O, Canada! If Only Liberals Knew All the Facts

By Rick Jensen

Canada is often touted in the United States as the panacea of health care, leadership, love, peace and thick bacon.

Listening to Democrats Bernie Sanders, Maxine Waters and Chuck Schumer, one would think there are no Canadians waiting longer than Americans for life-saving surgeries or just to see a doctor in an emergency room.

Canada is perfect!

Since liberals enjoy the comparative phrase, "industrialized nations," there may be some angst or denial in the fact that the Canadian Institute for Health Information has given their emergency room rating a failing grade.

According to the independent non-profit, established to provide actionable information about the nation's health care system, "... compared to other industrialized countries, Canada has the highest proportion of patients reporting excessively long waits in an emergency department."

On average, it takes nearly four hours to see a doctor after you've arrived at a Canadian emergency room. In fact, 29 percent of Canadians checking into emergency rooms have to wait four hours or longer before being seen by a practitioner.

Last year, Quebec's health and welfare commissioner reported 35 percent of patients in the province have to wait five hours or more for care. That's not just bad, it's the very worst in the western hemisphere.

Meanwhile, the Centers for Disease Control reports the average wait time to see a doctor in U.S. emergency rooms is thirty minutes.

Canada also topped the list for having the highest proportion of patients with long delays to see specialists, with 56 percent waiting longer than four weeks, compared with the international average of 36 percent.

In the U.S., which liberals have been telling us has the worst health care in the "industrialized world," half as many people having to wait that long to see a specialist.

OK, so their health care system might not be perfect, but at least Canada has liberal heart-throb Justin Trudeau.

Rolling Stone magazine, the politically liberal firebrand that has a dicey relationship with truthful reporting, poses Canadian Prime Minister Trudeau as the western world's last great hope.

They were obviously impressed with his tweet paying tribute to Fidel Castro, a man who denies the poor health care as good for the ruling class and imprisoned fellow Cubans whose politics differed from his own as "larger than life leader who served his people..."

This is the same Trudeau who awarded a convicted terrorist who murdered Americans, Omar Khadr, $10.5 million as restitution for Omar being held at Guantanamo.

Trudeau made no similar payments to the families of the soldiers murdered by Kahdr.

All of this makes Canada so appealing that the Trump election drove Lena Dunham, Neve Campbell, Barbra Streisand, Raven-Simone, Whoopie Goldberg (who was last seen at Disney World, where U.S. citizen employees were forced to train their cheaper immigrant replacements or be fired immediately), Chelsea Handler, and Breaking Bad's Bryon Cranston to move there...

... or not.

Yeah, wait. The latest is that none of them kept their word.

Even Amy Schumer backed down, claiming her promise to move to Canada was "a joke."

Bummer.

But... Canada!

It's the perfect western country! Every liberal loves Canada!

That's why is rather odd that the Canadian LGBT Pride march in Calgary banned police officers from attending the parade in uniform.

If Canada is so wonderful, what's the problem with spiffy red-uniformed hunks marching or just guarding the marchers?

The president of Calgary Pride, Jason Kingsley, claims the symbols of law enforcement could be "triggering" to attendees, comparing it to PTSD.

"It's that symbol, that authoritative symbol, that weapon that can actually be triggering and traumatic for individuals who have faced oppression or faced issues. So it's similar to things like PTSD, where sounds or sights can actually trigger these emotions or these responses, where they can relive these kind of traumatic episodes or situations that they've experienced in their lives."

To the organizers' disappointment, the Calgary police will still provide security to protect them. Some will march in civilian clothes.

Some marchers will likely faint at the horrible sight of Calgary police stoically protecting their right to march.

For their sake, let's hope none of the marchers twist an ankle and need to check in to a Canadian emergency room.

Let's Talk About Winter (in August)

Going further back than anyone can remember, Dillon Elks Lodge 1554 has been there for its members and this community, with an emphasis on serving our youth and Veterans. We have been and remain one of the cornerstones upon which this community stands. Imagine what Dillon and Beaverhead County would be like without the Elks Lodge.

Our longest standing and most important fundraising event has traditionally been our annual Hide Drive in the Winter when hunters' dressed hides are collected throughout Beaverhead County and sold to a hide broker. This benefits the hunters, our community, and our Lodge. Everyone remembers Johnny Plutt and his dedication to this endeavor. Johnny was a one man band, year after year; organizing, recruiting, and ultimately doing whatever needed to be done to make each Hide Drive a success. We miss him terribly. Ten good men could not replace one Johnny Plutt.

So we're asking for more than ten! Each year after Johnny's passing, our Lodge has struggled harder and harder to live up to Johnny's standard and pull off the Hide Drive. The main issue is one of young volunteers and time. So here is our question, Dillon: besides joining our Lodge and being a young volunteer willing to go dumpster dive and collect hides in the dead of Winter (by the way, its a blast) does anyone have any bright ideas or resources to bring to the table before we take another run at this come Winter? For example, would anyone be willing to help cover the fuel costs involved? Or allow us to use their appropriate equipment? Or piggyback off of their operations that go through Jackson, Wisdom, and Wise River? Or ??? We are open to all offers or suggestions. Please contact Mike, our Lodge Secretary at (315) 783-9483 or email him at michaeljohnweldon@gmail.com.

