Time to Get Your Flu Vaccine

Flu shots are now available through the public health department, healthcare providers, and pharmacies. Flu vaccination provides protection against the influenza strains contained in the vaccine that will last for the whole season. Contrary to popular belief, it does not lose its effectiveness if given early. It is important that the vaccine be given before the flu season starts as it takes about 2 weeks before immunity develops. So there is no need to "wait" to get the flu shot.

Flu viruses change from year to year, which means two things. First, you can get the flu more than once during your lifetime. The immunity (natural protection that develops against a disease after a person has had the disease) that is built up from having the flu caused by one flu virus strain doesn't always provide protection against newer strains of the flu. Therefore, a vaccine made against flu viruses circulating last year may not protect against the newer viruses. That is why the flu vaccine is updated to include current viruses every year. Because of these reasons, a vaccine is needed each year. New vaccines now protect against four strains of influenza instead of three. The nasal vaccine is no longer available.

Vaccine may be administered at your healthcare provider, pharmacy, or Beaverhead County Public Health. Public Health is open for immunizations Wednesdays, 9-1 and 2-5. No appointments are needed. Public Health will be holding a drive-thru flu shot clinic on Friday, September 22 from 11-2 on Montana street in the parking lot in front of Womack's Printing. Enjoy the convenience of receiving a flu shot without getting out of your car. Please have a copy of your insurance card ready. The regular vaccine is $25 and high-dose vaccine for seniors is $50.

SECTION OF LOWER BIG HOLE HITS TRIGGER FOR FULL FISHING CLOSURE

An 18-mile stretch of the Big Hole River will close entirely to fishing effective Thursday. Fishing will be prohibited all day every day from the Notch Bottom Fishing Access Site to the river's confluence with the Beaverhead River (this section had previously been under hoot owl restrictions).

This mandatory closure is in accordance with the Big Hole Watershed Committee Drought Plan which calls for full fishing closures when flows have fallen below 100 cubic feet per second. This section of the Big Hole hit this trigger for closure this week as measured at a USGS gauge near Twin Bridges.

Closures of this nature are put in place to protect fish species like Arctic grayling, Rainbow and Brown trout which become more susceptible disease and mortality when conditions like low flows combine with additional stressors.

This section of river will reopen when flows average above 200 cubic feet per second for seven consecutive days, but no later than October 31.

Labor Day
By: MJ

Another celebration has come and gone however while it was here it brought outside money into the community. It was good to see all the traffic in town, to go to a restaurant and have a waiting line, outside and local merchant selling wares and having all supporting the local economy. Where would we be without the naysayers pointing out the flip side of the coin, with objections to waiting in line at restaurants, slow moving traffic, no parking space...?

Dollars: Outside dollars support a community. When any local business is patronized that dollar trickles down throughout the community supporting others. You never know who might be visiting during these times. It might be a business entrepreneur looking for a perfect location.

Political Race: Political race for Nov. 2017 came to light during the parade. Mayor Klakken was riding and walking asking for your reelection support. Paul Pilgrim, running for City Judge, wore his attractive political hat proudly as he rode his bike passing out cards and asking for your vote. Tom Straugh is also running for the mayor position. I was told he was in the parade however I did not see him.

The parade displayed life as it is in a small Montana town with representation from U.S. Military, fire, ambulance, police, local organizations & individual floats along with beautiful horses and proud riders. There was a unique float supporting 8± young riders with their saddles.

THE UNIVERSITY OF MONTANA WESTERN RANKED AMONG THE BEST COLLEGES IN THE STATE.

The University of Montana Western was recently ranked among the "Eight Best Colleges in Montana for 2017" by College Choice, an online education resource. The ranking is based on two primary factors: institutional excellence and student success. The other seven colleges are Carroll College, Montana Tech, Montana State University, the University of Montana, Rocky Mountain College, the University of Providence, and Montana State University-Billings.

The University of Montana Western is a public institution founded in 1893 that boasts a number of impressive rankings:

it's been named #8 in Best Value Schools, #8 in Regional Colleges West, and #3 in Top Public Schools in the Western region by U.S. News & World Report. One of the most unique aspects of Montana Western is the Experience One program, an innovative class scheduling system that allows students to focus on a single course at a time.

The nine fields of academic study at Montana Western include Biology, Business and Technology, Environmental Studies, Education, English, Equine Studies, Fine Arts, Mathematics, and History, Philosophy, and Social Sciences.

Students at the University of Montana Western enjoy a tight-knit community atmosphere and small class sizes where they work closely with peers and professors alike. The 20-acre campus is an excellent choice for students to take advantage of the experiential learning offered by the Experience One program,

Letter to the Editor

LaVon D. Brillhart

The man with the scowl and the funny hair looked in the mirror and said, "Mirror, Mirror on the wall who is the greatest President of all?" The mirror did not hesitate but answered, "President William Henry Harrison was the greatest of all!" The man looking in the mirror was not happy at all. He replied, "Do you know who I am?". The mirror then said, "If you don't know who you are I will not tell you who you are."

The man looking in the mirror wanted to know if all mirrors were the same? Was this a fake mirror? The man looking in mirror thought he should build a wall around all mirrors.

Then the man looking in the mirror said, "I know you lied to me, I know you gave me fake information." The mirror replied, "You asked me a question, I told you the truth, the mirror does not lie to anyone." The mirror then said, "Can you relate to lying?"

The man looking into the mirror was very upset. He thought possibly the mirror had been damaged or the mirror was made in some foreign country.

So the man with the scowl said, "Let me ask you again, mirror, mirror on the wall who is the greatest President of all?" The mirror hesitated but answered and said, "You are sir, yes you without a doubt!"

Everyone has a bad nightmare once in a while!
