Claudene (Dodgson) Berberia, 75

Claudene passed away Tuesday November, 7th surrounded by the love of her family.

Claudene was born February 17th, 1942 in Butte, MT to Claude and Hazel (Sis) Dodgson. She was raised in Melrose, MT where she attended grade school. She graduated High School from Beaverhead high in 1960.

Claudene moved to California in 1962 where she met Manuel Berberia. They wed in 1964 and had their oldest daughter, Jodi, in 1968 and Rachelle in 1970.

While Claudene loved the ocean, her love for her parents and the mountains was greater and she moved back to Montana in 1981. Following her move she worked for the Montana Forest Service and several years as a dispatcher for Beaverhead County Sheriffs office.

Claudene had a great passion for animals and could never say no to one of her neighborhood cats. However, the love she had for her family was unexplainable and forever live within them.

Claudene is survived by her daughter Rachelle (Troy) Morse of Jefferson City MT, sister Nancy (Steve) Keene of Melrose, MT. Granddaughters Ember (Brandon) Craig, Ashley (Brett) Hicks, Tara (Keaton) Caprara, Kyla Rude, Erica Rude, and grandson Deven Duty. She is also survived by her 4 great-grandchildren and several nieces and nephews.

She was preceded in death by her daughter, Jodi Rude, and both of her parents.

There will be a funeral Monday November 13th, at 2:00 p.m. At Brundage funeral home in Dillon MT.

INFORMATION ON THE UPCOMING LEGISLATIVE SPECIAL SESSION

by Rep. Tom Welch House District #72

As many of you know by now, next week the 65th Montana Legislature will gather in Helena for a Special Session to address budget shortfalls. The reasons for this shortfall have been well documented and the time has now arrived to move beyond the blame game and get serious about addressing our current and future fiscal well-being as a State. This will be the first Special Session held since 2007. We have been told and history confirms, to prepare for a fast and furious pace.

The Governor in his 'Call' of the legislature has Issued a very narrow window of topics and viable solutions for the Legislature to consider. One of the things that the public will want to watch for is whether the legislature can muster the votes necessary to expand this 'Call'. If successful, we will be able to add more tools to our tool belt than the Governor is currently providing, so to speak, as we address our fiscal situation. If the Expansion call is unsuccessful, the Session may well take on a different tenor.

On Monday, November 13th and early on Tuesday, November 14th, a handful of Committees from both the House and Senate will meet to review and discuss the Bills and options under consideration. Included among these key Committees is the House Tax Committee upon which I sit. Both the full House and full Senate will go into Session on Tuesday afternoon with other floor Sessions expected for Wednesday and perhaps Thursday. Further Committee meetings will be held as needed. These schedules are subject to change as we will be moving rapidly and on the fly in some cases.

What do I see happening? My expectations are that when we are finished, no one will be happy. We may well see some combination of financial cuts for some agencies, services and programs, temporary revenue enhancers (read tax increases) and fund transfers all being used to reach a viable solution. In what proportion for each, is the key/ None of us will escape the pain. As one Senator recently put it, our job as Legislators will be to manage and minimize as best we can, the inevitable pain for all impacted.

Just a reminder, you often can find current Legislative Information including on the Special Session at the Legislative website www.mt.gov/leg.

REAL Montana Media Seminar takes place in Billings

Dillon based Ag lender, Andy Lundquist and Senator and business owner, Jeff Welborn, just returned from three days in Billings as part of REAL Montana (Resource Education and Agriculture Leadership). For these two and other members of REAL Montana Class III, this was the second seminar in their two-year educational program.

Welborn noted "We Montanans take pride in doing things differently. This outside the box approach, to leadership development, is already producing big returns after graduating only two classes. It's an honor to be part of Class III, and I encourage everyone to get involved in some way, this has huge potential for leading the natural resource industries back to more solid footing, not only in our state, but the entire nation."

The focus of the seminar November 2 - 4 was media & communications. While in Billings, class members participated in 14 live television and radio interviews and took part in editorial meetings at the Billings Gazette and the KULR8 and KTVQ-2 studios. The class received training on how to handle challenging interviews, get a story in the news, elevator speeches, social media, and crisis management from media professionals hailing from the Billings Gazette, Northern Ag Network, Big Sky Business Journal, Montana State University, Yellowstone Public Radio, ExxonMobil, and BNSF. A highlight of the seminar was a networking banquet at the Petroleum Club where class members interacted with local program sponsors and industry leaders.

These 20 emerging and established Montana leaders were competitively selected from a pool of qualified candidates representing a wide variety of agriculture and natural resource industries across the state to take part in Class III of REAL Montana. The two-year program features eight in-state seminars; a five-day national study tour in Washington D.C.; and a ten-day international trip in November 2018. Seminars include training in natural resource development, agriculture institutions and agencies, public speaking/media, economics, state and federal policy, international trade, urban/rural relationships, water issues, and other current industry topics.

