A SNEAK PEAK AT WINTER GREETS HUNTERS ON WEEKEND NUMBER 3

On the third weekend of the general deer and elk season, hunters faced a change in the weather to bitter cold with significant snow in parts of southwest Montana. Staff and volunteers opened six check stations across the region seeing moderate harvest success.

As has been the case each week, the Cameron check station in the Madison Valley saw the most hunters come through with 391. At Cameron, hunters checked 15 elk, six mule deer, and 5 white-tailed deer. Success was slightly greater than the week prior and about average considering the past eight years of data.

The check station which saw the highest percentage of hunters with game was the Livingston station which had over a 26 percent success rate over the 10 percent success rate in weekend number two.

Success remained about the same to the west compared to previous weeks according to check station data from Alder, Divide and Mill Creek. Conditions made access difficult in these areas with hunters reporting many roads impassable and many commenting on the challenge of walking through areas of deep snow. With that said, Divide saw a big jump in hunter numbers over last year and success was about double that of the same weekend last year.

American Legion Post 20

Beaverhead Search and Rescue News

Submitted by Mel Rice - Public Relations Officer

The Beaverhead Search and Rescue had another light month as far as searches/rescues are concerned. The Search Manager pagers went off two times in the past month. One was for an individual hunting the east side of the Big Hole. He was reported missing by some other hunters that were sure his truck had not moved for four days. As it turned out he had a camp in the area and was fine. There was no field response on this incident. The other page came in for two gentlemen in the Antelope Flats area. They got turned around when they hiked into the trees but managed to find their way out. Again there was no field response. On November 1, the S&R unit held its monthly meeting under the direction of Commander Alan Holt. There were 40 members in attendance. The two near callouts were discussed as well as the fish derby to be held in January. Tickets for the derby are available now from Search and Rescue members. Price is the same as it has been for the last few years, $10.00 a ticket. They make great Christmas stocking stuffers, so don't hesitate, get them before the big rush.

Training was discussed by Dr. Clarke. There will be a two day avalanche course offered in February. It will entail one full day of classroom work and a full day in the field the following day. There will also be an evening of computer map program training for those members interested next Wednesday at 6:30 pm.

There was also a lengthy discussion about the "Mills" money. There are several members that will be meeting with the county commissioners sometime in the near future. The meeting will be to clarify specific items.

The meeting was adjourned about 8:40 pm. The membership had been home about an hour when pagers went off for a rescue in the Tower Mountain area up Birch Cr. An individual had been out hunting when snow came in and caused him to become stuck. Reports said there was about 10 inches of snow in the region. The stuck party had called his sister to come rescue him and while trying to reach him, she and her husband became stuck as well. SAR members were deployed to the field around 10:20 pm and had all individuals recovered by 11:15 pm. All were in good health.

Your Beaverhead Search and Rescue would like to remind everyone, when you venture out to the great outdoors please
