Zoning Committee 6.13 continued

By: MJ

Compliance Certificates:

#2463 and 2464 Hengler were approved. Located on Vine and No. Pacific

#2465 Norris: Approved with 5 Yea votes/Stoker, Nye, Graham, Erfle, Franks and 1 Nay vote/Garry.

Change Old Central Business District Zoning: Area to be changed from R-3 to an R-2 district: Starting at Railroad tracks go East to Idaho St. -- So. to Orr street -- West back to Railroad Street -- North to corner of Reeder Street. This change encompasses a 2 block area. NOTE: There will be a public hearing held August 8th City Hall. Committeeman Stoker stated this would be the first step in changing downtown off street parking issue.

Off Street Parking Presentation: Ed Mooney presented an informational video explaining a procedure that may be used in a off-street parking study taken off the Bozeman document. The presentation presented information with facts, figures and formulas of how to proceed with figuring out what Dillon would need. Mooney strongly recommends someone pays to have a study done for Dillon on off street parking because the issue is not going away.

Fire and Drought Relief Efforts

Attention 4-H Clubs, Ranchers, Neighbors and Others, You have probably all heard about the devastating fires that have been taking place across the state this summer. There are many benefits, donations and replacement efforts underway.

Here is a list of items needed and a way to help donate that the Nile Staff has sent out to everyone.

Locally, Mike Buyan from Sheridan has graciously started a Go Fund Me page (<https://www.gofundme.com/help-for-eastern-montana-ranches>) to collect funds to purchase needed items, hay, etc. and him as well as others are organizing trucks & supplies to be taken over to Eastern Montana.

Let's help our neighbors in their time of need and pray for some containment on this fire!

Who Knew Dogs Could Keep You So Healthy?

Tyrades! by Danny Tyree

Alas, we haven't been a "dog family" since we had to euthanize poor old Turpy; but a time.com article titled "More Evidence That Owning A Dog Is Really Good For You" certainly grabbed my attention.

Not only can having a dog around the house lead to lower stress levels, decrease the risk of asthma in children and contribute to lower blood pressure, but the responsibility of caring for a canine can jolt older people out of a life-shortening sedentary lifestyle.

(Younger people? Owning a family dog USED to mean lots of romping and frolicking in the Great Outdoors. Now caring for a dog just jolts young couch potatoes into ordering a drone to walk the critter. But I digress.)

A recent study shows that older people who take their dogs for a walk take 2,760 steps more per day on average compared to non-owners. That's an extra 23 minutes a day of moderate exercise!

(Granted, this is very close to the amount of time that we cat owners spend letting the cat in and out ---- and looking at the feline's smug expression that says, "They thought Lincoln freed ALL the slaves? Puh-leeze.")

The findings of that study were strengthened by even more recent research by the University of East Anglia and the Center for Diet and Activity Research at the University of Cambridge.

True, common sense should make such studies unnecessary; but every little reminder/nudge helps. There are probably people out there waiting with bated breath, thinking, "I wish the University of East Anglia and the University of Cambridge would give us some glimmer of indication whether we should leave the oven on while vacationing or give our Social Security number to a Nigerian general's widow. Enquiring minds want to know!"

If you're a self-identifying "older person" or care about someone who is, keep dog ownership in mind as a healthy lifestyle motivator. But, just as not every child gives high-quality lifelong support to an Easter rabbit, not everyone is prepared to care for "Man's Best Friend." Don't be presumptuous and provide a dog without discussing it. ("He followed me home, Ma. Can YOU keep him?")

Last year some anonymous kind soul dumped a mother dog and seven (!) puppies on my then-89-year-old mother. Only Shasta remains from the litter; but I've been foolhardy enough to take her on a few walks, and she could have a bright future competing in Truck & Tractor pulls. I guess whoever left those puppies thought they were giving my mother enough "moderate exercise" to re-create the Fountain of Youth and start singing "On The Good Ship Lollipop."

A mutually beneficial dog/owner relationship is something to prize, but beware of the law of unintended consequences. If all older people start spending an extra 23 minutes a day away from the TV, Pat and Vanna may wind up having a sedentary lifestyle and eating dog food.

Enjoy the relatively inexpensive health benefits of dogs while you still can. "Big Pharma" is probably already investigating ways to horn in on the business. ("Who owns the patent on poodles? Let's buy it up and raise the price of free puppies 10 zillion percent to cover research and development. What do you mean 10 zillion percent of zero is still zero? That's a doggone travesty my congressman needs to look into! Somebody hand me his leash.")