REAL Montana is funded through a partnership with Montana State University Extension and private industry. Oversight is provided by an advisory board of industry leaders.

Complete program information is available at www.realmontana.org or by contacting Janelle Booth, program director, at (406) 994-6480, janelle.booth@montana.edu.

HANDS-ON LEARNING AT THE HEART OF EXPERIENCE ONE AT THE UNIVERSITY OF MONTANA WESTERN.

Students at Montana Western are immersed in hands-on learning experiences. These experiential learning opportunities make up the heart of Experience One, a block scheduling program that allows students to focus on one course at a time for 18 days before moving to the next.

Because of the focused nature of Experience One at Montana Western, the only public four-year institution to offer the program, students are able to learn in the field and in the classroom while building their portfolios for future careers and graduate school applications.

Below are a few examples of how students have engaged in exciting hands-on learning experiences this year, and how their efforts are helping others at the same time.

Psychology Student Assists with Government Research

Psychology Major and University of Montana Western junior Roberta Irvin interned at the University of Pennsylvania over the summer. She worked with the National Institute on Drug Abuse, aiding researchers in their studies on the transmission of HIV.

After hearing of her plans to research the science of substance abuse following graduate school, Psychology Professor Heather Haas sent Irvin applications for the internship with NIDA.

The University of Pennsylvania was Irvin's first choice out of 30 sites across the country where NIDA employs student interns.

Irvin believes none of this would have been possible without Experience One.

"It's really nice having the one-on-one time with the professors. I wouldn't have heard about the internship without that, let alone applied for it," she said.

During the internship, Irvin performed data entry for various studies, ran blood samples, and attended several conferences. She found the lectures based around substance abuse most interesting.

She hopes to focus her future research on treatment so that she can "make a difference in people's lives."

Her work with NIDA will help her stand out when she applies for further education and eventually a career: "This will be good to have on my resume, and it will really help me get into grad school," Irvin said.

Firefighter Fitness Assessed by HHP Students

Assistant Professor Laura Young's Exercise Physiology class had the opportunity to test the health of the Dillon Volunteer Fire Department as their final assignment in Block 1.

The University of Montana Western's new Health and Human Performance (HHP) Lab has opened its doors to the campus and to the community. In the first weeks of the school year, Montana Western's HHP students had already utilized the new facility, becoming skilled in administering and supervising fitness test batteries and providing support during the annual fitness testing of the Dillon community's first responders, including the Dillon Volunteer Fire Department.

The new lab's metabolic testing capabilities will allow the expansion of key services, provide valuable information to collaborating organizations and individuals, and ensure Montana Western's students have the skills for continued success in the field of HHP.

The firefighters were evaluated for upper body, core, and grip strength among other tests. They also had their blood pressure and body mass index (BMI) measured.

Professor Young said it was, "a great opportunity to help out the community."

For more information about Experience One and the University of Montana Western, and to schedule a visit, visit www.umwestern.edu or call 877-683-7331.

Biblical Truth... God's order for the best possible family unit

---We believe the following: (1) the Bible was given by the inspiration of God as stated in 2 Timothy 3:16-17; (2) all statements made in this and any ensuing articles will be based on what the Bible says; (3) the Bible only is the reliable source of spiritual & doctrinal truth; (4) all beliefs in conflict with Biblical teachings are false.---

In the previous article we quoted Ephesians 5:25, "Husbands, love your wives, even as Christ loved the church and gave himself for it." It's interesting to note that this follows the statement, "For the husband is the head of the wife, even as Christ is the head of the church; and he is the savior of the body." (Ephesians 5:23)

The idea is that in order for the husband to be the head of the wife as expected by God, he must strive to have the kind of love that would compel him to love, cherish, honor, and care for his wife.

The biblical position of the woman in the home is stated in Ephesians 5:22, "Wives, submit yourselves to your own husbands, as unto the Lord." The apostle Peter echoes this command in 1 Peter 3:1, "Likewise, you wives, be in subjection (willingly submit) to your husbands; that, if any obey not the word, they also may without the word be won by the conversation (conduct) of the wives."

The word 'submission' as used by God is designed to bring unity & order emanating from love. Since the general population has rejected the idea that God's plan is best, submission is now considered to be a sign of weakness. Men, women, & children just don't like being submissive. It's like (true story) the young man who announced that he was tired of people (referring to parents and teachers) telling him what to do. To escape this terrible dilemma he was going to join the Army. Leaving a loving family & caring teachers for a drill Sergeant makes sense, right?

The key to God's plan begins with the man's willingness to love as he should. If husbands love as they should it is likely that wives will be much more willing to submit to their leadership.
