SEVERAL SW MONTANA RIVERS TO SEE RESTRICTIONS WEDNESDAY

High water temperatures and low stream flows have prompted Montana Fish, Wildlife and Parks to implement "hoot owl" restrictions on several rivers in Southwest Montana starting Wednesday.

The following sections of rivers will be closed to fishing daily from 2 p.m. to midnight until conditions improve effective Wednesday:

- Big Hole River from Saginaw Bridge on Skinner Meadows Road to the Mouth of the North Fork Big Hole River;
- Big Hole River from Notch Bottom Fishing Access Site to the confluence with the Beaverhead River;
- Lower Beaverhead River from Anderson Lane to confluence with Big Hole River;
- Lower Madison River from Ennis Dam to the mouth;
- Lower Gallatin River from the confluence with the Madison River at Three Forks to Sheds Bridge (Hwy 84) near Four Corners;
- East Gallatin River from Spring Hill Road Bridge (Hwy 411) to the confluence with the Gallatin River;
- The entire Jefferson River

These restrictions come two weeks later in the year than the first restrictions seen in 2015 and 2016.

Regional Fisheries Manager Travis Horton said, "We've been fairly fortunate so far this year with flows in general, but temperatures are high and could stay that way for a while."

Additional restrictions are possible on other stretches of these or other southwest Montana rivers in the coming weeks.

For up-to-date information on restrictions related to drought, visit http://fwp.mt.gov/news/restrictions/.

Whetstone Fire 371 acres and Meyers Fire 79 acres
Containment: 0%

On the Meyers Fire crews are working to tie a fireline into several rock screes that are in the area. Today bucket drops were utilized where appropriate. The dozer continues to improve a road which will help make the fire more accessible.

For the Whetstone Ridge Fire, crews are improving trails and working to tie the trails into old burned areas from previous years. Water bucket drops were also used on the Whetstone Ridge Fire where and when needed.

An area closure has been established for the Whetstone Ridge Fire for FS Roads 8671, 5110, 5107 and 5112. The following trails are also closed: 8020 (Whetstone Ridge) and 8109.
