1st Annual Big Sky Behavioral Health Summit

On September 6-7, 2017, the Beaverhead County Mental Health Local Advisory Council (LAC) in cooperation with the Madison County LAC will be hosting the 1st Annual Big Sky Behavioral Health Summit. The focus of this year's summit will be trauma informed care and will include some of Montana's most distinguished presenters on the topic. The summit will be two full days of presentation including a panel discussion with all presenters at the end of day 1.

Trauma informed care is a community based approach to childcare that involves a broad understanding of the impact of toxic stress and trauma on the brains of children. It is believed that such an approach can help to more effectively treat and avoid severe mental health issues, lower school suspensions, enhance resilience, avoid future medical issues, and reduce the rates of suicide and criminal behavior.

Perhaps the highlight of the event will be the keynote address to be delivered by Jessi Close. Ms. Close is a nationally renowned mental health advocate, prominent speaker, and critically acclaimed author of the book Resilience: Two Sisters and a Story of Mental Illness. Ms. Close is also the sister of six-time Academy Award nominated actress Glenn Close. Ms. Close's address is a candid, poignant, and sometimes humorous account of her recovery from mental illness and addiction.

In addition to Jessie Close, presentations and workshops will be delivered by: Billings Clinic Department of Psychiatry Chairman - Dr. Eric Arzubi, Rimrock Foundation Director of Learning and Supervision - Malcolm Horn, Recovery Center Missoula Director - Dr. Daniel Nauts, and Office of Public Instruction Statewide School Mental Health Coordinator - Erin Butts. Each of these presenters will share their expertise and perspective on trauma informed care.

Summit programming will resonate with a broad range of professionals, including mental health providers, addiction care providers, primary care providers, all medical staff, law enforcement officials, and public service/elected officials. All are welcome and we encourage community members to attend who would like to become more trauma informed and enhance their insight regarding mental health issues.

Also included in the summit will be a viewing of the award winning movie Resilience. This movie is an inspirational and informative account of a movement to use cutting-edge science and therapy to better understand and treat the impact of, otherwise catastrophic, stress and trauma on children. According to Matt Fagerholm of ROGEREBERT.COM, Resilience is, "An engrossing study of how adverse childhood experiences (ACEs) can be linked to destructive behavior and medical diseases."

The cost of the two day summit is $125 and 13.25 CEUs will be available at no extra cost. One undergraduate EDU credit will also be available through the Montana Western School

Zoning 7/25/17

By: MJ

Present: Chair Ray Graham, Committee members Doug Franks, Jackie Erfle, John Garry, Dan Nye and Tim Stoker.

Compliance Certificates: A permit was submitted for 2 multi-family 4 plexes. The location of the development is in an unzoned. "Tabled until all fire code questions are answered."Committeeman Garry felt the plat submitted was a lot vague. He wanted to see an elevation drawing even though the permit requirement does not ask for elevation drawings. Garry stated that he felt the property should be zoned before building was allowed. Garry spoke of the possibility of a road that may or may not join the property coming from a bordering sub-division. He brought up the ingress, egress issue and the Fair Housing federal law. Note: "Fair Housing" is a federal statute and has nothing to do with the city allowing a permit.Ed Mooney and Jim McIsaac discussed the existing city plans where Noble Street would go through and connect with Oliver Street. They felt it was not a proper drawing to bring to the zoning board as the plat does not show ingress and egress. Mr. McIsaac speculated that the way the units were lined up it looked like the owner was going to build more. Mr. Mooney felt that this was a good time to correct the zoning mistake made by city and the city has a right and obligation to zone underdeveloped property. Mooney suggested thatTHE STORAGE PLACE the city needs to enter into negotiations to get the property zoned.

Committeeman Stoker conveyed a disclaimer that he has no conflict of interest in this project. He stated he was a fan of anything that promotes growth in the city. It was his hopes that the board could move forward with an agreement of both parties.

Note: The area is not zoned however it is within the city limits. There were no facts on why the city never zoned this piece of property presented at the meeting. Question: The zoning might not be the fault of the city. There could have been objections by property owners in the area.

Chairman Graham stated that the development would have to follow the fire code. Note: It is an unzoned piece of property and the zoning board can't regulate requirements.