Quarterly Newsletter

June 30, 2017

April started off with our Easter Egg hunt at Vigilante Park and Little Shooters state tournament in Laurel, MT. In Laurel, the competition was stiff, and our team proudly placed 8th out of 19 teams. The Jaycee Auxiliary welcomed a handful of new members to their group during their New Member Recruitment and Pitch, Hit, and Run was another big success this year.

In May, three women were recognized for their dedication to our community by the Jaycee Auxiliary. Kathleen Martinell was honored as the Outstanding Woman of 2017 and Carissa Allen and Krista Maness were both honored as Outstanding Young Women of 2017. Later in May, Abigail Wilkerson was crowned Miss Dillon Jaycee 2017. She will be representing the Dillon Jaycees and "Montana's Biggest Weekend" at various rodeos throughout Montana this summer. Abigail studying Biology and participating in barrel racing, break away roping, and goat tying at the University of Montana Western. Be sure to like and follow the Miss Dillon Jaycee Rodeo Queen page on Facebook to see what she is up to this summer. Lastly, the Jaycees were proud to award four Jaycee scholarships to high school seniors graduating from BCHS. Additionally, the Jaycees were also very proud to present the Kim Baker Scholarship to it's very first recipient. Scholarship were presented by President, Matt Allen and Chaplin, Brandon Ferguson.

June started off with our 4th Annual Red, White, and Blue Golf tournament and our Summer Kickoff Concert featuring Copper Mountain Band and Drew Baldridge. Our golf tournament was our largest one yet, with 23 teams this year. The weather fully cooperated with our events, the bands sounded amazing, and great fun was had by all.

Currently, Jaycee members are selling Tough Enough to Wear Pink raffle tickets to win a box seat for Montana's Biggest Weekend and are planning our Summer Social at the Depot Park on Sunday, August 13 from 4:00-7:00pm. Please come down and have a burger on us, enjoy a cold drink, and learn more about what we do.

Before we know it, Montana's Biggest Weekend will be upon us. Concert tickets are already available online and rodeo ticket sales begin online August 1. Rodeo tickets will also be available at the Jaycee box office Saturday, July 29 from 8:00am -1:00pm or at Womack's Printing Place August 1-29, Monday through Friday, 8:00am-5:00pm. For more information regarding ticket sales, box office hours, the Labor Day Parade, Gold Buckle Club, Calcutta, or seating, please visit our website, www.dillonjaycees.com

Be sure to listen in to our all new Jaycee Minute airing every Monday at 8:20am on KBEV/KDBM for a quick update on what the Jaycees are up to each week! As always, we want to thank all our sponsors and business that donate to our various events. We couldn't do what we do without you!

Biblical Truth...Examination of scriptures used to teach that a saved individual can "fall from grace" (#50)
----We believe the following: (1) the Bible was given by the inspiration of God as stated in 2 Timothy 3:16-17; (2) all statements made in this and any ensuing articles will be based on what the Bible says; (3) the Bible only is the reliable source of spiritual & doctrinal truth; (4) all beliefs in conflict with Biblical teachings are false.---
In Ephesian 2:8-9 it states, "For by grace are ye saved through faith, and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God: Not of works lest any man should boast." It is clear from this scripture that no man can work to attain his spiritual salvation. Working would mean that salvation is not a gift, but a wage.
In spite of what this passages states, there are some who believe that after we have been saved by God's grace, certain sinful works on our part will cause us to fall from that grace. If this were true it would mean that, though Christ died for us "while we were yet sinners," "justified us by His blood," and "saved from wrath through Him" (Romans 5:8-9), we must contribute certain works in order for this action on the part of God and Jesus Christ be permanent (eternal).
Paul makes it very clear that we are not justified (made righteous) by works, but by faith in Romans 4:5, "But to him that works not (i.e., Not to him that works), but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness." In verse 4 it states that if one works for it, it is not of grace, but of debt.
In proceeding with the next several articles on this subject we'll observe some of the scriptures used by proponents of the falling from grace theory. It is our view that these examples are taken out of context and misused to present a doctrine that takes away from the power of God. It also builds up man's ego & makes him out as being capable of contributing to his own spiritual salvation.
Conclusion: The 'falling from grace' theory puts believers (who are not condemned, John 3:18) in hell!!
