MONTANA WESTERN ATHLETICS DIRECTOR ACCEPTS POSITION WITH NAIA.

Russ Richardson has officially announced his January 1, 2018 resignation as the University of Montana Western's Athletics Director. At that time, he will become the Director of Student-Athlete Health and Wellness for the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics (NAIA). Richardson's role will be to lead the process for development of policies and identifying resources that promote health and wellness for student-athletes across the country. In that capacity, he will work collaboratively with sports medicine professionals, member institutions, and student-athletes as those policies are developed.

"I am honored to have been selected to lead this important initiative for the NAIA. The position is a reflection of the culmination of my career experiences in athletic healthcare and student leadership development. I'm very thankful and appreciative of the experiences and opportunities that I've had serving Montana Western for the past six years. I've learned a lot and grown as a professional and I am excited to take on this new challenge for the benefit of student-athletes throughout our nation," said Richardson.

Additional responsibilities for Richardson will include articulating and advocating legislative issues in concert with NAIA student-athlete leadership groups as well as leading the association's Champions of Character programming with the goal of empowering student-athletes to lead socially responsible lives.

According to Montana Western Chancellor Beth Weatherby, "I have greatly appreciated Russ's leadership of the Athletics Department. Among his many accomplishments, he has systematically upgraded our facilities in order to enhance the student experience. He formed a strong task force to develop an exciting new brand for athletics that has been met with great enthusiasm by our students and alumni. He has also provided leadership and expertise to the Frontier Conference and has been a very successful fundraiser for the university."

The University of Montana Western thanks Dr. Richardson for his years of service to the campus and community.

Letter to the EditorFor What It's Worth

By Buffalo Springfield

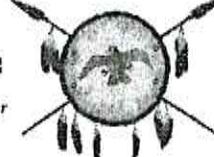

The controversy initiated by our President with the NFL has become a major item in the mass media broadcasts. I am not a devoted sports advocate usually betting on the Vegas line. But these public displays of protest by these professional athletes has escalated to public profanity at the highest level. During my years of active military duty I, and my fellow service members were paid an additional $65 per month (tax free) "Hostile Fire Pay". During my service tour in Korea nine GI's were killed in ambush on the DMZ. Our nations involvement in Southeast Asia (not just Vietnam) resulted in 58,483 names inscribed on "The Wall". Nine of those names are nurses killed-in-action. We also lost three Red Cross "Donut Dollies". In later years many more of our military would be wounded or killed in Grenada, Honduras, Panama, Somalia, Kuwait Iraq, Iran and Afghanistan.

So where am I going with this diatribe? I will have to side with our President/Commander-in-chief on this issue. Can you just imagine what would happen to an athlete who displayed protest during the North Korean National Anthem? I surmise immediate execution. The freedom of speech is a principle of our Nation's constitution and our Democratic way of life. All citizens of our great nation have these rights just as professional athletes. But, Mr. Football Man, use your Millions to express your protest in the print or broadcast media. A sports arena is not an appropriate place or time to express your displeasure or protest. You are dishonoring my Flag and my nation. You are not wearing the proper uniform or helmet. You are there to do battle with a piece of pigskin. For what it's worth.

H. Skip Bybee (U.S. Army, Ret.)

LOST/STOLEN

Please bring back my very old, nostalgic canvas fishing creel you "found" while I was fishing near Cornell Park recently. I'm 80 years of age, and I miss my long-time fishing friend - my creel. Just drop it off at Womack's no questions asked. Thanks!

Drive-thru Flu Shot Clinic Offered

Beaverhead County Public Health will offer a drive-thru flu shot clinic this Friday, September 29th from 11-2 in the parking lot in front of Womack's Printing. (across from 126 N. Montana Street.)

The public health staff will be using the clinic as an emergency preparedness exercise to test the functionality of a drive-thru clinic. In times of public health emergencies, it may be necessary to deliver vaccine or medication using this process. The staff hopes that people will wait until this time to get their flu shot so public health can really test how it will work. There will be 2 simple steps to follow. First follow the signs and stop at the first table for paperwork/payment, then drive to the next table and get your flu shot (no need to get out of your vehicle!), and that's it!

For those who cannot wait for this special clinic, the office will be open for flu shots on Wednesdays, 9 to 1 and 2 to 5.

Please bring a copy of your insurance card (both sides), if you want your insurance billed. The cost of the flu vaccine is $25.00 and $50.00 for the hi-dose vaccine for those over 65 yr. We prefer not to vaccinate children under the age of 5 using the drive-thru clinic.

For more information, please call Beaverhead County Public Health at 683-4771.
