Release of 4 New CDs

The Dillon Junior Fiddlers are celebrating the release of 4 new CDs recorded this spring. With a celebratory concert at the Old Depot Theater on July 30th at 7:00 PM, the group will showcase some of their favorite tunes from the recording session. Following the concert, the public is invited to share in light refreshments and be among the first to purchase a copy of their favorite CD or take advantage of a specially priced boxed set of all 4 CD's. Admission to this event is free as a thank you to all of our local supporters.

Two of the new CDs feature the traditional fiddle tunes that form the backbone of the Dillon Junior Fiddler's repertoire. They are Golden Memories and Color in the Pan. Celtic Gold is a collection of Irish and Irish-American songs that have been popular with the group through the years. The fourth CD, Montana Mother Lode, highlights the more advanced players in the group with individual solos. The CD was funded in part by the United Way of Beaverhead County.

Parking Is Such Sweet Sorrow

Tyrades! by Danny Tyree

Believe it or not, my only college-era clash with school authorities erupted because the campus was experiencing growing pains. Your cash-strapped author received a ticket for parking on the grass when I simply couldn't find an authorized parking spot in time for class.

So, I guess it was only natural that my interest was piqued by a USA Today article about America's parking crisis. The AVERAGE American motorist spends 17 hours a year searching for parking spots. The quest adds up to an estimated $345 per driver in wasted time, fuel and emissions. (Of course, in urban areas such as New York City, the problem can be five times worse.)

It's a frustrating stalemate. Retailers, government offices and entertainment venues refuse to provide adequate parking or convenient hours. ("How were we to know those dadgum horseless carriages would catch on?") Motorists refuse to utilize mass transit or carpooling. Secretary of State Rex Tillerson has hinted at asking the Israelis and Palestinians to help the feuding parties find a non-nuclear answer.

Some problems come about because developers try imitating a bipartisan congressional deal. ("We have zero customers when we're closed. We anticipate 100 customers at peak hours. So, we'll compromise and build 50 parking spots! After a 2-week recess, we'll commission a study to see why our sales are only half what we expected.")

Set-asides are another problem. I have no qualms about convenient spots for the disabled; but some venues get carried away with Reserved for staff, Reserved for delivery trucks, Reserved for electric cars, Reserved for Amelia Earhart, Reserved for The Once And Future King...("Waiting for Godot? Here's his reserved spot.")

Let's not overlook the problem caused by motorists who return to their vehicle (thus raising the hopes of those jockeying for position) and proceed to take a sloth-like approach to pulling out and going home. Preparations no longer stop with "Is everyone buckled in?" Now it's "Has everyone checked for irregular moles and unusual breast lumps?" Instead of making sure all electronic devices are recharging, the savvy shopper makes sure the audiobook of "War And Peace" works flawlessly from beginning to end before pulling away from the bookstore and risking a second trip.

Spooked by the presence of unsupervised four-year-olds, speeding teen drivers, runaway shopping carts and smartphone-obsessed pedestrians, motorists understandably overcompensate with their defensive parking, although only 24 percent use the AAA's recommended safer method of BACKING into a spot. ("Use my rear-view mirrors? Park BETWEEN the lines? Do I have to cure cancer and world hunger next?")

Of course, some people bring problems on themselves, like the discriminating motorists who circle endlessly, looking for a spot 10 feet closer to the shoe store. News flash: if that's your life philosophy, those new track shoes are probably going to stay in your closet.

More than just causing stress and road rage, the parking problem is subtly altering the parent-child relationship. Instead of listening to hear if baby's first word is "Mama" or "Dada," parents hope the infant will chime in with "I call dibs on Row 6, Spot 7."

Let's find a solution to the parking dilemma before it gets worse. It's bad enough that sprawling lots leave us saying, "Remember where we parked." We're on the verge of shifting to "Remember where we parked ---- and quit playing with that flag Neil Armstrong and Buzz Aldrin planted, Junior!"

Letter to the Editor

Are you sick and tired of the nonsense going on about health care for America? Ok, you can be tired but don't say "sick", because you can't afford to be sick.

The Republicans have had almost 8 years to come up with a workable health care plan. And they still fail! These Republicans call themselves "conservatives" have tried over 50 times to repeal the Affordable Care Act with no plan of their own. And by the way these conservatives spent $87 million dollars of tax payers money trying to repeal the Affordable Care Act.