NOTE & QUESTION: The investor purchased the property as it exists today. After the fact, 4 or 5± people now are indicating that the city should not allow the permit until the city changes the zoning.

Is this like swimming across what looks to be an unobstructed river, and all of a sudden an alligator opens his jaws displaying a note that says, "Zoning. Go Under or Negotiate." NOTE: This investor has spent money with the intentions of developing a piece of property and the city throws up a road block that says lose your money, your retirement, your income or negotiate with us. WOW.

The next step is for the council to vote on whether the gentleman will get his permit. The question is, does the council even have a say whether the gentleman's permit is allowed in an unzoned area. Can the city do "spot zoning" at the time someone files a permit?

TRANSGENDER IN WHICH RESTROOM

The ACLU, in its petition filed Monday says that the measure to prevent transgender people from using the public bathrooms of the gender they identify with has wording masks the true intent of the initiative and that framing it as a privacy issue is misleading and prejudicial to voters.

The measure would ask voters to decide whether people should use public restrooms and locker rooms designated for the gender listed on their birth certificates.

The Montana Secretary of State's Office and Department of Justice have cleared the proposal's sponsor to begin collecting signatures for the 2018 general election. The conservative Montana Family Foundation must gather more than 25,000 signatures to qualify.

The ACLU of Montana is asking the Montana Supreme Court to rule that a proposed measure can't appear on 2018 election ballots.

Attorney General Fox Honored by National Organization for His Efforts to Fight Drunk Driving and Underage Drinking

Today, the Foundation for Advancing Alcohol Responsibility (Responsibility.org), a national not-for-profit organization that leads the fight against drunk driving and underage drinking, announced the recipients of its 2017 Leadership Awards. Among the recipients is Montana Attorney General Tim Fox for his leadership in preventing impaired driving and underage drinking and for promoting teen driver safety.

"The Foundation for Advancing Alcohol Responsibility has spent two decades fighting drunk driving and underage drinking. We're proud of the fact that both drunk driving fatalities (down 36 percent since 1982), and instances of underage drinking (down 43 percent since 1991 among 12-13 year olds), are at all-time lows," said Ralph Blackman, President and CEO of Responsibility.org. "Attorney General Fox exhibits a strong commitment to saving lives on our nation's roadways by championing comprehensive impaired driving legislation and bringing increased awareness to the dangers and seriousness of drug-impaired driving."

According to the 2017 Montana Youth Risk Behavior Survey, a little over 3% of Montana high schoolers reported driving a vehicle once in the past 30 days after drinking alcohol.

Attorney General Fox has made it a priority to prevent underage drinking through numerous efforts including public service announcements, the Ask, Listen, Learn Program, and public awareness efforts during Alcohol Awareness Month and back to school timeframes. He has also focused on the broader issue of teen driver safety with the IKnowEverything program during Global Youth Traffic Safety Month and National Teen Driver Safety Week.

Additionally, Attorney General Fox has worked diligently to make Montana's streets and highways safer by making sure the state's DUI laws are effective. In the 2013 Legislative session, Attorney General Fox introduced two important DUI bills: HB 355 (Rep. Christy Clark, R-Choteau), which allows a judge to go back further in a repeat DUI offender's record to deliver stiffer penalties and get them into successful treatment programs; and, because marijuana is a growing factor in traffic accidents and roadway deaths, Attorney General Fox advanced HB 168 (Rep. Doc Moore, R-Missoula), which established a THC impairment standard for all drivers. In the 2015 session, Attorney General Fox advocated for HB 488 (Rep. Keith Regier, R-Kalispell), which generally revised DUI laws, including the doubling of statutory minimum fines for DUIs, harmonizing the aggravated DUI code with other DUI statutes, and establishing a $300 administrative fee for people who refuse to provide a breath sample.

Montana Highway Patrol Colonel Tom Butler said, "Attorney General Fox has always provided the Patrol with generous support and strong leadership as we partner together to tackle the scourge of impaired driving in Montana. General Fox sets the standard when it comes to advocating for accountability from drivers."

Formerly known as The Century Council, the Foundation for Advancing Alcohol Responsibility (Responsibility.org) is a national not-for-profit that leads the fight to eliminate drunk driving and underage drinking. Responsibility.org has transformed countless lives through programs that bring individuals, families, and communities together to guide a lifetime of conversations around alcohol responsibility.
