain Gal

Now settle back and listen
To this story I'm gonna tell,
Of how a young cowboy fell
In love with a little mountain gal.
It was many years ago on
A cold Montana day.
That into the world another
Little cowboy found his way.
Two years later in West
Virginia on a cold and wintry morn.
In a small house up on a ridge a little mountain girl was born.
Now mountain folk and cowboys
In case you didn't know,
Are just about the finest, as far
As people go.
Now the mountain girl and
The cowboy grew up worlds apart.
But God had a plan laid out
On how it all would start.
Now the cowboy bid farewell
To Montana and his horse.

To San Diego and the Navy
He did set his course.
Now ships and seas and
Foreign lands were what was
On his mind,
And these things were sure to happen, but something else he'd also find.
That this little mountain gal
Had moved to California too.
And one day she would Capture his heart and make
Him say I do.
So one day down in Yuma
They became man and wife.
With stars in their eyes
a dream in their hearts
They started their new life.
Trials and hardships were Sure to come, and of these
They had a few.

 But God made sure that peace,
And love and happiness was
There too.

 I'm sure if you were to ask
Them how the time went by.
They would look at you in wonder and
Say it seemed to fly.

 Now fifty years have come and gone since.
Their wedding day

 I've watched as God's
Loving hand has kept them

Along the way.

 Now 40 some years ago I came Into this world.

 The product of a cowboy and
A little mountain girl.

 I think I'm very qualified
To tell you what I know.

 So let me say just this
One thing before I have to go.

 I wouldn't trade my mom
And dad for anything in this world.
Because I love the Cowboy and his little mountain girl.
Stormy Weather
 Another year has come
And gone and you both
Are still together.
And somehow by the Grace of God through
Good times and stormy weather,

 You decided that you
Wouldn't quit, like so many others had.

 That you would stay and Give your kids a
Mother and a dad.

 You buckled down and
Went to work,

 And about a year
Into the marriage,
You produced a little

 Bundle of joy,
That filled your baby carriage.

 Now that boy that was born so long
Ago, it's been so many years,
Has seen the rough times,
And the good, heard

Thanks Dad.

 There will be a Funeral Service on Saturday July 1, 2017 at 10:00 am at Brundage Funeral Home in Dillon, Montana. There is a guestbook available online at www.brundagefuneralhome.com

 The laughter and seen
The tears.

 The times that
Things seemed impossible
And I watched you pull together.

 You'd chart a course,
Embrace your brood and bring
Us safe through stormy weather.

 Now, I didn't call
This poem, Stormy Weather because I Thought your marriage was a mess.

 Stormy Weather is part of every life,
But many fail the test.

 But not you mom and dad,
You passed the test and I just
Simply want to say,
Thanks for hanging in there
And not letting life's storms
Blow us all away.

Attorney General Fox Applauds Decision to Begin Process of Rescinding Waters of the U.S. Rule

As one of the leading opponents to the "Waters of the United States" regulation, Montana Attorney General Tim Fox applauded U.S. EPA and U.S. Army Corps of Engineers decision Tuesday to begin the process of rescinding the rule.

"As one of the primary legal challengers to WOTUS, I'm happy to say the decision to rescind this unlawful rule is a victory for all Americans, and is particularly good news for rural states like Montana," said Fox. "We all want a clean and healthy environment, but the WOTUS rule wasn't about environmental protection—it was about control. I'm pleased to see the new administration respects the role states play in protecting our environment, and I look forward to doing my part to ensure future generations can enjoy Montana's outdoor treasures."

John Youngberg- Executive Vice-President of the Montana Farm Bureau Federation

"Montana farmers and ranchers value a clean and healthy environment, but regulating every puddle and irrigation ditch in the country from Washington, D.C. is bad public policy. The Montana Farm Bureau Federation is pleased to see the administration reverse this flawed rule, as our members appreciate having the ability to continue being good stewards of the environment without heavy-handed federal regulations."

Errol Rice- Executive Vice-President of the Montana Stockgrowers Association

"The Montana Stockgrowers Association applauds the announcement that the Environmental Protection Agency has filed an official proposal to withdraw the 2015 Waters of the US (WOTUS) Rule. As a headwaters state, Montana is a leader in water quality, and ranchers are proud of the standards we live and promote daily."

In June 2015, Attorney General Tim Fox and 12 other states filed a lawsuit against the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) and the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers (Corps) over the new regulation broadly expanding the definition of "Waters of the U.S." under the Clean Water Act. The case was filed in the U.S. district court for the District of North Dakota.

In their complaint, the states contend the new definition of "Waters of the U.S." violated provisions of the Clean Water Act, the National Environmental Policy Act, and the United States Constitution.

The states were successful in obtaining an injunction from the U.S. Supreme Court, preventing nationwide implementation of the rule until conclusion of the litigation. The litigation is still pending in federal court.

Letter to the Editor

Last week I saw a scientist on television talking about the vastness of the universe. And his question was, "is there intelligent life somewhere else in the universe?" I thought to myself; I sure hope so because intelligent life sure missed this old planet. Let me give you a few examples:

Last year the countries on this planet spent a combined total of $1,570,000,000,000, for war materials and military. Money just spent to kill each other. The United States was at the top of the list spending more than the next top 15 countries combined. yes, and President Trump wants even more money for the military while cutting out programs for our children. Where is the intelligence here?

Every minute 13 children die in the world because of poverty. Last year over 3 million children died on this planet because of hunger.

Just in the United States, 683,000 rapes were reported last year. 367,832 robberies were reported. 45,000 people died because of no health care. 17,000 children died in the United States last year because of the lack of health care insurance. Where is the intelligence here?

Watch the news, read the newspapers. The list goes on and on. Intelligent life cannot be found on this old planet.

Do You Know the Truth... What is the truth about genuine freedom?

(#47)

---We believe the following: (1) the Bible was given by the inspiration of God as stated in 2 Timothy 3:16-17; (2) all statements made in this and any ensuing articles will be based on what the Bible says; (3) the Bible only is the reliable source of spiritual & doctrinal truth; (4) all beliefs in conflict with Biblical teachings are false.---

In considering this subject we must consider what freedom is not. Anarchy against God and His law is certainly not freedom. Anarchy brings spiritual darkness, poverty, and destruction. This is a fact recorded throughout the history of the nations, as well as among the God rejecting nations of the world today.

The infidel or atheist may think he is free, but the fact is he is in bondage to man-made laws that prevent him from considering obvious manifestations of God so obviously seen in the creation, Psalm 19:1-6.

Rebellion against "The Establishment", riding around the country with a dog named Boo, stealing eggs from the farmers hen because you have no money, then accepting provisions from the same generous farmer, isn't freedom. Freedom doesn't mean we aren't accountable and responsible.

Shouting loudly that one is free doesn't make one free. I once read about an insane man who stood one day in a state hospital defying the orders of the doctors and nurses, shouting, "I'm free, I'm free"! In his own demented mind he was free. But others had to take care of his wife and children. Others had to provide his food, clothing, and shelter until the day he died.

Another idea is that rejecting the Bible and it's principles for life will bring freedom. Many seem to think they can pick and choose what part of the Bible to believe. For example, many choose to believe in heaven but not hell. Possibly the thought is that if they don't believe it they couldn't possibly go there even though they reject God's regarding the fact that...True freedom begins with repentance & belief in the Lord Jesus Christ as their personal Savior, Acts 20:21; John 8:36, and continues as the individual submits himself to God & worships Him in spirit and in truth.
