VAN LOWELL DAVIS

Van Lowell Davis, 88 of Dillon Montana peacefully passed away August 27, 2017 surrounded by his family at the Barrett Hospital & Healthcare, in Dillon, Montana.

Van was born May 27, 1929 in Downey, Idaho to Reynold Davis and (Mary) Leona Thompson Davis. He was the 6th of 10 children of their family. He grew up and attended grade school in Virginia, Idaho and graduated from Downey High School. He also attended BYU-Provo.

He met his wife, Lois Hanson at the McCammon Idaho Rodeo. They were married October 15, 1949.

Their marriage was later solemnized in the Idaho Falls, LDS Temple June 6, 1952. To this union were born five children, Steven Van, VanaLee, DeLyn, Mel and Ann.

Early in their marriage he supported his family by driving a bakery truck for Harts Bakery in Pocatello as he continued to help at his parents' farm in Downey, Idaho.

Van had a strong desire to have his own ranch. To make that a reality, they moved from Southeast Idaho in 1959 to Waterloo, Montana, where they began their ranching journey. Six years later in 1965, they moved their family to Twin Bridges, Montana, where they purchased the Mule Shoe Ranch. Here they farmed the land with alfalfa, wheat, barley and peas to provide food for their calf/cow operation and their feedlot. They ranged their cattle in the summers at Snowline and The West Fork. He eventually, purchased the Holt Place and the Edwards Place in Twin Bridges, to increase the size of his operation. Later they added Semi's to their ranching business to haul cattle to Nebraska in the fall for sale and provided services to other ranchers in the area.

Van enjoyed the ranch life. He put all his time and energy into making this business prosper. Those that knew him, from his children to his hired hands, know that he had high expectations when getting a job done. He taught that a great work ethic will bring you success.

Van personally loved to play football, basketball and even some boxing in his youth. But growing up in the depression, and coming from a large family of 10 children, there wasn't a lot of time to do extra things. They worked hard to provide for their family.

He and his wife Lois, were excellent dancers and took many opportunities to attend Big Band groups in Montana, Idaho and Utah. They loved going to rodeos and in Van's early years, he roped, and even team roped with his son Steve, and for a time, and enjoyed being a pick up man. He also liked a good horse with a nice walk.

Van took other opportunities to help in the community by serving on the Twin Bridges School Board. He served various positions with the Snowline Cattle Association and the East Bench Board. He Officiated for IHSA and MHSA.

BIG SKY AREA TRAIL CLOSED AFTER PARTIALLY CONSUMED ELK FOUND

The Big Sky Community Organization investigated a report of a dead, partially consumed elk next to the Uplands Trail located off Grey Drake Road southeast of the Big Sky Town Center Tuesday morning.

The Organization confirmed the report and the Uplands Trail has been closed. The Ralph's Pass Trail has been closed at its halfway point as well.

The Hummocks Trail will remain open.

The area will be monitored and when the carcass has been consumed, the trail will be reopened.

FWP does not have confirmation as to how the elk died or what is currently feeding on it.

This is a proactive closure to ensure human safety due to possible bear presence.

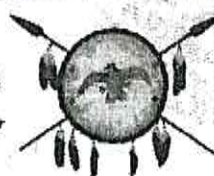

Please contact the Big Sky Community Organization at 406-993-2112 for more information.

Magic and Hypnosis Planned for Fair

Award winning phenomist Michael Mezmer will perform two of his award winning shows Sunday, September 3 at the Beaverhead County Fair.

The show is free and will be held following the rodeo (approximately 5:00 p.m.) on the midway near the grandstand area.

"TranceNosis," a comedy hypnosis show and "DangerMagik," a magic phenomena show, will be the highlighted performances by Mezmer this labor day weekend. There are thousands of magicians in the world but there is only one "Phenomist." Mezmer has performed in 25 countries around the world and has entertained presidents, generals, princesses, and superstars of entertainment; including Michael Jackson. Through a unique combination of optical illusion, hypnotic suggestion, cutting edge magic, and mind blowing phenomena, Michael creates a show like no other.

For more information about Mezmer's magic and hypnosis, visit www.mezmer.info or www.phenomist.net.

Music on Midway During Fair

Live musical performances are scheduled throughout this year's fair on the midway.

Boots Country Karaoke will highlight the week starting with a kick-off performance Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. Boots Country Karaoke will also play at the fairgrounds on Thursday and Friday at 7:30 p.m.

Local musician Ben Power will perform on the midway stage Saturday, September 2 from 11:30-1:00. Power's performance is free and open to the public.

