Brenda Glenn Eccleston Morstein

*"An excellent wife who can find?
For her worth is far above rubies.
The heart of her husband trusts in her, and he will have no lack of gain. She does him good and not evil all the days of her life" Prov 31:10-1.*

Brenda Glenn Eccleston Morstein died on August 23, 2017 due to complications from Alzheimer's.

Brenda was born in Anaconda,
MT to Beth and Clyde Eccleston on January 12, 1940. Brenda was the 5th girl in a family of 7 children.
She grew up in Anaconda and had sweet memories of summers spent at her family cabin on Georgetown Lake. Brenda was an excellent student and graduated from Anaconda High and enrolled at Western Montana College in 1958. She was a cheerleader at WMC and fell in love with a football player, Joe Morstein. They married December 17, 1960. She completed a teaching certification in 1960. Brenda and Joe had 3 children, Jodi, Gregg, and Todd. She was an expert seamstress and quilter and loved making her home a beautiful and comfortable place. She found great joy in teaching reading, planning parties, and delighted in making Christmas incredibly special! She was an amazing giver of gifts! Joe and Brenda lived in Kalispell, Billings, Polson and returned to Dillon in 1972. Brenda was raised in the Christian Church and walked out her faith in big and small ways. She was always a gracious hostess and treated each visitor as a special guest.

Brenda taught at Parkview Jr. High and Elementary and loved children's books. She delighted in seeing grown children she knew from 2nd grade who she had help to learn to read. She treasured the friendships she built with her colleagues at Parkview Elementary.
Gramma B," BB", or just plain "B" loved being a grandmother. She was the giver of Beanie Babies, American Girl dolls, Christmas ornaments, and terrific books. Her tea parties were always served on china. When cautioned, if she kept showing up with a present every time she visited her grandchildren they would grow to expect a gift...she replied, "that's fine, I'm the Grandma"

She is survived by her husband Joe of Dillon, children Jodi (Salt Lake City), Gregg (Dillon, MT), Todd and his wife Julie (Kalispell, MT) and grandchildren, Kait & Joseph Groot, Daniel, Allie, Grayson and Greer Morstein. Her surviving siblings are Phyllis Coty (Anaconda, MT) Meris Hatfield (Bellevue, WA), Sheryll Hungate (Dillon, MT), Gary & Cindy Eccleston (Charlotte, NC) and Carl & Kay Eccleston (Anaconda, MT).

A memorial service and celebration of her life will be held at Our Saviors Lutheran Church, Dillon MT on Saturday, August 26th at 11AM. A light lunch reception will follow.

In honor of Brenda's long commitment to education a memorial scholarship fund has been set up for an Elementary Education Major at Western Montana College. Contributions can be mailed to WMC Foundation - 710 South Atlantic Street, Dillon, MT 59725 or to a charity of your choice.

Survey for Residents 60+
You will find a two sided survey insert in today's Dillonite Daily for Dillon residents aged 60 and older. The two-page survey reviews an individual's current living situation, asks if the individual has easy access to transportation for trips in and out of town, and if there's a need for assistance to get to local parks, businesses, churches, restaurants, etc. Questions also target physical needs, level of awareness of area wide social service programs, and involvement in community activities. Some questions, "Would you enjoy more companionship?", are geared around programs that exist but may be underutilized, i.e. Senior Companion Program.

Please feel out this survey and return it to the Women's Resource Center 221 1/2 S. Idaho St. by mail P.O. Box 888, Dillon, MT. or to Womack's Printing, 126 N. Montana St. Surveys must be completed and returned by August 25th. Contact Valerie at the Women's Resource Center with any questions. 683-6106

in Yellowstone River

Montana Fish, Wildlife and Parks is closely monitoring recent discoveries of dead fish along the upper Yellowstone River.

Official test results won't be available until next week at the earliest and biologists don't have enough information yet to determine the cause of these localized fish kills.

"Right now we're looking for dead or dying fish, but we just don't have enough information to determine if this is disease related," said Travis Horton, FWP Region 3 fisheries manager in Bozeman. "We've got staff out floating the river and anticipate we'll know much more by the middle of next week. Protecting the health of the river and fishery is our top priority, so we're taking every precaution."

FWP staff floated from Livingston to Grey Bear Fishing Access Site on Tuesday and Wednesday and counted a total of 76 dead mountain whitefish, two dead suckers and one dead brown trout. Biologists will continue to be on the lookout for dead or dying fish along the Yellowstone upstream of Columbus.

On Thursday biologists will float from Mallard's Rest to Pine Creek Fishing Access Sites, upstream of Livingston. This area was the hardest hit by last summer by proliferative kidney disease, or PKD.

PKD is caused by a microscopic parasite. Though the reason the parasite, which exists in the river system year-round, will suddenly begin causing PKD is unknown, high water temperatures, low flows and general fish stress seem to be factors.

Last summer the PKD outbreak on the upper Yellowstone River led to an emergency closure by FWP and the death of thousands of mountain whitefish, which are native to the river. Historically low flows in the river coupled with high water temperatures last summer helped to exacerbate the impacts of PKD on whitefish.

