ROTARY ADDRESS SIGN

Who is trying to find you? Fire Department, ambulance, law enforcement, mail or package delivery, stock inspector, food delivery, friends?

Help them out and be in compliance with Beaverhead County ordinance #2000-04 that states, in part, "All owners of structure shall display and maintain the assigned address sign....." And, "Each residence sign shall be green with reflective white numbers.....minimum of 3 inches square."

On Nov 16, 2016, the Montana Standard ran an article from Beaverhead County Sheriff Frank Kluesner requesting county citizens obey the local ordinance requiring property owners to mark their property with the proper address. "It is extremely difficult to respond quickly to any emergency when emergency service personnel cannot locate your property," Kluesner said in the article.

As a fund raiser in support of the local community, particularly with scholarships, the Dillon Rotary club is offering address signs that meet the county ordinance. They are sturdy metal (6" x 18") with a green background and reflective white numbers (3 inches square). The sign is pre-drilled for easy horizontal or vertical mounting and costs a mere $20.

The sign bears your own house, rental or business number, is easy to read from the street, even at night, and looks neat and professional. We offer a quick turn-around time and a Rotary member will contact you for delivery or pickup service.

For more information or to order a sign, please contact any member of the Dillon Rotary club or call Marty at 660-1352. Please specify whether you want horizontal or vertical letters on your sign.

they believe "local authorities should have to comply with the law by reporting to federal agents the illegal immigrants they come into contact with."

Regardless of surveys or polls or public opinion, Senate Democrats will try to defeat these two bills using the lame excuse they have already raised that supporting this legislation might somehow ramp up fear in the immigrant community.

Apparently, there is nothing more petrifying than obeying the law.

Democrats' fear of ramping up fear in the immigrant community is misdirected. They should instead focus on the fact that besides the Almighty, the only thing Democrats should fear is themselves. They alone are responsible for the mess they are in and the chaos they have created.

It would be nice to believe Senate Democrats will set aside their partisanship and emotions long enough to do what's right by the American people to vote "yes" on this legislation. But, if history is a prognosticator, don't hold your breath.

So, with countenances drawn and somber defeat on their faces, Democrats will march lockstep into the 2018 midterm elections as weak on crime and weedy on principles as ever.

Street and Alley Meeting

By: MJ

Committee Members Present: Chair Jim McIsaac, John Garry, Russ Schwandt.

City Staff Present: Mayor Klakken, Director of Operations Todd Hazelbaker, Nick Hoem and Diane Armstrong.

Recommendation of Extension of Montana Street Project and Project Grant: RayAnn Sutton of the Main Street Group presented the committee with their proposal for the intersection of Montana Street and Glendale Street. Members of the Main Street Group; RayAnn Sutton, Donna Jones, Kay Roach and Lynn Giles met to work on plans. The complete plan is to design and place curb bulbs, lighting and street furniture at the 2 corners of the intersection of Montana and Glendale Sts. (Great Harvest corner). The bulb would be 7 ft. on the Glendale side and 9 ft. on the Montana St. side. A bike rack was also discussed. The Main Street Group has some money designed for the corner nearest Great Harvest and is planning to write a grant to do the opposite corner. They estimate $27,500.00 per corner. A repeat of Bannack St. and Montana St. intersection will be repeated at Glendale and Montana St.

Motion: John Garry made a motion to recommend the project to the City Council. Passed.
