Team Bronze Medal and Two Finals Appearances for Men's Trap at World Championship

The USA Shooting Team picked up another medal at the International Shooting Sport Federation (ISSF) World Championship for Shotgun in Moscow, Russia when the Junior Men's Trap Team won a bronze medal in the Team event.

Ryne Barfield, Dale Royer and Logan Mountain earned the medal with their combined, individual finishes. This bronze medal was a first for a U.S. Junior Men's Trap Team since the 2010 World Championship.

En route to the team bronze, Barfield (Poulan, Georgia,) earned a slot in the Junior Men's Trap Final with 117/125 hits. Once in the Final, he only hit 18/25 targets presented and was eliminated in sixth place. This Final was Barfield's first in international competition.

"I wasn't as nervous as I thought I was going to be," said Barfield. "I was probably more excited than anything. It's a Final so you've got to be on your A-game; you can't screw it up. But this it didn't quite play out the way I wanted it to. Hey, it was my first one. I can still say I'm one of the top six Juniors in the world and it's definitely something I'll remember."

Royer (Jackson, Montana) was just one hit shy of a potential slot in the Final as well as he finished in seventh place with 116 hits. Mountain (Palmdale, California) finished in 24th place with 110 hits.

Also earning a slot in a Trap Final for the first time in international competition was former Double Trap specialist

Derek Haldeman (U.S. Army Marksmanship Unit/Sunbury, Ohio).

Haldeman, who gave up Double Trap and switched to Trap the moment he learned his specialty event was being eliminated from the Olympic program, hit 121/125 targets over three days of Qualification, forcing him into a seven-way shootoff for four slots in the Final. Once in the Final, Haldeman finished in fifth place, hitting 21/30 targets.

"The first five in the Final were really good; felt smooth," said Haldeman. "I was more nervous for my Qualification today than anything. Obviously, I was a little tighter than I thought. There were nerves; moving quicker than I thought I was, and the coaches were trying to get my attention; telling me to smooth out and slow down, but it was just too late by the time I figured it out. Obviously, I wanted to win, but I learned a lot at this match."

Haldeman's fifth-place finish today is the highest for the U.S. in this event at the World Championship since 2006 when Bret Erickson won bronze.

Haldeman also won the Men's Trap title this year at the USA Shooting National Championship for Shotgun. He made his international debut in Trap in May at the ISSF

DILLON FOOTBALL REMATCH

The Dillon Beavers and the Columbia Falls Wildcats played a rematch of the championship game last fall. The Beavers snuck out with the win 16-14 with just over a minute on the score board. Gabe Kirkley kicked a 21 yard field goal at the end of the 4th quarter to bring them ahead. The Wildcats however had a chance with 4 seconds left on the clock as they attempted a field goal but missed from 45 yards out. Coby King started in the first quarter with a touchdown by running in 1 yard. The Wildcats answered with a 2 yard run to score in the second quarter. The cats went ahead with a pass for 4 yards to take the score to 14-7. Dillon had an answer for that with a 6 yard pass to Brent Tezak, however the field goal didn't go through leaving the Beavers one point behind. The last score was the field goal with a minute and the failed attempt by Columbia Falls.