These conservatives have a good health care plan for themselves but just can't seem to put together a health care plan for America citizens. We also pay these conservatives a big salary with lots of perks to do nothing. Oh, sorry they have done something but not for the middle class or the working poor.

Take a look at all the civilized countries that have health care plans for their citizens. The United States is not on the list. The United States stands alone among developed Nations that lack a universal health care plan.

The conservative plan is a tisket a tasket just buy yourself a casket. What a great plan!!

PUBLIC NOTICE

The new canister site is finished and is open during regular dump hours! If you are taking a load of household trash to the landfill, please follow the signs and use the canisters. We would like to keep the public and our operators safe by keeping people out of the pit whenever possible. If you are dumping yard debris, please continue toward the pit and put it in the yard waste pile. There are also marked canisters for electronics and metal recycling at the new site, please sort your trash accordingly. As always, if you have any questions please call the Solid Waste office at 683-3753.

Thanks,

Beaverhead County Solid Waste

Do You Know the Truth... What is meant by 'Adoption' in the scriptures (Part 2)

---We believe the following: (1) the Bible was given by the inspiration of God as stated in 2 Timothy 3:16-17; (2) all statements made in this and any ensuing articles will be based on what the Bible says; (3) the Bible only is the reliable source of spiritual & doctrinal truth; (4) all beliefs in conflict with Biblical teachings are false.---

Adoption is from compound Greek word meaning "to give to one the position of a mature son." It is used in two ways in the scriptures.

First, it is applied to national Israel, whom God called His Son in Exodus 4:22. In Romans 9:3-4 Paul speaks of the Israelites as his "kinsmen according to the flesh", stating that adoption had reference to them. This is the relationship which God was pleased to establish between himself and the Israelites in preference to all other nations (read Deuteronomy 7:6-8).

Secondly, it refers to the future adoption of our bodies when they are redeemed and glorified. Romans 8:22-23 speaks of the children of God and the entire creation as, "...waiting for the adoption, to wit (namely), the redemption of our body."

Jesus taught that we must be "born again" or "born of the Spirit" in John 3:3-8 & 16-18 or we could not "see the kingdom of God." When we are born again we become the children of God and receive the "Spirit of adoption" as stated in Romans 8:15. Note that we receive the SPIRIT of adoption. Adoption itself (the redemption of our bodies) will occur at the resurrection, 1 Corinthians 15:51-57.

From the time of our new birth, the Spirit "bears witness with our spirit, that we are the children of God," Romans 8:16. The Holy Spirit also testifies of the future adoption of each child of God as noted in Romans 8:23.

Conclusion: 1 John 3:2 states regarding those that have believed on the Lord Jesus Christ and they are "now the sons of God." Since adoption is yet future (Romans 8:23) it cannot be adoption that brings about our spiritual salvation and makes us members of the family of God.

NEVER THROW IN THE TOWEL
USE IT TO WIPE OFF THE SWEAT

AND KEEP ON GOING

HAVE YOU EVER FELT LIKE THROWING IN THE TOWEL?

EVER FEEL LIKE QUITTING?

ELIJA DID. GOD GAVE HIM SUPERNATURAL POWER TO DEFEAT THE FALSE PROPHETS WHO WERE SATAN'S TOOL CAUSING ISRAEL TO SIN

BUT THEN....JEZEBEL SAID SHE WOULD DESTROY HIM ,

AND ELIJA RAN AWAY...BUT HE RAN ON HIS OWN STRENGTH. HE BECAME EXHAUSTED AND IN 1 KINGS 19:4 HE SAID "I'VE HAD ENOUGH" AND ASKED GOD TO KILL HIM

HE WENT FROM VICTORY TO DEFEAT. WHAT HAPPENED? SIMPLY, ELIJA HAD TRUSTED GOD

BUT NOW HE ONLY TRUSTED HIMSELF

IN 2 CORINTHIANS CHAPTER 4, PAUL TALKS ABOUT SATAN'S ATTACKS TRYING TO MAKE YOU QUIT. PAUL SAID "WE ARE HARD PRESSED BUT NOT CRUSHED

PERPLEXED BUT NOT IN DESPAIR

PERSECUTED BUT NOT ABANDONED

STRUCK DOWN BUT NOT DESTROYED"

PAUL SAID THE KEY IS TO LOOK AT GOD

NOT PHYSICAL THINGS

SOMETIMES WE SEE OUR PROBLEMS AND OVERLOOK GOD

SO KEEP YOUR EYES ON JESUS..

AND KEEP ON FIGHTING.