Conditions this year are much different - water temperatures have remained below 70 degrees at Livingston even during the hottest parts of July and flows are above average for this time of year. In addition, the time of year is later and closer to fall and longer, cooler nights. These environmental differences could result in a much different scenario and outcome compared to last year's fish kill.

People who see dead or dying fish in the Yellowstone River, should call Horton at 994-3155.

Mountain Man Released on Parole

Donald Nichols has been in the Montana State Prison for 32 years for kidnapping a woman in 1984 and killing a friend who came to look for her. Nicholas is a self-described "mountain man" and has now been released on parole.

The Department of Corrections says Don Nichols, 86, was released from prison Wednesday and is now reporting to the parole office in Great Falls.

The Montana Board of Pardons and Parole voted to release Nichols, who was originally sentenced to 85 years in prison after he and his son Dan kidnapped biathlete Kari Swenson in the mountains near Big Sky, then killed her friend Alan Goldstein. Swenson, who was chained to a tree, also was shot when Goldstein was killed, and lay for hours with a chest wound. Don and Dan Nichols were arrested five months later following a manhunt in the mountains of southwestern Montana. As part of his parole, Don Nichols cannot go to Gallatin or Madison counties, and must wear a GPS monitor. Dan Nichols was released from prison in 1991 and then in 2013, he was sentenced in federal court to four years in prison and three years of supervised probation in a federal drug case.

Free Firewood Available from Meyers Fire

During the Meyers Fire, firefighters removed several loads of logs and wood along the newly created fuel breaks and firelines. This wood has been hauled to an easily accessible location just off of the Middle Fork Road (5016) approximately 3/10 of a mile south of the intersection of Skalkaho Highway (MT Hwy 38) and the Middle Fork Road (5016).

Firewood gatherers will need to acquire a free use wood permit which is good for up to four cords per person from the Pintler Ranger District office in Philipsburg before gathering wood. Gatherers will not be allowed to use chain saws as the wood has already been cut into chunks measuring from 16" to 4'. Free-use wood may not be resold. Wood gatherers with free use wood permits will be allowed to gather wood daily beginning August 25 from 8 a.m. to 8 p.m. until the wood is gone. The wood is located in a large pit in a gated area that will be staffed by fire personnel.

Gatherers are asked to drive carefully and be considerate of other people gathering wood by not blocking roads or access. Please use caution and keep your distance from heavy equipment working in the area. For more information contact the Pintler Ranger District in Philipsburg at (406) 859-3211.

Maurer Mountain Fire

The Montana Department of Natural Resources and Conservation (DNRC) Dillon Unit responded to a new wildfire on Wednesday. The Maurer Mountain Fire is located approximately 20 south of Dillon and 4 miles east of Clark Canyon Reservoir in Beaverhead County.

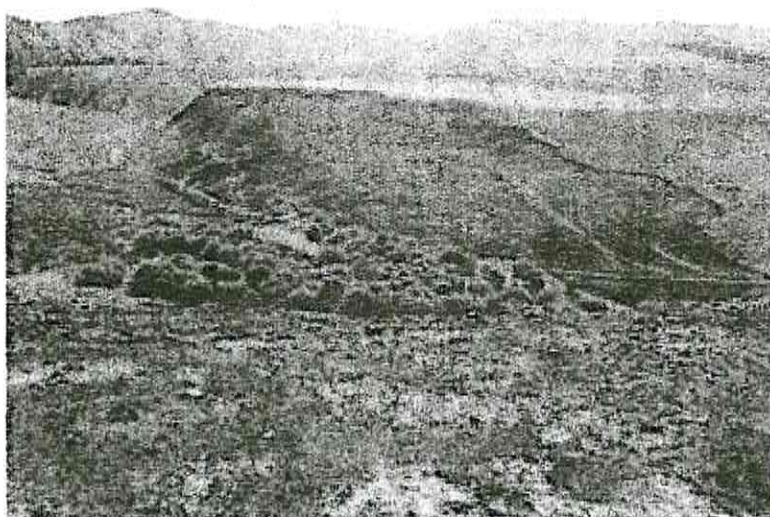

The fire is burning in grass and brush with pockets of timber east of Interstate 15. DNRC personnel are working alongside Beaverhead County Rural Fire Departments and resources from the US Forest Service, Montana Army National Guard, and National Wildlife Refuge.

The fire started Wednesday around 1:30 pm, when a four-wheeler, driven by a DNRC employee, caught fire as he was working in the area. The employee attempted to put the fire out and called additional resources immediately. The fire spread rapidly due to the high temperatures, low humidity, and very dry vegetation.

Beaverhead County Sheriff's Department notified ranchers in the area to ensure human safety and move cattle from the fire area.

Communication infrastructure and an electronic repeater site is the fire vicinity. The nearest houses are within 3 miles of the fire & fire personnel are working with residents to ensure safety & prevent further loss of property. Houses are not threatened at this time.

Firefighters were flying the fire to assess the current situation this morning. Fire activity is currently minimal. Aviation resources laid retardant fire lines yesterday to minimize the fires growth. No report on rain and if it was enough to help yet.