I can hear Johnny now, saying "Just get 'er done" with a choice expletive added. Dillon: are we still up to meeting that challenge? Let's keep Johnny's legacy alive!

The Rotary Club will meet at the Guild Hall of St. James Episcopal Church located at 203 East Glendale St. in Dillon. Visitors are welcome to join Rotarians for lunch. ## Survey for Residents 60+

You will find a two sided survey insert in today's Dillonite Daily for Dillon residents aged 60 and older. The two-page survey reviews an individual's current living situation, asks if the individual has easy access to transportation for trips in and out of town, and if there's a need for assistance to get to local parks, businesses, churches, restaurants, etc. Questions also target physical needs, level of awareness of area wide social service programs, and involvement in community activities. Some questions, "Would you enjoy more companionship?", are geared around programs that exist but may be underutilized, i.e. Senior Companion Program.

Please feel out this survey and return it to the Women's Resource Center 221 1/2 S. Idaho St. by mail P.O. Box 888, Dillon, MT. or to Womack's Printing, 126 N. Montana St. Surveys must be completed and returned by August 25th. Contact Valerie at the Women's Resource Center with any questions. 683-6106

Kicking off Montana's Biggest Weekend

The Southwest Montana Arts Council and Beaverhead Brewing Company are kicking off Montana's Biggest Weekend on Thursday, August 31, from 6-8 p.m. in Depot Park.

Moonshine Mountain will play Montana-grown bluegrass music from 6-8 p.m. in Depot Park across the street from Beaverhead Brewing Company, who will be selling beer in eco-friendly cups to be enjoyed in the park. Brunchies food truck will offer its regular menu and donate 15% of their profits for the evening to SMAC. From 6-7, SMAC will be doing a tie dying workshop and invites everyone to bring white, all-cotton items to tie dye. A limited number of t-shirts will be provided. There will also be a 50-50 raffle and the proceeds will benefit SMAC's new arts-based early learning center. The event sponsors are Pioneer Federal Savings & Loan and Northwest Farm Credit Services.

For more information, contact 683-6208 or SMACarts@gmail.com.

Rocky Mountain College Football

The 2017 Rocky Mountain College football season kicks off on Thursday when the Battlin' Bears visit No. 15 Dickinson State. The action will begin at 6 p.m. MT from the Henry Biesiot Activities Center in Dickinson, N.D.

The game will be carried live on ESPN 910 AM with Bob Rittierodt calling the action. Live video courtesy Dickinson State will also be available at portal.stretchinternet.com/dsubluehawks.

Entering the second season under head coach Jason Petrino, Rocky Mountain is coming off a 4-7 season in 2016. The Bears are looking to snap a run of three straight seasons with a sub-.500 record. Rocky was sitting at 4-3 after seven games last season before dropping the final four games to close out the year.

Dickinson State begins its season with a No. 15 national ranking in the NAIA Preseason Coaches' Poll. The Blue Hawks have won back-to-back North Star championships and are coming off a 9-3 season in which they lost to Montana Tech in the NAIA Football Championships Opening Round.

Rocky ended the 2016 season averaging 19.6 points per game and gaining 298.8 total yards per game. The Bears earned 101.6 rushing yards per outing with the other 197.2 coming in the passing game. The team converted on 36.9 percent on 3rd-down.

Defensively, Rocky allowed 30.5 points and 369.5 yards per game last season. The opposition went for 167.0 yards rushing and 202.5 yards passing. The Bears had a negative-3 turnover margin and recorded 27 sacks.

These two teams have met 10 times since 2004 with Rocky owning a 9-1 series lead. The Bears are 4-1 in road games against the Blue Hawks in that time. Rocky has won seven straight in the series and three in-a-row in Dickinson. Over the 10 games, Rocky had outscored the Blue Hawks 361-151.

The Battlin' Bears have compiled an 8-2 record during games played in August since 2004. They are 1-0 in games on August 24 during the span.

"You never know until you play. I know our kids want to play a game. We'll learn quickly what things we did a good job on and what things we should have spent more time on. Being such a youthful team with not much experience I'm really interested to see how our guys react to the ups and downs of a football game."

On Opening Season on a Thursday

"It's two fewer days, plus we have school starting this week so our kids have multiple things going on all while preparing for a team that has been in the NAIA playoffs the last two years."

On Challenge Dickinson State Presents

"They are an outstanding football program and have been for years. They have tough kids and that shows in how successful and how hard they play on defense. They don't make mistakes and have taken advantage of offense's mistakes. Offensively they at times played a true freshman at QB last year who is listed as their starter this year. He is a coaches' kid who was successful in high school. You can tell by watching film he is prepared well and makes good decisions with the football."

Request for assistance

The Women's Resource Center is reaching out to our community to ask for help. The need for our shelter, food & fuel services has increased by over 675% from this time last year. That means in real terms that due to our shelter being full for an extended period of time, we have nearly maxed out our resources for food and fuel assistance. Therefore, we ask, can you reach into your pockets to help us by providing the Women's Resource Center with a monetary donation and/or by donating local merchant gas cards and/or grocery cards which we use to support the people who are staying in our shelter? Please consider making a tax deductible contribution today to help ensure that these valuable services are here for the next person in need. If you have questions, contact Alison or Valerie at 406-683-6106.