Saturday's musical performances will be highlighted with a Pre Rodeo Concert by local artist Willy James. James' performance will start at 5:00 p.m. on the midway stage by the 4-H concession stand. Willy James is a singer/songwriter from Dillon MT. His musical taste and style is varied, but there's always a hint of the blues in whatever he does. His vocals have the soulfulness of yesterday's greats, such as, John Fogerty, Bob Seger, and Waylon Jennings, with lots of power and expression. He has written nearly 600 songs and performed hundreds of times in the 17 years of playing music. James' performance is free and open to the public.

MONTANA WESTERN PROFESSOR ERIN ZAVITZ PRESERVES HAITIAN HISTORY

Professor Erin Zavitz.

Article by Matthew Amos — The British Library's Endangered Archives Programme has allocated funds to preserve a rare collection of Haitian newspapers thanks to a team of American and Haitian researchers including Montana Western professor, Dr. Erin Zavitz.

This grant will provide equipment and employees to digitize the old newspapers. Natural disasters and a lack of preservation technology put historical documents in the country of Haiti at high risk.

On Jan. 12, 2010, a 7.0 magnitude earthquake in Haiti killed hundreds of thousands of people. Much of the country's infrastructure was destroyed including the United Nations Headquarters and the Parliament building.

The Bibliothèque Haïtienne des Frères de l'Instruction Chrétienne is the library where the newspapers Zavitz seeks to preserve are held. It was also struck by the 2010 earthquake and has received minimal repairs.

Tropical storms and hurricanes also affect the country, making it a difficult place to preserve fragile documents. Zavitz hopes she will be able to visit Haiti to help oversee the project. "I'm hoping to. I won't be able to go until next spring or summer," she said.

These documents are especially important to Zavitz because she uses them in her own work: "These are a pretty rare set of newspapers. For many of them, no other copies exist in the world," she said.

She is currently working on a manuscript project entitled "Visions of Haiti's Past: Commemorations and Representations of the Haitian Revolution."

This project is based on her dissertation where she examined historical documents, literature, vodou songs, oral histories, and national holidays in Haiti to better understand how the Haitian people remember their country's history.

This is not the first time Zavitz has lobbied for a grant: "I've successfully acquired funding for at least half-a-dozen," she said.

For more information about the grant and the program, visit http://eap.bl.uk/database/overview_project_a4d?projID=EAP1024;r=26500

Will Shirley.

Montana Western alum and rodeo team member Will Shirley has been accepted into the University of Missouri Animal Science Graduate School. A native of Conrad, Mont., he has a passion for genetics and agriculture. The University of Missouri is located in Columbia, Mo. and is the largest university in the state. As part of Shirley's specialization in Genetics and Beef Reproduction, he has been conducting embryo transplants throughout the summer.

In addition to receiving a tuition waiver, Shirley will also be an assistant manager at the Missouri farm in charge of livestock. The Animal Science Research Center at the university covers nearly five acres, and includes research laboratories and classrooms.

During his time at Montana Western, Shirley was active in several student organizations including the Rodeo Team, Young Farmers and Ranchers and the student senate, ASUMW. He competed in saddle bronc and team roping. Shirley's goal is to complete a PhD and return to his home in Dillon and lead the field in beef genetics.

MEDICAL EMERGENCIES IN THE BACK COUNTRY

Accidents happen. Are you prepared to deal with them in Montana's backcountry? Plan to attend a special presentation by Dr. Michael Righetti on September 5 at 7:00 pm at Dillon's Search and Rescue Building. The presentation is sponsored by Three Rivers Back Country Horsemen.

Dr. Righetti is an orthopedic surgeon at Polson's St. Joseph's Hospital and a member of the Mission Valley Backcountry Horsemen. His professional job as a surgeon gives him unique qualifications to deal with unexpected medical emergencies encountered on the trail. Objective of his presentation is to advise attendees on first aid supplies you need to have and how to deal with unexpected backcountry medical emergencies.

Dr. Righetti knows from experience that a little ingenuity can go a long way when you have limited resources and wilderness isolation forces you to think outside the box to save a life.

Kicking off Montana's Biggest Weekend

The Southwest Montana Arts Council and Beaverhead Brewing Company are kicking off Montana's Biggest Weekend on Thursday, August 31, from 6-8 p.m. in Depot Park.

Moonshine Mountain will play Montana-grown bluegrass music from 6-8 p.m. in Depot Park across the street from Beaverhead Brewing Company, who will be selling beer in eco-friendly cups to be enjoyed in the park. Brunchies food truck will offer its regular menu and donate 15% of their profits for the evening to SMAC. From 6-7, SMAC will be doing a tie dying workshop and invites everyone to bring white, all-cotton items to tie dye. A limited number of t-shirts will be provided. There will also be a 50-50 raffle and the proceeds will benefit SMAC's new arts-based early learning center. The event sponsors are Pioneer Federal Savings & Loan and Northwest Farm Credit Services.

For more information, contact 683-6208 or SMACarts@gmail.com.
